A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Town Hall Meeting (Sunday at 3:00 p.m.)

As I mentioned last weekend, we will have a town hall meeting in Mercy Hall Sunday at 3:00 p.m. at which Tom Rajkovich will give a presentation of a new proposal for the sanctuary renovation. Please join us. After his presentation, there will be time for questions. I look forward to sharing this proposal with you, which, as I said last week, seems a much better fit architecturally with our church than the original Granda renderings which we showed last year. It also has a very interesting resemblance to the original proposal for the main church, which was drawn in 1937 but never built (the drawing showed the gym below the church, which we now know was built on the first floor of the 1939 high school building). I suspect Monsignor Gabriels would be quite pleased with what we are proposing now.

Diocesan Services Appeal 2018

Let me again say "Thank you" again for your generous response to the Witness to Hope Campaign last year. As you may recall, the Witness to Hope Campaign included the funds that would have been raised by the DSA in 2017. We are conducting DSA 2018 now because the diocese needs to cover ongoing costs of the diocesan staff and services throughout the ten counties of the diocese. This year, our parish DSA goal is $72,386. I want to acknowledge that I know that many of us are making ongoing payments on our Witness to Hope pledge, and that some of us stretched ourselves to give generously to that appeal. Please know that Bishop Boyea is grateful for your generous support of the diocese, as am I for your support of our efforts here. The bishop invites you/us to prayerfully discern what we might be able to give this year to the DSA. For those who would like to view Bishop Boyea's video message about the DSA, you can visit the diocesan website: (dioceseoflansing.org/DSA). Thank you in advance.

Catechism on the Magisterium and Dei Verbum 10

As I mentioned last week in my homily, I am including texts that I quoted last week in my homily. First, from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

888 Bishops, with priests as co-workers, have as their first task "to preach the Gospel of God to all men," in keeping with the Lord's command.⁴¹⁵ They are "heralds of faith, who draw new disciples to Christ; they are authentic teachers" of the apostolic faith "endowed with the authority of Christ."⁴¹⁶

889 In order to preserve the Church in the purity of the faith handed on by the apostles, Christ who is the Truth willed to confer on her a share in his own infallibility. By a "supernatural sense of faith" the People of God, under the guidance of the Church's living Magisterium, "unfailingly adheres to this faith."⁴¹⁷

890 . . . It is this Magisterium's task to preserve God's people from deviations and defections and to guarantee them the objective possibility of professing the true faith without error. Thus, the pastoral duty of the Magisterium is aimed at seeing to it that the People of God abides in the truth that liberates. To fulfill this service, Christ endowed the Church's shepherds with the charism of infallibility in matters of faith and morals. The exercise of this charism takes several forms:

891 "The Roman Pontiff, head of the college of bishops, enjoys this infallibility in virtue of his office, when, as supreme pastor and teacher of all the faithful - who confirms his brethren in the faith he proclaims by a definitive act a doctrine pertaining to faith or morals. . . . The infallibility promised to the Church is also present in the body of bishops when, together with Peter's successor, they exercise the supreme Magisterium," above all in an Ecumenical Council.⁴¹⁸ When the Church through its supreme Magisterium proposes a doctrine "for belief as being divinely revealed,"⁴¹⁹ and as the teaching of Christ, the definitions "must be adhered to with the obedience of faith."⁴²⁰ This infallibility extends as far as the deposit of divine Revelation itself.⁴²¹

And from Dei Verbum (Divine Revelation) 10:

Th[e] Magisterium is not above the Word of God, but serves it, teaching only what has been handed on, listening to it devoutly, guarding it scrupulously, and explaining it faithfully in accord with a divine commission, and with the help of the Holy Spirit, it draws from this one deposit of faith everything which it presents for belief as divinely revealed.

First Communion Next Saturday

Please pray for the boys and girls who will receive Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time next Saturday, May 5, at 10:00 a.m. They and their families are excited about this great gift. May they and all of us be open to receive all the love and grace Jesus longs to give us in the Eucharist. I am grateful to the parents as well as Angie Amburn, and Sr. Veronica Marie, O.P., who have been working with these boys and girls to prepare them well to receive our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. NB: We will take time between 9:15 and 11:00 this Friday for students to practice for their First Communion. I will expose the Blessed Sacrament no later than 11:00 a.m. (Thanks for understanding.)

With gratitude for the gift of the Eucharist,

Father Steve

If you have been abused or victimized by someone representing the Catholic Church, please believe in the possibility for hope and help and healing. We encourage you to come forward and speak out.

Every diocese in the United States now has a Victim Assistance Coordinator who is available to obtain support for your needs, to help make a formal complaint of abuse to the diocese, and to arrange a personal meeting with the bishop or his representative if you desire.

The Victim Assistance Coordinator for the Diocese of Lansing is Cheryl Williams-Hecksel, LMSW, cwilliamshecksel@dioceseoflansing.org, or call 1-888-308-6252

You are invited to join the Sisters in the Chapel at the Convent (1531 E Michigan Ave) on Sunday evenings at 5pm for vespers and to pray the Rosary. No RSVP needed.

We are in need of adorers in front of the Blessed Sacrament every Friday.

We are a blessed Parish community to have the opportunity for all day Adoration from 9am – 8pm each Friday. However, we do not want to displease the Lord by allowing Him to sit alone in a vacant church. He delights in your company; your dedication! Escape the busyness of the world outside. Sit in the stillness, in His presence to hear Him. Sign up for a dedicated time. We can create teams of 15 minutes, 30 minutes, or 1 hour. We can create teams of 1 week, 2 weeks, or each week per month. Encourage your friends to make a team with you or we can coordinate individuals to make teams. Please contact Susan at sbartold@corlansing.org or 517-482-4749
