Easter Sunday of The Resurrection of The Lord

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

After the holiest of weeks, we celebrate Christ's victory over death. His rising from the dead is why we are Christian, it is why we are baptized, it is why we have hope for ourselves and for those we love when the Lord calls them home. Christ has won for us the victory; He has atoned for our sins, and offered us eternal life in the power of the Holy Spirit. Death has been defeated, and we are given Eternal Life in Him. What a great reason to gather for Eucharist, which means "thanksgiving"! I am especially grateful to celebrate the Resurrection at the Church of the Resurrection. We are truly blessed. Our Lord is risen indeed!

Speaking of Eucharist . . .

I want to thank all those who contributed to the setup and experience of worship during the Holy Triduum and Easter. I am grateful to the sacristans, Altar Society Members, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, servers, greeters, lectors, ushers, David Stattelmann, the choir, and all the musicians for all they did to help us worship Our Lord Jesus Christ, who is indeed risen from the dead. Thanks to Rich Budd, Angie Amburn, and Susan Bartold, who worked diligently and faithfully in the RCIA preparation process. May we have hearts filled with gratitude as we give God thanks for Christ's triumph over death. He offers us hope for this life and the next. Praised be Jesus Christ!

Welcome!

As pastor, I want to extend a note of welcome to those who are with us for the first time or who have been away from church this Easter. I am grateful that you are here, and hope and pray that your celebration of Holy Week and Easter has helped you come to know the love of God more fully. We are excited about the things the Lord is doing here, and we invite you to consider making the Church of the Resurrection your parish home. I would love to meet you. Please introduce yourself to me. Again, welcome!

Our Easter Gift to You and Your Family

At the exits, you will find copies of two books that we hope that you will enjoy. Please take one (or more) as you anticipate the way the Lord is inviting you to grow in faith this Easter Season. The two books are the following: Into His Likeness: Be Transformed as a Disciple of Christ, by Edward Sri and Made This Way: How to Prepare Kids to Face Today's Tough Moral Issues, by Leila Miller with Trent Horn.

Have Easter Meal at Resurrection

Everyone is invited to enjoy Easter dinner with us in the Parish Hall after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. I'm very grateful for Judy Edwards, who has coordinated this in the past, to offer a meal together with those who may not have other places to enjoy a meal together. Join us if you're able!

Diocesan Services Appeal

Thank you to those 85 households who have made a pledge to DSA. Their gifts and pledges total $49,005, which gets us to about 60% of our goal of $79,625. Please prayerfully consider making a gift this year, even a small one, to show our support of the bishop and the very good team he has working with him at the Diocesan Center. I would very much like to have a large response percentage-wise. Last year over 40% of us made a gift of pledge. As always, please let me know if you have concerns or questions about how your DSA funds might be used.

Women's Evening of Adoration

This Thursday (4/25) in the Octave of Easter from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m., we will have our monthly Women's Evening of Adoration. Join the other women in the church for a time of prayer, adoration, a brief reflection, opportunity for confession, Benediction, and fellowship afterward.

Lumen Veritatis

Next Saturday (4/27), we will have our next Lumen Veritatis lecture. Our speaker this month is Leah Libresco, who will present a lecture based on her new book: "Building up the Benedict Option: Cultivating Authentic & Intentional Communities." Leah is a freelance writer who lives in New York City with her husband Alexi Sargent. The evening begins with appetizers, drinks, and fellowship at 7:00 p.m. in Mercy Hall (127 Rumsey). The lecture will begin at 7:30 p.m. followed by questions & answers and more fellowship. Join us if you're able!

Easter Octave

So glorious is the celebration of the Resurrection that the Church gives us eight days to remember the "today" of Easter. Next Sunday, the "Octave of Easter," is also known as "Divine Mercy Sunday". It is a time to open our hearts to receive Him who is mercy. Opportunity to celebrate Divine Mercy will be held next Sunday (April 28 @ 2:30pm) at St. Gerard. The Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed followed by the opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, beginning at 2:30. Come enjoy the goodness of God's Divine Mercy!

Everything is better . . .

Because Jesus is risen from the dead, everything in life, our joys, our sorrows, our fears, our hopes, have a different meaning. The joyous things of life are anticipations of the pure joy we will have in heaven, the challenges and suffering of this life are but prelude to the joys of the resurrection. Jesus has endured all for (and with) us. He invites us to live the new life of our baptism, the life that has already triumphed over death. Let's rejoice heartily that we are, truly, God's sons and daughters and that we have already triumphed over death in Jesus Christ our Lord. Let's share the Good News with the world, as Jesus commands. Come, Holy Spirit!

Celebrating our Risen Lord with you,

Father Steve

Young adults of the Diocese of Lansing are invited to Theology on Tap Tuesday, April 23rd & 7pm at LeRoy's Bar & Grill (1526 S. Cedar St, Lansing). The talk is titled, "Can you be pro woman and Catholic? Yes." Speaker Michelle Piccolo will address different myths and stumbling blocks for many Catholics when it comes to being a woman and Catholic.
