A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Solemnity of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

This Sunday, we celebrate the Holy Family. Of course, with the birth of Jesus, the Holy Family was complete. Joseph and Mary provide to all of us, but especially to parents, what it means to “model” the faith for their family. Mary and Joseph were holy and they made their home a place of holiness. God our Father longs for all homes to be marked by holiness. Let us entrust our homes and our families to the prayers of the Holy Family, so that we might share their destiny, which is life in Heaven forever.

Mary, the Mother of God (New Years Day)

Tomorrow, which is the “Octave of Christmas,” we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. We will have two Vigil Masses. The first Vigil Mass is at 5:30 p.m. this evening, December 31, as well as a second Vigil Mass at 10:30 p.m. December 31st (NOTE the time change from prior years) followed by adoration, and Benediction just prior to Midnight. On January 1st, New Year’s Day we will have Mass at 10:00 a.m. If you are traveling, may you have the protection of your guardian angels, and have a joyous celebration with your family and friends. God bless you all.

Thank You!

Thanks to all who worked so hard to make our celebration of Christmas so joy-filled. It was a great blessing to have a wonderful choir, complete with brass, at the Midnight Mass. I am grateful to David Stattelman for his work with the choir, for the accompanists, cantors, and Praise & Worship ensembles. Behind the scenes, the Rosary Altar Society and St. Joseph Guild have worked tirelessly to prepare and maintain our church for worship, for which I am very grateful. I also want to thank all the liturgical ministers as well. Thanks to the Knights of Columbus and the St. Vincent DePaul Society for their help with families in need. Finally, I want to thank the tremendous staff at the parish for their great labors for all of us and those we serve. As we all know, Resurrection School is a great gift to us and our community, and I thank Jacob Allstott, our school principal, and all those who collaborate with him to make our school such a great place for learning and growing in faith. Thanks for your generous support of our parish and school staff, and the financial and volunteer help you give in so many ways. To all of you, including the vital lay faithful of the parish, I say, “Thank you and God bless you!” As I anticipate the new year, I’m calling to mind God’s goodness to me. Among the greatest gifts to me is being pastor of this great parish. Thank you for your partnership with me in this ministry.

Sanctuary Renderings by Thomas Rajkovich (Delayed)

I had wrongly thought that we would have received sanctuary renderings prior to Christmas, but that proved overly optimistic. I remain excited about the plans that Tom has pulled together, but we will need to wait a bit longer to unveil them for your review. As I stated last week in the bulletin, we will schedule an opportunity for parishioners and to give feedback and ask questions. Stay tuned for that in coming weeks.

Come and See!

Whether you are visiting, new to the parish, or have been here for a long time, you may be interested in a new initiative that we will begin in January. We are offering bi-weekly meetings for those who would like to gather together outside of Mass. So, if you or someone you know would like to meet other parishioners, spend some time praying with each other, and have fellowship, please consider joining us (and perhaps bringing a friend or family member) for what we are calling “Come and See.” We will begin these “Come and See” evenings on Wednesday January 10 at 7:00 p.m. in the newly christened “JP II Room,” which is the old St. Vincent de Paul space at 123 Rumsey. There is a flier in this weekend’s bulletin describing “Come and See.”

Merry Christmas!

Please take a copy of the three books we have available this year. One is Perfectly Yourself: Discovering God’s Dream For You by Matthew Kelly. A second title is 77 Ways to Pray with Your Kids by Jerry Windlay-Daoust. The third is Understanding the Mass: 100 Questions, 100 Answers, by Mike Aquilina. Those are our Christmas gifts from the parish, which we are able to give once again this year because of a generous parish family.

In this Liturgical Year, I pray we will all grow in our awareness of God’s healing love, and open ourselves more and more to God’s healing action in our hearts this year—for our own sake and for the sake of those we love. Feel free to take extra books to give to friends or loved ones who were unable to join us for worship this Christmas. In that way, we can all help spread the faith.

With great joy and peace,

Father Steve

SCHOOL NEWS

CHRISTMAS BREAK

December school days seem to move faster than most, and a couple of snow days here and there certainly helps. But as we come to the end of 2017, I want to wish every parish family a Merry Christmas!

This time of year always encourages me because of how generous our parish and school families are with their time, talent, and treasure. We have been greatly supported by our families, and we are so blessed to be able to serve God in such a committed and authentically Catholic community.

So thank you to all our parish and school families for supporting and partnering with us. May God bless you and your family during the season of Christmas!

HUSH Documentary Coming to St. Martha, Okemos on January 8, "Women Deserve to Know"

At 6:30 pm on Monday, January 8, the St. Martha Council of Catholic Women (CCW) will be showing the award-winning documentary HUSH (<http://hushfilm.com>).

Indo-Canadian Director, Punam Kumar Gill, felt that questioning anything around abortion was a treason to her feminist identity. But when she heard that the health information being given to women was subject to the politics of the people involved, and that 50 million women worldwide (1 in 3 in America) could be affected annually, she decided to take an honest and comprehensive look at this controversial subject. In the documentary, she wades through the highly volatile and politicized research around abortions' disputed connections with breast cancer, premature birth and psychological problems.

This compelling documentary is open for all in the community (women and men) to attend- come watch it with us! Childcare will be provided. To watch the film's trailer, visit <http://hushfilm.com/#section-trailer>.

Pax Christi Lansing will be hosting its 11th Annual, New Year Peace Prayer Service on January 1, 2018 from 1- 2:30p.m. at St. Therese Church. This year's theme is, "One Love, One Heart, One Community." The focus will be on coming together as a human community to re-build the goodness, hope, respect and love for all living beings that is so critical to building and sustaining a nonviolent, peaceful world. The service will use scripture, reflections from various religious traditions, singing and sharing. Questions? Contact Deacon Dave Borzenski, borzenskid@gmail.com; 517-331-5765.

When you or a loved one are in the hospital, remember to identify yourself as a parishioner of Resurrection. This allows the hospital to contact us.

Prayer for the Return of Non-practicing Catholics

O Good Shepherd, you never cease to seek out the lost, to call home the stray, to comfort the frightened, and to bind up the wounded. I ask you to bring (names) back to the practice of the Faith, and to remove all obstacles that prevent them from receiving your abundant mercy, which flows sacramentally through the heart of your holy Church.

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, their Guardian Angels, their Patron Saints and the ever-prayerful St. Monica, may you pardon their sins and unshackle them from whatever hinders their freedom to come Home. For you, O Good Shepherd, have loved us to the end and offered yourself to the Father for the salvation of all. Amen

Prayers for the return of a non-practicing Catholic also should be accompanied by sacrificial and private acts of fasting, and almsgiving in their name.

LIVE TO INSPIRE. LEARN TO INVITE.

Volunteer Openings at Mother Teresa House

Are you interested in caring for terminally ill people? Mother Teresa House has openings evenings and weekends. Orientation is Thursday evening, January 4th 6-8pm, followed by Practical Skills Workshop Fri, January 19th, 5-8p and Sat, January 20th 9-3p. If you might be that person please contact us at 517-484-5494 or serving@motherteresahouse.org.

ST. MONICA SODALITY

The icon of St. Monica on our prayer card depicts her in this most familiar way, with motherly tears for the lost. Written in Greek are the words, "Holy Mother of Augustine". Here's an interesting bit of history.... When Spanish missionaries were bringing the gospel in the 1700's to the people who were living in what is now known as California, they named one mission, Santa Monica, after our Patron. Why? Because located there were a pair of springs that were reminiscent of the tears St. Monica shed for her son.

Praying for our loved ones to come to or return to the faith is essential for their conversion. Simply put their names in the petition box that is located in the back of the Church and begin to pray the prayer that is on the back of the prayer card. Please join us!

The next St. Monica Saturday is January 13th. Rosary @7:45am, Mass@8:15am and Divine Mercy Chaplet after.

"Holy Mother of Augustine, Pray for Us"
