PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. STEVE

Beginning Lent Well

Many of you gathered Ash Wednesday to begin our Lenten Journey together. The Lord delights in the response of His people to the call to repentance and self-denial. As the Gospel Wednesday made clear, the Lord invites us to three wonderful practices during Lent. Through the Church, the Holy Spirit calls each of us to pray, fast, and give alms. The Lord says, in each instance, when you pray, fast, and give alms. The point is that to be Christian is to pray, fast, and give alms. That is what sons and daughters of God do, for it reveals to us what they are in Christ. We are called to be intimate with our Father in heaven, so we pray. We look forward to our home in heaven and want our appetites to be tuned to eternal things, so we fast. We are parts of one Body, sharing in the challenges of those around us, so we give alms.

Growing in Prayer

My prayer for each of us is that we would grow in prayer this Lent. Praying to the Lord from our heart is a great practice all the time, and Lent can be a special invitation from Him to do so. The prayer of prayers is the Mass, and I encourage you to attend Mass during the week, if you've rarely (or never) taken time to do so. Another opportunity for each of us is to make a visit to Jesus sometime during the day, especially on Fridays when we have exposition throughout the day, or during our Holy Hours on Tuesday (from 7-8 p.m.) or on Friday (from 7-8 p.m.). We will also be praying the Stations of the Cross on Fridays at 6:30 p.m., which is a great Lenten tradition. Let's pray well, that we will be drawn deeper into the heart of God.

Singing the Pater Noster at Mass

Beginning this weekend, we will be singing the Pater Noster, which is the Latin Our Father. We will practice this before Mass this weekend. It is wonderful to be able to pray together in Latin. At the Wednesday Audience and the Sunday Angelus in Rome, that is how the pope leads those gathered to pray the prayer that Jesus taught us. The music for the chanted version of the Pater Noster can be found on page 86 of the St. Michael Hymnal.

Parish-Wide Ceili Dance (March 7)

On March 7, we will have a parish-wide evening of dancing. It will be a potluck. All the parishioners are invited to attend. Doors open at 6, and dinner will begin at 6:15. We'll eat and then have a dance demonstration by McCartney Irish Dance. Then we will all have a chance to learn simple Irish Ceili Dances, with easy-to-follow instructions by Meghan of McCartney Irish Dance. No need to RSVP.

DSA 2020

"Happy the one who trusts in the Lord." This scripture text from the Book of Proverbs affirms a fundamental teaching of the Catholic Church – only in God will we find the truth and happiness that we seek, the happiness that we were made for. DSA contributions are put to work, right away, in a multitude of ministries and spiritual activities to offer direct assistance to individuals and families, to our parishes and schools. Next weekend our parish will conduct Commitment Weekend for our Diocesan Services Appeal. Our parish goal this year is $87,587. Please prayerfully consider how you or your family will respond to this call to carry on Christ's work in our community.

Commentary on St. Matthew

Some of you asked me about the quotes I shared last week during the homily. These quotes are taken from Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis's book:

The willingness to surprise our adversary with compassion, with love, with forgiveness—with justice according to the Heart of Christ, in other words—performs a far more efficient and constructive task. It puts evildoers at the risk of being converted, and it dynamizes the whole of society by introducing into it the most divine of principles: self-giving at all costs. After my enemy has slapped both my cheeks, he will have run out of cheeks to slap, and perhaps he will be ashamed. After I have given him both tunic and coat, he will perhaps learn to have pity on my nakedness. If I go the second mile with him, perhaps this will give us both the needed time and shared experience to pass from animosity to friendship. Perhaps all of his aggressiveness toward me comes from a lack of imagination, from a real ignorance concerning what other courses were available to him besides injustice and violence. Perhaps my open hands and silent mouth become the most eloquent of teachers, and I will have won a brother in the Lord. Perhaps, perhaps. I must run the risk that my apparent weakness will be construed as an added invitation to even greater violence and that my enemy will move on to slap the next man's cheeks. . . . Is this not, however, the very risk our Lord took in coming into our midst, in handing himself over to us, in opening his arms on the Cross?

We must act as he taught and as he acted. Here, too, the law of Christ for us is always an extension of God's "law" for himself, which is to say, the very Law of God's own nature. He allowed his blood to be shed, and its sprinkling transformed the face of the man holding the lance. 'By not resisting evil,' our Lord would say, 'you allow it to spend its fury and show its finiteness; you allow it to exhaust itself; you allow God's life to flow through you and fill the huge void you have, by your seeming passivity, created in your former adversary. By courageously choosing the path of humble and loving nonresistance, you have added one more stone to the construction of God's Kingdom.' Leiva, Erasmo. Fire Of Mercy, Vol. 1. Ignatius Press.

Fasting, prayer, and giving alms with you,

Father Steve

The kNOW Program

Diocese of Lansing Safe Environment Project

Schedule:

-Families with children in Grades K-5 (Parent and child both attend)

Wednesday, March 11, 2020 in Mercy Hall at 6pm

The kNOW Program has FOUR goals:

- To help children and their parents kNOW how to identify and talk about safe, respectful behaviors and situations.
- To help children kNOW how to identify and talk about behaviors and situations that are not safe.
- To help adults appropriately respond to children's concerns about being unsafe and/or disrespected.
- To inspire Christian communities to greater integrity and authenticity in creating unfailingly safe environments for children.

All Families Welcome!!!!!!

As school enrollment continues to grow, we are faced with the difficult question of how do we fit so many students on our campus and what type of support is God calling us to provide to our families. We are asking all school and homeschool families to complete this survey, even if your children are not school age yet. The data will be used to determine how much interest families would have in both full-time and part-time schedules within the school.

- Full-time would be the traditional 8:00-3:00 PM schedule, Monday - Friday.
- Part-time would be 8:00-3:00 PM schedule, two days a week, with supplemental lessons completed at home.

The survey will be in Fr. Steve's weekly email. Please look for the survey link and complete it by Sunday, March 15th.

The Catholic Women's Club is women joining together to foster friendship, spiritual enrichment and to provide assistance to those less fortunate regardless of their faith.

Plan Ahead for the next Formation Talks!!!!

Holiness and Wholeness

In this course we explore the kind of life God wants for us and potential barriers to living that life. God wants us to be holy as He is holy and yet, as we grow into union with Him, the wounds and hurts of the past can create obstacles. The talks in this course explain how to address these difficulties, how to find relief from the distress they cause and how to find healing and grow into wholeness, holiness and, ultimately, sainthood.

This course will take place on Thursday nights from 7-8:30pm with fellowship afterwards.

We will not be able to offer childcare for these sessions.

Talks:

Thursday, April 30: Trauma and Neglect

Thursday, May 7: Forgiveness

Thursday, May 14: Brokenness and Wholeness
