A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE*Healing Encounter

Every Second Saturday of even months (February, April, etc.), we are holding “Healing Encounters” in the church beginning at 7:00 p.m. We began this tradition after the experience with the “Burning Bush” at the Parish Ignition this past February. It will be this Saturday evening (September 14), beginning at 7:00 p.m. If you have your candle from the Parish Ignition or an earlier Healing Encounter, please bring that with you. We have a procession during the evening, where individuals (or families) bring up their candles to place them on the four level “burning bush” that is the platform for the monstrance. We then take time in praise and adoration, a brief testimony, as well as silent prayers and then prayers for healing of hearts, minds, souls, and bodies. It’s a wonderful way to spend a Saturday evening. We will have prayer teams available to pray with you, as well as the general opportunity to take time worshiping the Lord in the context of Eucharistic Adoration. Hope to see you there!

Lumen Veritatis

Our second season of Lumen Veritatis will get under way this coming Saturday evening, October 21st at Lansing Catholic High School at 7:00 p.m. in the LCHS auditorium. This series is intended to help adults have an evening of fellowship and growth as we together engage with what is Beautiful, Good, and True. Next Saturday, Sister Louis Marie, superior of the Dominican Sisters’ community here in Lansing, will be giving a talk entitled “Aquinas on Humility: Evidencing Man’s Relation to God.” She holds Sacred Theology Licentiate in philosophy from the Catholic University of America (CUA). During her time at CUA, Sister focused on study of Aristotelian virtues and Thomistic metaphysics. She will be presenting portions of her thesis on St. Thomas Aquinas’ exposition of the virtue of humility in the Summa Theologica, Secunda Secundae. The format of the evening is light appetizers, drinks, and fellowship at 7:00 p.m. Sister’s talk will follow at 7:30 or so, and will conclude with time for questions. Those who attend are invited to stay after to enjoy good conversation, food and drink. If you haven’t joined us before, consider making it an evening. I think you’ll enjoy yourself. It is one of the ways we are trying to foster Christian culture in our community.

Annual Report

Some of you may be wondering about our 2016-2017 Annual Report. I have been working with Don Radke on getting everything finalized in terms of the finances for the last fiscal year, and will include the Annual Report as an insert in the bulletin next weekend. Thank you for your continued generosity in terms of time, talent, and treasure. We are blessed!

Heaven, Our True Home

This week in our first reading, from the Prophet Isaiah, we get a glimpse of the New Heavens and Earth, and the Heavenly Banquet that is prepared for all those whose names are written in the Book of Life. It’s a place where there will be no more tears, no more sadness, no more pain. We will see clearly—ourselves, others, and the Lord. As we journey here below, we are reminded daily that this is not heaven! Yes, there are moments of splendor, joy, and peace, that give us a foretaste of heaven, but that is in our future. The key for us here and now is to be responsive to the invitation to the Lord who calls us to join the weekly (at least) foretaste of heaven that is given to us at Mass. As I mentioned last week at Mass, we need to ask the Lord for help to see ourselves, our lives, our talents, our treasure from the perspective of eternity. How are we investing ourselves? What do we value and how do we live so as to bear fruit that will remain. That’s the Lord’s desire for us, and He gives us Himself in the Eucharist to live that mystery out each day.

St. Teresa of Avila, Pray for Us!

At a few of the Masses last weekend, I mentioned the great mystery captured so powerfully by St. Teresa of Avila, whose Feast Day is October 15th, in a poem that she composed. I share it here for your edification and reflection:

Christ Has No Body

*Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours*

It’s a tremendous mystery how the all powerful God chooses to do good work in and through you and me!

Trying to be more Christ-like in the world,

Father Steve
