The Baptism of the Lord

This weekend, the Church recalls a third theophany—or manifestation of God. The first theophany, of course, was the Nativity. The second was the Epiphany, which we celebrated last week. This is the third, when Jesus was baptized. Here is the account from Mark: It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." God the Father spoke from heaven, along with the Spirit descending upon Him, like a dove.

The Dignity of the Baptized

Through our own baptism, we are brought into this same mystery of the Godhead. We are plunged into the death and resurrection of Christ through our baptism. In Christ, we are invited to hear the Father say, "You are my beloved son (daughter); with you I am well pleased." It may be difficult for us to believe that we please the Father, but our life is now in Christ. Indeed, we the baptized have received the Holy Spirit, and we too have been anointed "priest, prophet, and king," just as Jesus was. We are Christians, which translates "anointed ones."

But what if I'm not convinced the Father is "well pleased"?

That's a great question! Scripture tells us that God chose each and every one of us to be His own from before the foundations of the world. He chose us! The sacramental sign of that choice is made clear in the baptismal rite for children, where the priest or the deacon (and the parents and godparents) "claim" the boy or girl for Jesus. This is the prayer and sign of that choice: "[Name], the Catholic Church welcomes you with great joy; in its name I claim you for Christ our Savior by the sign of his cross. I now trace the cross on your forehead, and invite your parents (and godparents) to do the same." Parents freely give their children to the Lord in response to His call and His choice. It's a powerful action, with eternal ramifications. But children (just like each and every one of us) are not always doing things that please their parents (earthly or divine). Nevertheless, the Lord loves all His wayward children, and pursues them like lost sheep. He delights in us when we turn back to Him. He delights in parents who entrust their children and each other to God's care and protection.

Being Lights in Dark Times

Last weekend, in my homily I spoke about the importance of us living up to our dignity as members of the Body of Christ. Through our baptism, we have the Power of God dwelling in us, and this great gift entails a tremendous responsibility as well. We are called to be Christ(ians) in our homes, schools, workplaces, and communities, and are empowered by God to live lives of witness to the Light and Truth that we find in Jesus. We are the bearers of the Good News, of the Gospel, and are empowered with the Holy Spirit to preach the Good News in our lives and through our words. Let us never forget the great gift we received in our baptism, and look to God's super-abundant grace in all our times of need. He will provide us timely help as we turn to Him. With fresh awareness of and gratitude for our baptism, let's seek ways to "Go and Announce the Gospel of the Lord" today.

Holy Water of Blessing

Many of you took home blessed chalk to bless your homes on the Epiphany. In past years, we have given out Holy Water bottles. I hope that you have a bottle for Holy Water and regularly use it. You can refill bottles at the font in the southeast corner of the church. Holy Water is a powerful "sacramental," which aids us in the life of faith and holiness. Below I include a portion of the blessing I regularly make over Holy Water when I bless it. It's a powerful prayer over the mixture of salt and water, which is prayed after both the salt and the water have been exorcised and blessed:

O God, Thou Author of invincible power, King of an unconquerable empire, who checkest the force of the adverse power, who overcometh the fierceness of the raging enemy, who powerfully subdues hostile malice, Thee, O Lord, trembling and suppliant, we implore and entreat to look benignly upon this Thy own creature of salt and water; that Thou mayest enlighten and sanctify with the dew of Thy clemency wherever it shall be sprinkled, through the invocation of Thy Holy Name; that every attack of the unclean spirit may be repelled; that the terror of the venomous serpent may be banished, and that the presence of Thy Holy Spirit may deign to be everywhere with us who seek Thy mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth forever. Amen."

Holy Water

I invite you to refill your holy water bottles as often as you need. Perhaps have a holy water font at the entrance to your home, or bless your beds and your children before they sleep. This great sacramental, which reminds us of our baptism as well as the authority we have over the evil one, has great power. St. Teresa of Avila, reflecting on her own experience, say this: "From long experience I have learned that there is nothing like holy water to put devils to flight and prevent them from coming back again."

With gratitude for the Father's Blessing and for Holy Water,

Father Steve

CYSC 2021

The fruit that I have seen come from Catholic Youth Summer Camp, in the spiritual and social development of their campers, I believe, makes it more than worthy of consideration in your summer plans. I have seen that campers come back into their parish and school intent to take on leadership and to build catholic identity. Imagine the strength that could come from your son or daughter and his or her group of closest friends experiencing the adventure together.

As camp sells out each season, to ensure our youth has opportunity to attend the 2021 season, as a parish/school, we have reserved a limited number of camper spaces. These spaces need to be filled by February 7, 2021 before they are released back to public use. When registering, PLEASE use "as a group" option with code RESURRECTIONCYSC2021

Camp costs $545 for a week of food, lodging, and high adventure. Because our parish sees value in Catholic Youth Summer Camp and knows that it will help to build that Catholic Identity of our school and parish youth, we are offering a very generous scholarship of $100 to all parishioners in need of it. While registering, at checkout use the promo code RESURRECTIONPROMO to apply for this discount. Consider discussing with grandparents, godparents, aunts and uncles to provide this opportunity through a Christmas gift. Both codes can be used.

For more information about camp, or to register, please go to www.cysc.com. If you are going to register, please do so soon. There is an option online to pay for camp in monthly installments if that is helpful for you.

With gratitude for this ministry to our youth,

Father Steve

Men's Retreat: Inspire! And Light A Fire

This retreat is based on the book "To Light a Fire on the Earth" by Bishop Robert Barron and aims to highlight evangelization as the center of every Catholic's mission. We all have family and friends that no longer practice their faith, and know individuals of no religious faith whatsoever. With these weekends, we hope to give retreatants the tools and knowledge to introduce those individuals to the beauty and life-changing truth of the Catholic faith.

This year will be a little different, as we have put into place safety protocols to keep our retreatants safe. It will be required to have your temperature taken upon arrival, masks will be required in group settings, and meals will be served cafeteria style. We are also using CDC recommended disinfectant when cleaning.

Check in is 6:00pm Friday evening, and the retreat ends after lunch on Sunday. The suggested donation is $185. February 12-14 at St. Francis Retreat Center.
