PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Made for Happiness

Many thanks to all those who helped contribute to the very successful “mid-way point” of the Eucharistic Procession last weekend. I can’t tell you how powerful it was to be privileged to carry the Monstrance with the Blessed Sacrament during the procession as it passed by our parish, school, convent, and office. The thousands who journeyed with Jesus in the streets of Lansing in testimony to our belief in Jesus present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity was a wonderful memory for all those who were privileged to be part of it, and a witness to those who saw us. May our faith sustain us in these challenging times, and may the Eucharist be a source of strength for us in our pilgrimage journey!

Breslin Center Hosts a “Solemn Assembly”

Whether you joined us at the Breslin Center, were able to catch a bit of it on Ave Maria Radio, or watched on the internet, you know that the day included a penitential time of prayer at the end of the Eucharistic Procession, and then time of praise, three talks, concluding with Mass. The concourse featured information about a host of ministries, and the day was a great celebration of the Catholic faith we have as members of the Church of Lansing. Personally the most powerful for me among the speakers was the last one, Deacon Larry Oney. It might have been most powerful because we priests were seated right in front of him, in anticipation of our concelebration of the Mass. As much as anything, he played the prophet to us, and encouraged us to respond to what he called our “situation.” Indeed, we are in a “situation.” His scripture-packed talk centered on the great text from the Prophet Joel, which he hammered home to us. Here is the text of Joel 2, from which he focused heavily on the verses I’ve underlined:

For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; who can endure it? [12] "Yet even now," says the LORD, "return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; [13] and rend your hearts and not your garments." Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and repents of evil. [14] Who knows whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, a cereal offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God?

[15] Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly; [16] gather the people. Sanctify the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber. [17] Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, "Spare thy people, O LORD, and make not thy heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations.

Why should they say among the peoples, "Where is their God?" [18] Then the LORD became jealous for his land, and had pity on his people. [19] The LORD answered and said to his people, "Behold, I am sending to you grain, wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

His reminder that we are called to gather together, to weep for our sins, and to remember that we are God’s People, empowered by Him to be salt, light, and leaven. That was what I needed to hear, and what I need to remember as we continue in this time of sanctification. Come, Holy Spirit, purify Your Church!

Lansing’s 31st Annual Life Chain

Next Sunday (October 7) is Pro-Life Sunday, and we are once again invited to participate in a peaceful prayer chain witnessing to the sanctity of life. Please gather along Grand River Ave. from Abbot Rd. to Williamston – meeting at Abbot Rd., Brookfield Plaza, Summit Bank near Okemos Rd., St. Martha Church or Main St. in Williamston near St. Mary’s Church. The peaceful prayer event will be held from 2:30-3:30 next Sunday afternoon, asking God to bless our efforts to promote the sanctity of all human life.

40 Days for Life

Beginning this past Wednesday, September 26th, 40 Days for Life, our participation in a national prayer vigil movement to stand in witness against the great evil of abortion, got started once again. Whether you are able to spend time at the site of the vigil or not, please pray daily to end the evil of abortion. We are invited to pray at the Planned Parenthood Clinic off of Clippert St. at the Frandor shopping center. These 40 days, let’s pray for the least of these—the women who feel they have no options, and especially the children who are waiting to be born. God is pleased when we fast and pray in keeping with His will. Prayer and efforts spent to help end abortion are very pleasing to God. To sign up for hours to pray, see this website: <https://40daysforlife.com/local-campaigns/lansing/>

Annual Convocation of Priests of the Diocese of Lansing

Beginning Monday afternoon, Bishop Boyea and the priests of the diocese will have their annual Priest Convocation. The dates are Monday, October 1 through Thursday, October 4. Because I will be away, we will not be able to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Tuesday evening or Wednesday or Thursday mornings. Monday and Friday will be as usual. Especially this year, in light of the current clerical abuse crisis, please keep Bishop Boyea, myself, and all our priests in your prayers this week. Thank you!

With gratitude that I am privileged to be your pastor,

Father Steve

50th ANNIVERSARY HUMANAЕ VITAE CELEBRATION

Come spend the day with us as we celebrate life and the landmark encyclical reaffirming the beauty of the matrimonial call to be open to human life.

Saturday Oct 27th, St Patrick Church, Brighton.

Tickets starting at $15/single; $25/couple; $35/family. Children are welcomed at the event. Child care is provided, but space is limited, so register early.

Registration and details: www.dioceseoflansing.org/events
Event opens with a Mass celebrated by Bishop Boyea at 8am. A talk by Dr Janet Smith, panel discussions and more.

Please refrain from the use of chewing gum while in the church. Our volunteer cleaning crew has had to scrape gum from the carpet and pews. If you must bring snack items to Mass for your little children, we ask you take the time to pick up anything that may have fallen out of their tiny hands. These items become ground into the carpet as people inadvertently walk on them. This is not only our place of worship; it is the Lord's House. Let us each do our part to keep it tidy. Thank you

Help Spread the FAITH-Sept 29-30

Thank you for contributing to last year's Help Spread the FAITH Appeal. Your support has allowed Resurrection, through our diocese, to send you FAITH magazine. In addition to FAITH magazine, your support has helped us continue evangelizing with websites, television, national efforts and our own parish initiatives. By supporting the Help Spread the FAITH Appeal, you will help us continue to reach out to people right in our own parish, diocese and nation.

HERMAN VANDRIE MEMORIAL FRUIT SALE 2018
