PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

God Is (Still) At Work

I'm writing this on Wednesday morning. The Gospel Acclamation for Wednesday of the 32nd Week of Ordinary Time was—surprise, surprise!—I Thessalonians 5:18, which I wrote about last Sunday. It seems as fitting today as it was last week. Indeed, it's fitting every day of every month of every year of our lives. Indeed, that text seems apt for every single moment of our lives. St. Paul tells us, In all circumstances, give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. We are still in a period of uncertainty as a nation, at least in terms of the response of the various voting blocks who are so bitterly divided, and not a few people are stirring up fears. The Lord is near! Have no anxiety . . . The texts I included in last week's bulletin continue to reverberate in my heart. I hope you're able to find some consolation and hope right now.

News/Internet Fast

As I mentioned last weekend, I discerned that the Lord was asking me to get rid of the internet at my home, so that I can once again have that a place of prayerfulness, reading, and renewal, rather than (as it all too often had become!) a context within which I would track all-too-closely the Twitter feed and news and Catholic Commentariate. I had the internet installed so I could work from home during Covid-tide, but since unplugging it all this weekend, my week has gone remarkably well. I'm not entirely disconnected, but my home life is more prayerful. I'm reading more, and I even picked up the banjo again, still very much a beginner on that. But my heart has been more at peace. I invite you to pray about what the Lord might be inviting you to do. Of course, we need to pray, but I think some of us spend more time than is prudent monitoring developments. Praying and entrusting developments to the Lord seems most effective and best for our joy and peace.

Unite Our Nation Lansing Eucharistic Procession

As I talked about a month ago or so, a Eucharistic Procession has been scheduled for today (Sunday) at 2:00 p.m. This event was originally planned for October 17th, but we decided that after the election it would be even more important, as the nation continues to grapple with the divisions that exist. May our Eucharistic faith be a witness of faith, hope, and love in our sorely divided world. IMPORTANT NOTE: In order to comply with State and Local health department rules, the Eucharistic Procession will be followed by a MOTORCADE of the faithful. Volunteers and disabled individuals may park at Resurrection parish parking lot. All others should arrive between 1:00 - 1:30 pm at the Lansing Catholic High School parking lot on Marshall St. Further instructions will be provided to drivers at the motorcade line up. You are invited to bring a Rosary and cell phone for notifications. May those who see us be intrigued and encouraged by our witness, and come to know God's healing love!

Using Our Talents

For several years now, we have prayed a powerful prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to come! The preface of that prayer is as follows: Let us pray that every person within the Catholic Diocese of Lansing [I have often focused this for us, saying "within the Church of the Resurrection"] will come to know and love our Lord Jesus Christ in a personal way, grow in maturity as a disciple of Christ, become actively engaged in the full life of the Church, and joyfully utilize his or her gifts for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the salvation of souls. Today, as we hear the Parable of the Talents, it is well for us to reflect on all we have each individually received from God as gifts: first of all our very lives, our natural and spiritual gifts (or charisms), our material resources, and our time. The question at the end of time is how we have used the many gifts we have been given. As a parish, we long to be a place where every baptized Christian can discern, cultivate, and employ their gifts "for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the salvation of souls."

With prayers for our nation, community, and parish,

Father Steve

Bishop Boyea's Year of the Bible

You are invited to join Bishop Boyea in reading through the Holy Bible starting this Advent and continuing through the next 12 months. Each day, the Bishop will text or email a chapter of Sacred Scripture. Together with the Bishop – and all those taking part – you will then read it and meditate upon it. Over the weeks, Bishop Boyea will also text you invitations to events; share video reflections with you; and let you know about other Year of the Bible updates. To sign up, simply text BYOB, which stands for Bishop's Year of the Bible to 84576. Or, visit at dioceseoflansing.org/byob

KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

Heavenly Father, we give you thanks and praise for your Son, Jesus Christ. Send Your Holy Spirit to inspire holy, faithful men to minister as priests. Lord, we pray for your grace to encourage and support our seminarians as they endeavor to become priests. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Women's Retreat: Inspire! And Light A Fire
St. Francis Retreat Center
Fri, Jan 8th at 6PM - Sun, Jan. 10 at 1pm

This retreat is based on the book "To Light a Fire on the Earth" by Bishop Robert Barron and aims to highlight evangelization as the center of every Catholic's mission. We all have family and friends that no longer practice their faith, and know individuals of no religious faith whatsoever. With these weekends, we hope to give retreatants the tools and knowledge to introduce those individuals to the beauty and life-changing truth of the Catholic faith.

Check in is 6:00pm Friday evening, and the retreat ends after lunch on Sunday.

The suggested donation is $185.
