PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Ox Roast is Here!

This weekend we celebrate the 85th annual Ox Roast Festival. Thanks in advance to the host of volunteers who make this possible, and to all the volunteers who will be spending time helping us set things up and staff the various aspects of the Festival. Please plan to attend and bring your family, friends, and neighbors too. Please sell (or buy) the tickets that you've been sent, or return those to the office. If you'd like to buy any raffle tickets, please contact the parish office.

That Man Is You

Beginning this Wednesday, we will begin a new program called "That Man Is You," which addresses practical issues that men contend with in life today. We will get started breakfast at 6:00 a.m., for those who would like to come early. The program will begin with a video at 6:30, which lasts about a half hour, followed by small group discussion. It's a great opportunity for fellowship and growth in faith. Consider joining us. We will get started with this program on September 11.

Memorial Mass for Aborted Children at St Joseph Cemetery, September 14th

The annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children is Saturday, the 14th. We will have a Mass in the mausoleum at 10:30 AM followed by a few words at the Guardian Angel grave site just outside the mausoleum entrance followed by a walking rosary to the Rachel's memorial grave site where we conclude. Join us if you are able.

Prayers for the Pilgrimage (and Intentions)

Beginning September 18, I will be leaving with some parishioners on a Pilgrimage to Fatima, Lourdes, and Spain. Fr. John Fain and Fr. Mark Rutherford will also be on the pilgrimage. I think it will be great time. Please pray for us as we travel, that we will have a deep encounter with the Lord and to gain new insights into the land where Jesus was born, lived, and died for love of us. We will be celebrating Mass at many holy places, and I invite you to send me your intentions either by email, in the offertory, or at the office. I will bring those with me and remember all of you and your intentions every day as we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

The Transforming Power of Humility

Last week, in my homily, I mentioned the "Litany of Humility" by Cardinal Rafael Merry del Val. It's a powerful prayer, which, if we pray with an open heart and mind, can help transform our hearts and lives.

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart, Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being loved, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being extolled, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being honored, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being praised, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being preferred to others, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being consulted, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being approved, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being humiliated, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being despised, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of suffering rebukes, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being calumniated, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being forgotten, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being ridiculed, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being wronged, Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being suspected, Deliver me, Jesus.

That others may be loved more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be chosen and I set aside, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be praised and I unnoticed, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be preferred to me in everything, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

Humility, Mother of All that is Good

Humility is the beginning of true peace, joy, and happiness; whereas Pride is the beginning of all that is sinful.

Whenever we find ourselves demanding this or that from others, pride is lurking in the background. Whenever we find ourselves feeling aggrieved or resentful, pride is lurking in the background. Whenever we "lord it over" others, pride is lurking in the background. Whenever we find ourselves comparing ourselves with others (either favorably or with envy or jealousy), pride is in the background. Whenever we suffer self-pity, (ironically enough) pride is in the background. Humility is the remedy to all sin, and is the path to healing of all that spiritually ails us. Lord, make us humble!

With prayers for greater humility for all of us,

Father Steve

LCHS Prospective Family Night

Lansing Catholic High School is hosting its fall Prospective Family Night on Wed., Oct. 16, 2019 from 6:30pm to 8:30pm. Parents and students are welcome at this event to learn more about what LCHS has to offer. Please note there is a set schedule for this event. Families will first be taken on a school tour led by a LCHS student, then attend breakout sessions (on curriculum, tuition, college planning, and extracurricular and athletic activities), and the evening will conclude with a question and answer session with students and staff. Registration is not required for this event, but is appreciated. Please contact LCHS's admissions office at 517-267-2102, admissions@lansingcatholic.org or use their website to register for this event.

CHILDREN'S SCHOLA

We have been so remarkably blessed at Church of the Resurrection to have so many musicians who make devoted efforts to beautify our liturgies. Our parish and school have been exposed to many genres of music, ranging from rich choral music, Taize, hymns and contemporary songs, as well as drawing from the deep well that is Gregorian chant and polyphony.

Inspired by our parish values of seeking to support families in forming their children and build up what is 'authentically Catholic' (and because there is no more authentically Catholic music than chant) this fall a Children's Schola is being developed under the co-direction of Guine Christian and Lori Weismantel with help from Marisol Hennig. After consulting with Father Steve and members of parish leadership, we decided that the best place to start would be a weekly class with a small group of no more than 12 children from grades 3-5. This small group of young singers will be learning foundational principles for chant, as well as vocal techniques, musical theory, and the Church's repertory of music along with smatterings of chant terminology and Church history along the way in addition to their regular music classes at school. Beginning in Advent, they will help to lead the Communion Chant at our Wednesday school liturgies, as well as prepare all the music for May Crowning in the Spring. We hope not only to boost the students' musical skills and develop their appreciation for chant, but also to deepen their prayerful participation in Mass.

Our decision to start with personal invitations to a small number of students is because we are volunteers who've never led a children's schola before. We need some time to find our footing, so please bear with us as things develop. All the students at Resurrection School (and any homeschool families attending our Wednesday morning Mass) will still be gaining exposure to chant throughout this academic year, and we are very hopeful that this little apostolate flourish and grow to include more children in time.

Thank you so much for your prayers and patience,

Guine Christian
