August 02, 2020 Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Living as Salt and Light

Last weekend, I gave an extended reading from the conclusion of C.S. Lewis's great introduction to Christianity, Mere Christianity. I encourage you to read the entire book and, if you missed it, to listen to my homily on our website. Here's the last few paragraphs of the book:

I am not, in my natural state, nearly so much of a person as I like to believe: most of what I call 'me' can be very easily explained. It is when I turn to Christ, when I give myself up to His Personality, that I first begin to have a real personality of my own.

At the beginning I said there were Personalities in God. I will go further now. There are no real personalities anywhere else. Until you have given up your self to Him you will not have a real self. Sameness is to be found most among the most 'natural' men, not among those who surrender to Christ. How monotonously alike all the great tyrants and conquerors have been: how gloriously different are the saints.

But there must be a real giving up of the self. You must throw it away 'blindly' so to speak. Christ will indeed give you a real personality: but you must not go to Him for the sake of that. As long as your own personality is what you are bothering about you are not going to Him at all. The very first step is to try to forget about the self altogether. Your real, new self (which is Christ's and also yours, and yours just because it is His) will not come as long as you are looking for it. It will come when you are looking for Him. Does that sound strange? The same principle holds, you know, for more everyday matters. Even in social life, you will never make a good impression on other people until you stop thinking about what sort of impression you are making. Even in literature and art, no man who bothers about originality will ever be original: whereas if you simply try to tell the truth (without caring twopence how often it has been told before) you will, nine times out of ten, become original without ever having noticed it.

*The principle runs through all life from top to bottom. Give up yourself, and you will find your real self. Lose your life and you will save it. Submit to death, death of your ambitions and favourite wishes every day and death of your whole body in the end: submit with every fibre of your being, and you will find eternal life. Keep back nothing. Nothing that you have not given away will be really yours. Nothing in you that has not died will ever be raised from the dead. Look for yourself, and you will find in the long run only hatred, loneliness, despair, rage, ruin, and decay. But look for Christ and you will find Him, and with Him everything else thrown in. Lewis, C. S.. Mere Christianity (C.S. Lewis Signature Classics) (pp. 225-227).*

Getting Ready for School

Very soon, we will be getting our 2020-2021 school year underway. As a parish and school staff, we are very excited about what God has in store for us this year. I thank God for our excellent administrative and teaching staff who faithfully provide children in our parish and community an excellent, Christ-focused education. We partner with parents (and grandparents) to meet children where they are academically, socially, and spiritually, with the goal of helping them grow as disciples of Christ. Please keep the staff, students, and families of our school community in your prayers, especially as they anticipate the new school year in the time of Covid. Come, Holy Spirit!

Healing Encounter

Next Saturday evening (August 8th), we will have a time of praise, worship, prayer, adoration, and confession from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the church. Since we're still in the time of social distancing and mask-wearing, we are again planning to have just a small group of prayer team members here in the church. We invite others to join us by livestream, as we have the past few times. May we continue to be open to the Lord's healing graces, even if we're not able yet to gather together to sing and draw close to Jesus in the tabernacle.

With gratitude for the Lord's gifts of wisdom, love, and healing,

Fr. Steve
