SEPTEMBER STEWARDSHIP of TREASURE

Sunday/Online Giving/Holy Day

A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Thank you!

I am grateful to all who worked very hard to make our 14th Annual School Auction such a success. Thanks to Janice Harvey and the entire auction committee for their hard work. Thanks also to those who made donations and those who bid on the items. It was a great event for a great cause. I feel so blessed to be pastor at this parish. God bless you all.

Healing the Whole Person Retreat in Brighton

Registration is available for the next few weeks for the Healing the Whole Person retreat that will be held December 5, 6, and 7 (Thursday and Friday evening, and 9-4 on Saturday). We were blessed to have this retreat at our parish a couple of years ago, and I'm grateful that the John Paul II Healing Center will be coming to Michigan again this year. I very much encourage people to take the time to "Be Healed" over these three days. Please share the information with those you know and love. As I preached last week, healing encounters with the living love of God can help all of us deal with the various challenges of life.

Annual Report Follow-up

After we prepared the annual report for the last fiscal year, we got some questions about our summary of Financial Position. Here it is for your review. The Finance Council regularly monitors this, and we are hoping to add to our savings at the end of this year, given the improved giving this year. Thank you for your generosity. If you have questions about this, please let Don Radke or me know. Bryan Amburn is the Chair of our Finance Council. You could also reach out to him with questions or concerns.

Called to be Martyrs (Witnesses)

Last weekend, I preached about the powerful account given in II Maccabees 7 of the mother and her seven sons, who all died for their Jewish faith. They were martyrs for the faith, who shed their blood for love of God. Each of us is also called to be a martyr (or "witness") to the faith in our world. As I mentioned last week, we are all going to face the choice of standing for the truth that we find in our faith or remaining silent in the face of increasing hostility to the faith. Bearing testimony, always lovingly, and with clarity, is what we are called to do in every time and in every circumstance. To do so, of course, we must know the truth that we have in Christ, and discern how best to communicate the truth whenever lies of the evil one or of the world are being promoted or pushed. Bearing witness to the truth might mean that we will be rejected by those around us. Like the saints and martyrs who have gone before us, and who are praying non-stop for us, we need to be prepared for the response of those who reject the truth. We need to be willing to this might mean being ridiculed for being "backward," "politically incorrect," "rigid" or "petrified." All of us can imagine that, if we stand for the truth today, we could easily be called "haters" "bigots," "sexist," "homophobic," or "transphobic." We might even find that our family members will reject us or criticize us. But, do not be afraid, nor surprised. We need to keep loving them. And pleasing the Lord.

Jesus Told Us So

While those particular epithets didn't exist in the First Century, believers have historically been persecuted. Jesus warns us about persecution in our gospel this weekend: "You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives" (Luke 21:16-19). Let us, indeed, be among those who support each other in the life and defense of faith, and truly love God with our whole heart, soul, mind, and strength, and our neighbors as ourselves. This is our time to be witnesses. To be martyrs. Come, Holy Spirit!

With gratitude for the truth we find in Christ,

Father Steve
