A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVEGaudete et Exsultate

Last week, Pope Francis released another “Apostolic Exhortation” which is translated, “Rejoice and Be Glad: On the Call to Holiness in Today’s World.” Here are some powerful quotes from the exhortation:

— “I like to contemplate the holiness present in the patience of God’s people: in those parents who raise their children with immense love, in those men and women who work hard to support their families, in the sick, in elderly religious who never lose their smile.”

— “Holiness is the most attractive face of the church.”

— “We are frequently tempted to think that holiness is only for those who can withdraw from ordinary affairs to spend much time in prayer. That is not the case.”

— “We are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves.”

— “This holiness to which the Lord calls you will grow through small gestures.”

— “Do not be afraid of holiness. It will take away none of your energy, vitality or joy.”

— “Thanks be to God, throughout the history of the church it has always been clear that a person’s perfection is measured not by the information or knowledge they possess, but by the depth of their charity.”

— “Jesus explained with great simplicity what it means to be holy when he gave us the Beatitudes (Mt 5:3-12; Lk 6:20-23).”

— “Giving and forgiving means reproducing in our lives some small measure of God’s perfection, which gives and forgives superabundantly.”

— “We need to think of ourselves as an army of the forgiven. All of us have been looked upon with divine compassion.”

— “The saints are not odd and aloof, unbearable because of their vanity, negativity and bitterness. The Apostles of Christ were not like that.”

— “In this call to recognize him in the poor and the suffering, we see revealed the very heart of Christ, his deepest feelings and choices, which every saint seeks to imitate.”

— “It is true that the primacy belongs to our relationship with God, but we cannot forget that the ultimate criterion on which our lives will be judged is what we have done for others.”

— “The saints do not waste energy complaining about the failings of others; they can hold their tongue before the faults of their brothers and sisters and avoid the verbal violence that demeans and mistreats others.”

— “Christian joy is usually accompanied by a sense of humor.”

— “The saints surprise us, they confound us, because by their lives they urge us to abandon a dull and dreary mediocrity.”

— “A community that cherishes the little details of love, whose members care for one another and create an open and evangelizing environment, is a place where the risen Lord is present, sanctifying it in accordance with the Father’s plan.”

— “I do not believe in holiness without prayer, even though that prayer need not be lengthy or involve intense emotions.”

— “We should not think of the devil as a myth, a representation, a symbol, a figure of speech or an idea. This mistake would lead us to let down our guard, to grow careless and end up more vulnerable.”

— “The devil does not need to possess us. He poisons us with the venom of hatred, desolation, envy and vice. When we let down our guard, he takes advantage of it to destroy our lives, our families and our communities.”

— “Discernment is not about discovering what more we can get out of this life, but about recognizing how we can better accomplish the mission entrusted to us at our baptism.”

— “Let us ask the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us a fervent longing to be saints for God’s greater glory, and let us encourage one another in this effort.”

Some of you may be concerned about what the Pope writes about Pelagianism and Gnosticism. It’s not clear to me that those sections are all that helpful to anyone, but I would heartily recommend that we all engage seriously with the Pope’s encouragement to live lives of joyful holiness.

Healing Encounter

We will be having a Healing Encounter this Saturday evening, April 14th. Encounter is a time of praise, worship, adoration, and prayers for healing. It begins at 7:00 p.m., and we will finish up by 9:00 p.m. Join us for as much of the evening as you can. It is a time of prayer for each other and inviting the Lord to make Himself present in our midst.

The Liturgical Power of the “Road to Emmaus”

This Sunday, we have St. Luke’s powerful account of the conversation of the disciples and Jesus on the Road to Emmaus. We see in this account a beautiful picture of what happens to us every time we gather as believers to celebrate the Mass. Like them, we ask Jesus to open the scriptures for us so we can understand. Then, after that, as the gospel reads today,

“And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?””

Let our hearts and minds and lives be transformed by this profound encounter with Jesus in word and sacrament.

Grateful that Jesus reveals Himself in the breaking of the bread,

Father Steve

April 15, 2018

Dear Parish Family,

I write this letter to invite you to join me in support of this year's 2018 Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA). Our theme, "Go and Announce the Gospel of the Lord," reminds us that each of us is called to discipleship. Supporting the DSA is one way to share our blessings and the Good News with the world.

Our contributions to DSA enable the Catholic Church to evangelize through dozens of ongoing ministries in our parish and throughout our diocese. The programs and services funded by the DSA offer direct assistance to individuals and families and to our parishes, Catholic schools, and Catholic Charities agencies. Vitally important is the impact these efforts have in our parishes, where so much of the Church's evangelizing work occurs in the activities of everyday life.

Please prayerfully consider making a DSA contribution this year. The special DSA edition of FAITH magazine and a DSA video message from Bishop Boyea are available online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa. You may also use this link to make a DSA gift via credit card or electronic funds transfer from a bank account. Pledge forms will also be provided at liturgies on DSA Commitment Weekend, April 21 and 22.

Our DSA parish goal for 2018 is $72,386, and with your help, I am confident we can reach that goal. Once we reach our goal, 50% of any contributions received, over and above our parish goal, will be returned to our local parish.

Thank you for your generosity. Be assured of my prayers for you and your loved ones.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Pastor
