A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Thank you!

Men's Evening of Adoration

The Men's monthly evening of adoration will be this Wednesday (November 14th) at 7:00. It is a time of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Opportunity for confession is also available. We will conclude with Benediction at 8:00, followed by a time of fellowship. Join us, next week, if you're able, brothers!

Save the Date: December 1 for Father-Daughter Dance

Beginning at 6:00 p.m. on December 1, fathers (or father-figures, i.e., grandfathers, uncles, god-fathers) are invited to accompany girls in the parish and school, Kindergarten or older, to join in a Ceili Dance. Please plan to "dress up" for this (semi-formal or "Sunday best") for this evening. Buffet dinner will begin at 6:15 p.m., and those who attend will be taught how to do simple Irish Ceili Dances, thanks to Meghan of McCartney Irish Dance. You can buy tickets online. Please sign-up prior to November 20.

Healing the Whole Person Retreat in Brighton

Registration is available for the next few weeks for the Healing the Whole Person retreat that will be held November 29, November 30, and December 1 (Thursday and Friday evening, and all day Saturday). We were blessed to have this retreat at our parish last year, and I'm grateful that the John Paul II Healing Center will be coming to Michigan again this year. I very much encourage people to take the time to "Be Healed" over these three days. Please share the information with those you know and love. As I preached last week, healing encounters with the living love of God can help all of us deal with the various challenges of life.

Praying for the Dead

Last weekend, I talked about the importance of the tradition of praying for the dead. November is the time when the Church has traditionally focused on praying for our loved ones who have died. Here is what the Catechism of the Catholic Church says about Purgatory. It's worth reflection.

III. THE FINAL PURIFICATION, OR PURGATORY

1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

1031 The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned.⁶⁰⁶ The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire.⁶⁰⁷

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.⁶⁰⁸

606 Cf. Council of Florence (1439):DS 1304; Council of Trent (1563):DS 1820; (1547):1580; see also Benedict XII, Benedictus Deus (1336):DS 1000. 607 Cf. 1 Cor 3:15; 1 Pet 1:7.608 St. Gregory the Great, Dial. 4,39:PL 77,396; cf. Mt 12:31.

Funerals and Prayer for the Dead

As I mentioned last week in my homily and also on All Souls Day, priests are given the option to wear white, violet, and black vestments for All Souls Day. Since I've been a priest, I have chosen to wear black vestments. It has been a powerful sign to me of both the need and the privilege to pray for the dead. Based on my experience, and my prayer and study, I am now convinced that there is a significant value to wearing black vestments and using a black pall for funerals here in the future. Because I know that this might be a bit shocking to some people, I will be developing a pamphlet to explain the value of wearing black vestments, which is primarily the message that we need to pray for our loved ones, so that they will be purified of any residual attachment to the things of earth. We are men and women of the Resurrection, people of Hope, but we also need to remember that prayer for the dead is one of the spiritual works of mercy. Catholic funerals can sometimes seem like mini-canonizations, which can give the false impression that there is no need to pray for the dead.

The clear teaching of the tradition is that we need to pray for all our loved ones who have died. I believe that wearing black vestments and using a black pall will help us all remember that our grief at the death of loved ones should lead to prayer, even as it is informed by our hope of the resurrection.

As St. Paul says in 1 Thessalonians 4:13: But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope.

Prayerfully for all the faithful departed,

Father Steve

Thanksgiving Day Dinner is being sponsored by St Gerard Social Ministry Commission for people who will be alone on Thanksgiving Day. The dinner is a sit down, family style dinner in a friendly atmosphere, served on Thanksgiving Day, Nov 22, at 12:30 pm, at St Gerard Parish, Fr. Weber Hall. Transportation will be provided if needed. For further information or transportation, please call the Parish Office at 323-2379.

ATTENTION ALL PARISH GROUPS/ COMMITTEES:

Cable TV is no longer available in Mercy Hall due to the high cost. WIFI is still available.

NOTICE:

In an effort to make a more welcoming entrance to the church and to make event information more relevant and accessible, we will be undertaking a minor project to re-vamp the church vestibule. This project will accomplish the following things:

- ◆ All individual bulletin boards will be removed with the exception of the two glass covered boards right at the center entrance into the church.
- ◆ The racks and shelving at each end of the vestibule will be removed and replaced with a large bulletin board and shallow shelf in each space. This will provide more overall display space than the individual bulletin boards.
- ◆ The tables at the main doors into the vestibule will be removed and replaced with two small seating arrangements.
- ◆ All resource materials will be moved to the Library in the Parish Office.
- ◆ Procedures will be implemented to manage bulletin board postings (i.e. all postings will include post dates, etc.)

If you currently have materials in the vestibule, you are asked to remove them by Monday November 19th.

If you have any questions, please contact Chris Spalding at 517-484-6479.

Ladies of the Parish: Thank you to all who returned the Altar Society time and talent surveys along with your dues and extra donations. These monies provide for practical items which support our liturgical life at Resurrection. The major expenses of Altar Society are candles, incense, and altar breads for Mass. It is not too late; all women of the parish are encouraged to return surveys along with $5.00 dues to the parish office or in the Sunday collection. Survey forms are available at the back of church if you need one.
