A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Living as Salt and Light

Last weekend, I gave an extended reading from the conclusion of C.S. Lewis's great introduction to Christianity, Mere Christianity. I encourage you to read the entire book and, if you missed it, to listen to my homily on our website. Here's the last few paragraphs of the book:

I am not, in my natural state, nearly so much of a person as I like to believe: most of what I call 'me' can be very easily explained. It is when I turn to Christ, when I give myself up to His Personality, that I first begin to have a real personality of my own.

At the beginning I said there were Personalities in God. I will go further now. There are no real personalities anywhere else. Until you have given up your self to Him you will not have a real self. Sameness is to be found most among the most 'natural' men, not among those who surrender to Christ. How monotonously alike all the great tyrants and conquerors have been: how gloriously different are the saints.

*But there must be a real giving up of the self. You must throw it away 'blindly' so to speak. Christ will indeed give you a real personality: but you must not go to Him for the sake of that. As long as your own personality is what you are bothering about you are not going to Him at all. The very first step is to try to forget about the self altogether. Your real, new self (which is Christ's and also yours, and yours just because it is His) will not come as long as you are looking for it. It will come when you are looking for Him. Does that sound strange? The same principle holds, you know, for more everyday matters. Even in social life, you will never make a good impression on other people until you stop thinking about what sort of impression you are making. Even in literature and art, no man who bothers about originality will ever be original: whereas if you simply try to tell the truth (without caring twopence how often it has been told before) you will, nine times out of ten, become original without ever having noticed it. The principle runs through all life from top to bottom. Give up yourself, and you will find your real self. Lose your life and you will save it. Submit to death, death of your ambitions and favourite wishes every day and death of your whole body in the end: submit with every fibre of your being, and you will find eternal life. Keep back nothing. Nothing that you have not given away will be really yours. Nothing in you that has not died will ever be raised from the dead. Look for yourself, and you will find in the long run only hatred, loneliness, despair, rage, ruin, and decay. But look for Christ and you will find Him, and with Him everything else thrown in. Lewis, C. S.. Mere Christianity (C.S. Lewis Signature Classics) (pp. 225-227). HarperCollins. Kindle Edition.*

Getting Ready for School

Very soon, we will be getting our 2019-2020 school year underway. As a parish and school staff, we are very excited about what God has in store for us this year. I thank God for our excellent administrative and teaching staff who faithfully provide children in our parish and community an excellent, Christ-focused education. We partner with parents (and grandparents) to meet children where they are academically, socially, and spiritually, with the goal of helping them grow as disciples of Christ. As we anticipate the new school year, we are making strategic investments that we believe will make our school even more pleasing to the Lord and to families who partner with us for their children's education.

Come and See

Please contact Mr. Jacob Allstott to arrange a time to talk with him about next year. We want to have every child in our school, and will do all we can to make it affordable for families who desire to invest in their child(ren)'s heart, mind, and soul by giving them a Resurrection School education. There is a long legacy of investment in our children here. Come and see for yourself.

Some Time Away

A few weeks ago, I mentioned that Copper Harbor was, in a metaphorical way, my personal "Bethany," a place I go to get renewed in spirit, soul, and body. I'm heading there again, this time with my brother Dan, to enjoy tech-free beauty and renewal. Please pray for me as I take time away. Be assured of my prayers for you. I'll be offering Mass each day at the chapel in Copper Harbor (Our Lady of the Pines). I will be back Tuesday evening, August 20.

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This Thursday is a Holy Day of Obligation. Please plan to join us Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. for the Vigil Mass or Thursday August 15 at 8:15 to honor Our Blessed Mother, who was Assumed into Heaven. Let us take this opportunity to honor Mary and to ask her to continue to intercede for us that we would live well as she did, and one day join her and her Son Jesus in Heaven. Join us. Mary and her son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ look forward to seeing you at Mass.

Seeking eternal things with you,

Fr. Steve

2019/2020 Adult Choir Season

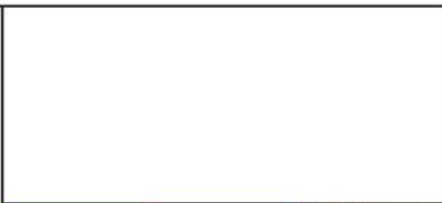

The Resurrection Adult Choir will begin its new choir season with a rehearsal on Wednesday September 11th at 7:00 pm with the first sung Mass on September 15th. For new singers wishing to newly join the choir, auditions can be set up by contacting David Stattelman, the Director of Music by phone (517) 614-1736 or email dstattelman@corlansing.org. You can also call the office. Auditions will not be a scary affair but are really set up so that we can get an understanding of your sound and your ability to develop as a singer.

For Lansing Catholic Students interested in the joining the choir, this can count towards your Lansing Catholic Service Requirement for graduation. It is also a very good way for music students to further their study of solfege and theory along with developing skill and proficiency in the reading of chant notation and modern notation; all which will be fundamental in secondary and college music courses.
