PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

MEN'S EVENING OF ADORATION

Join us Friday, December 13 at 7 p.m. .
Social Hour in the JP II room following.

All men are invited.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

December 7th Evening of Renewal/Prayer Meeting (POSTPONED)

The "Evening of Renewal" originally scheduled for 7:00 p.m. tonight (Saturday, December 7th) has been postponed until after the New Year. Given the busyness of the season, we thought better to postpone this to January. Sorry for the late notice.

Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

We normally celebrate our nation's Patronal Feast Day on December 8, but because this year the 8th fell on the Second Sunday of Advent, that takes precedent. Because of the importance of the Immaculate Conception, the Feast Day has been moved to Monday this year. Though it is not a Holy Day of Obligation, we will offer three Masses to make it possible for everyone who wishes to come celebrate and honor our Blessed Mother at 8:15, Noon, and 6:30 p.m.

Special Rorate Masses December 11th & 14th at 7:00 a.m.

Wednesday and Saturday mornings at 7:00 a.m., we will celebrate special Rorate Masses by candlelight in addition to our normal 8:15 a.m. Mass. The Rorate Caeli Mass is a traditional Advent devotion wherein the Mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary for Advent is offered just before dawn. The interplay of light and darkness speak to the meaning of Advent and the coming of the Light of the world.

The Mass takes its title, Rorate Caeli, from the first words of the Introit, which are from Isaiah 45:8: "Rorate, caeli, desuper, et nubes pluant justum, aperiatur terra, et germinet Salvatorem." "Drop down dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the just: let the earth be opened and bud forth a Saviour."

The Rorate Mass is lit only by candlelight. Because it is a votive Mass in Mary's honor, white vestments are worn instead of Advent violet. In the dimly lit setting, priests and faithful prepare to honor the Light of the world, Who is soon to be born, and offer praise to God for the gift of Our Lady. As the Mass proceeds and sunrise approaches, the church becomes progressively brighter, illumined by the sun as our Faith is illumined by Christ. The readings and prayers of the Mass foretell the prophecy of the Virgin who would bear a Son called Emmanuel, and call on all to raise the gates of their hearts and their societies to let Christ the King enter; asking for the grace to receive eternal life by the merits of the Incarnation and saving Resurrection of Our Lord.

Come Encounter Jesus

Next Saturday, December 14th, we will have our next Healing Encounter. It is a time of praise, worship, prayer, and adoration from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the church. It's a great opportunity to worship God and to open our hearts to have Him do healing work in us. Come, and bring others with you. Prayer teams will be available to pray for healing and other requests. Come, and invite someone to join you.

Communal Penance Service/Confessions

This week in the Gospel, we are reminded that St. John the Baptist called those who heard him to repentance, which was a way to prepare their hearts to receive Jesus and the Holy Spirit He came to give us. Let us all see this holy season as an invitation from the Lord to prepare a way of the Lord in our own hearts. One way to prepare a way is to make a good confession. Next Sunday (12/15) afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Gerard, there will be our Advent Community Communal Penance Service. If this afternoon is not a good time for you, consider making a good confession during one of the opportunities we have regularly here at the Church of the Resurrection for the sacrament of reconciliation. See the bulletin for confession times.

Robert Cardinal Sarah's The Day Is Now Far Spent

Last weekend, at the Sunday Masses, I referenced (and quoted from) Cardinal Sarah's most recent book, The Day Is Now Far Spent, which takes the form of a dialogue with Nicolas Diat. Here are some quotes from Chapter 18, entitled "What Must We Do?"

NICOLAS DIAT: Your diagnosis seems very somber. Are you not lacking in hope?

ROBERT CARDINAL SARAH: Hope is not a smug optimism! Since a believer's hope has its source in God, one can truly hope only insofar as one has ties with God and is open to his influence. Hope is a constant combat. In this combat, the only weapons we wield are prayer, silence, the Word of God, and faith. We need an uprising of men and women who have the courage and spiritual energy to speak and to act, thus sowing around them the seed of good sense, truth, love, and peace. Yes! Hope is a difficult combat. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that it is "the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit" (CCC 1817). This virtue strengthens our trust. We have no doubt, Jesus told us: "I have conquered the world." He is the victor. Christians are peaceful and confident because they know that Christ has already conquered. What reassures us is not our own effort or our power. The Church must remain peaceful and serene when facing the coalition of powers that forms to put her to scorn. Our hope is founded on the limitless goodness of God. Christian hope is calming and demanding. Benedict XVI declared in October 2011:

St. John Chrysostom, in one of his homilies, comments: "For so long as we are sheep, we conquer: though ten thousand wolves prowl around, we overcome and prevail. But if we become wolves, we are worsted, for the help of our Shepherd departs from us" (Homily 33, 1: PG 57, 389). Christians must never yield to the temptation to become wolves among wolves; it is not with might, with force, with violence that Christ's kingdom of peace grows, but with the gift of self, with love carried to the extreme, even towards enemies.

Hope enables us to be perfectly lucid in our diagnosis.

I rejoice in these trying times for the witness and words of Cardinal Sarah. He offers a pattern and challenge for me, my brother priests, and for all the faithful, to take up the "only weapons we wield," which he tells us, "are prayer, silence, the Word of God, and faith." That seems just about right to me. Let's spend time this Advent in prayer, enjoying a bit of silence, reading the Word of God, and growing in the knowledge and practice of our faith. Amen!

Striving to live Advent well with and for you,

Father Steve

“Simply Give” is Back!!

The Meijer “Simply Give” program is back for 8 weeks, from November 10th through Saturday, January 4th, 2020. Our partner store is the Meijer store on Lake Lansing road. Any donation that you can make during this period (from $10 to $50 to $100 or more) will be gratefully accepted. On two special days during this time period, Tuesday, Dec. 3rd and Friday, Dec. 13th, Meijer will double match your donation. Your $10 will become $30, (your $10 + Meijer’s $20 = $30) and your $50 will become $150 (your $50 + Meijer’s $100 = $150). This Meijer program has raised over $50 million in food donations to over 400 food pantries in the Midwest since November 2008. This is an excellent opportunity to help our St. Vincent dePaul Society meet the needs of the hungry in our neighborhoods. We thank you in advance for your donations and your prayers that enable us to be the hands and feet of Jesus here on earth as we continue to serve the poor in our inner-city. May God our Father continue to bless you and our Resurrection Parish.

-Your Resurrection Vincentians

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE- As we prepare for the birth of Christ during this Advent season, let us remember those less fortunate. The Altar Society and Knights of Columbus, and the St. Vincent De Paul Society, are sponsoring a Christmas Giving Tree located in the vestibule. Envelopes are available on the tree to be used for gift cards for area teens whose families are in need. Place a gift card(s) (fast food places or stores for teens) in one of the envelopes and put it in the collection basket, or drop it off at the office. (You may want to purchase them through the Scrip program.) The St. Vincent DePaul Society will include these contributions with the Christmas gift baskets they distribute on Friday, Dec 20. The deadline to donate the gift cards is Sunday, December 16.

This does not replace the toy collection that the St. Vincent De Paul Society sponsors every year, but rather supplements it so that those 13 – 17 years of age may also experience your loving generosity.

Church of the Resurrection School is looking for substitute teachers.

If you or someone you know is interested, please send a resume and transcript or course list. You must have 60 hours toward a bachelor's degree and experience working with children. To apply please send this information to mblair@corlansing.org or mail to -

We are working with our Knights of Columbus and our Altar Society with the giving tree in the back of Church. Also, please consider bringing a gift to church on Saturday, Dec. 14th or Sunday, Dec. 15th. Please mark your gifts “Boy” or “Girl” and with the appropriate age. Hello Parishioners,

First and foremost, thank you for keeping the school in your prayers. We are truly indebted to you for all the ways you support our ministry.

I am proud to give an update on this year's School Auction. With your help, we raised over $37,000 for the school. This is the most successful auction to date, and we could not have done it without you! Most of the funds will be used to provide tuition assistance to families in need, but some of the funds are targeted for classroom requests from the teachers.

We are so grateful for the constant support we receive from our parishioners. We are so blessed to have parishioners who are committed to helping our school, so we can in turn support our families in forming Disciples of Christ. This has been our goal since the parish started under Monsignor Gabriels' leadership, and it has been through the prayers and support of our parishioners which has helped us to keep this ministry alive throughout the years. And now, through Fr. Steve's leadership, our school is growing beyond all hopes and dreams. The children are blessed to be surrounded by this community, this family of faith. Thank you again for the many ways you support the school and the parish. May God bless your Advent preparations, as together we anticipate Christ's return in glory.
