A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Thank you!

As pastor of this parish and as a priest of the Diocese of Lansing, I want to thank those of you who have made a pledge to increase your giving here through the Generosity Challenge and/or have made a pledge to support the 2019 Diocesan Services Appeal. As I mentioned last week, over sixty of you have pledged to increase giving to the parish. Thank you! To this point, seventy of our families have made DSA gifts or pledges totaling $37,835. Our goal this year is $79,625. As pastor, I hope that as many of us as possible will make a pledge to the diocese, whether our gift be large or small. As I've said before, having a high percentage of our families make a pledge is a sign of our commitment to pray for and support the bishop and the work that he and his staff are helping us do throughout the diocese. As always, if you have questions or concerns about giving to DSA, please contact me. I'd be happy to hear your concerns and answer any questions you might have.

Time Away

I am taking a few days away this week. I will be gone Sunday afternoon through Thursday evening. I have priests to cover all the Masses and confession times except for Tuesday evening. As a result, there will be Perpetual Help Devotions on Tuesday, April 9, at 6:15, but there will be no Mass or confessions at our parish that evening. I will have a sign on the door and the confessional that lists other Masses and confession times that evening. Please keep me in prayer while I am away. Be assured of my prayers for you.

Men's Evening of Adoration

Because I will be away, the Men's Evening of Adoration will be moved to Friday evening from 7-8 p.m. from its usual Thursday evening time. Fellowship will follow Benediction in the JP II Room.

Come Encounter Jesus

Next Saturday (April 13th), we will have our next Healing Encounter. It is a time of praise, worship, prayer, and adoration from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the church. Prayer teams will be available to pray for healing and other requests. Come, and invite someone to join you.

Unplanned and Us

On Tuesday, I went and saw the very powerful, troubling film, Unplanned. It reminded me of the great grace we and the many members of 40 Days for Life had of helping to close down WomanCare in 2014, when we got the lease out from under them. I am so grateful for all the faithful men and women, boys, and girls, who prayed faithfully to end abortion in our community. Cecilia Tombelli, former director of the New Life Center, helped transform that space into a powerful pro-life space, and I thank her and her team of volunteers, many of whom are still involved in Project Rachel and Rachel's Vineyard ministry, for all they have done for the cause of life.

Prayers at 1601 E. Grand River

I celebrated Mass in Holy Family Chapel in the south suite of 1601 E. Grand River, the part of that building where WomanCare had operated for years. What a grace it is to be able to regularly pray for the girls, women, and thousands of baby boys and girls who suffered there. Every weekday, a group prays the Divine Mercy Chaplet in the chapel at 3:00 p.m., and once a month, usually the first Tuesday of the month, I celebrate Mass at 3:15. I'm grateful to have the chapel, and the regular prayers being prayed there.

"The Power of Unplanned"

A recent article about the film Unplanned on the website "thenewamerican.com" includes the following summary and commentary on the film, which I recommend you pray about attending while it is showing at local theaters:

As much of America is still reeling from New York and other states moving to legalize abortion up until the time of birth, a powerful new film, Unplanned, tells the explosive story of former Planned Parenthood director-turned-pro-life-activist Abby Johnson.

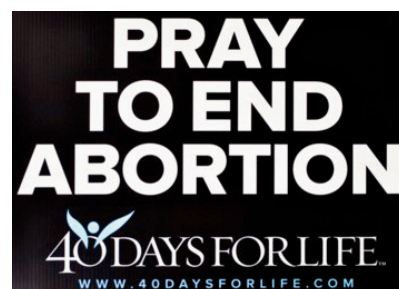

*Speaking about one of the most polarizing topics of our day, the heartrending film is compelling and very well made, and will leave a deep impact on viewers long after it's over . . . Unplanned features excellent acting, high-quality cinematography, and eye-opening revelations about the shocking reality of what really happens in an abortion. "We are being told by people who watch it that they believe it's an incredibly important film for everyone to watch, no matter what side of this debate you're on," Johnson told The New American. "People need to know what they're supporting, and if you're going to support abortion, then we need to have a realistic view of what that is, and not hide away from the reality because it's shocking, or because it's more disturbing than we thought it might be."*

The film was assigned an "R" rating by the Motion Picture Association of America for some "disturbing/bloody images" depicting the "abortion process." The "R" rating seems like overkill, given the amount of sex and violence in most Hollywood films with an "R" rating today.

The filmmakers say the MPAA's rating seems to ironically endorse the pro-life position that abortion is an act of violence.

With gratitude for the gift of life and for witnesses like Abby Johnson,

Father Steve
