PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

A Blessed Time Away

As you may know, I had been exposed to someone who had COVID-19, and so was unable to attend the retreat I had scheduled for the first full week of January. I got tested on Monday January 4th, which came back negative. I never developed symptoms, but decided to take advantage of the priests who were scheduled to cover Masses for me, to take time to pray and get renewed not in the warmth of Florida sun, but the beauty of the Michigan north. Thanks to all those of you who have been praying for me. It has been a time of rest, renewal, and prayer. And, of course, in light of the events of the past few weeks, a time to reflect on how best to lead the parish and school moving forward. Please do keep me and all religious (and civil) leaders in prayer, as we seek the best way forward. The Lord has poured out His Spirit upon us Christians, to be sources of healing, light, and love. May we be Who We Are in Christ more faithfully and effectively this year.

Lord, Heal Our Land

What a time we are challenged, privileged, and graced to live in! The horrific events of January 6, the mutual recriminations that have followed those events, ongoing safety concerns about the inauguration, as well as Big Tech's overreach should all be of concern to every American. Yet, despite the uncertainty of our times, our first response must, as always, be to pray. We must pray for our leaders, both civil and religious, and for ourselves. We need wisdom to discern how best to serve as salt, light, and leaven in our world. We are bearers of the light, and our call from the Lord is to serve as lights in these dark times. The temptations to demonize the other, whomever the "other" may be, are strong, and we must resist them. We are called by our Lord to see as God sees, to love as God loves, to hear and respond as God would respond. Come, Holy Spirit! We need to look to the Lord, to pray for ourselves, our nation, and (especially) our enemies, even as we seek to offer a way forward, informed by the scriptures and the social teaching of the Church.

Lord, Heal Our Land II: MLK

This Monday, as our nation takes a day to honor Martin Luther King, Jr., let us pray for continued healing of the wounds of racism in our nation, state, and community. The Lord invites us to love one another, and the historical and cultural divides are ones the evil one longs to exploit. May we be men and women who speak and act for the promotion of equity and justice in our Land. Clearly, this past year has proven to expose dark impulses of prejudice, scapegoating, and demonization, and we are called, as Christians, to provide to a power-obsessed world, a different way forward. For us, guided by prayerful reflection, we need to see as God sees, to hear as God hears, and to love as God loves. That will, if we let it, lead us all(!) to acknowledge our own sins and to extend to one another (to everyone) mercy and grace. We must show that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ, and are not, and never have been, rivals for power or privilege or prestige. We, after the pattern of our Lord, should strive to be the servant of all, focusing on those who are suffering the most. Let us pray that we will be agents of mercy, grace, healing, and forgiveness. The world needs the Christian path to follow. May we be witnesses to a world that is fixated on power.

Thank you!

I could easily offer a long list of "thank you's" each week in my bulletin because of all the wonderful things that so many of you are doing week-in and week-out for our parish, school, and community. First of all, thank you for all the generous gifts that people gave to me and the parish and school staff this Christmas. Your kind words and thoughtful gifts encourage us. Thank you. All the many gifts are part of the legacy of "family" and "service" that have marked the Church of the Resurrection and Resurrection School for nearly a century. Everything the Lord has done in and through our parish has been made possible by the generous investment of time, talent, and treasure from parishioners like you. In particular, I am grateful for the donations of time, talent, and treasure that have made possible the improvements and renovations to the New Life Center and our new office. Many donors and servants, with gifts of time, material, talent, and finances great and small have helped us transform a place of hopelessness and darkness into one in which healing, hope, and light are found. Thank you!

"Ordinary Time"

Today, we celebrate the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. There is nothing "ordinary" or "plain" about "ordinary time." The name stems from the word ordinal, meaning "numbered." The Latin for this liturgical period, which makes up the majority of our Liturgical Year, is Tempus Per Annum, which means "time throughout the year." We do have special seasons during the year, but every Sunday of Ordinary Time is a day of obligation. We have an extraordinary opportunity to experience God's redemptive love for us when we gather together as a community of faith at Mass. Each and every time we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we recall Christ's Incarnation, His Death, His Resurrection, His Ascension, and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us for the forgiveness of sins. So, because the time we spend at Mass is anything but ordinary (after all, the Sacrifice of Christ on Calvary is made present, and Heaven comes to earth!), it is essential that we come each week (or even more often) to celebrate the Mass, to remember how extraordinary our life is in Christ.

May God bless us and our nation,

Father Steve

Please note!

CYSC 2021

The fruit that I have seen come from Catholic Youth Summer Camp, in the spiritual and social development of their campers, I believe, makes it more than worthy of consideration in your summer plans. I have seen that campers come back into their parish and school intent to take on leadership and to build catholic identity. Imagine the strength that could come from your son or daughter and his or her group of closest friends experiencing the adventure together.

As camp sells out each season, to ensure our youth has opportunity to attend the 2021 season, as a parish/school, we have reserved a limited number of camper spaces. These spaces need to be filled by February 7, 2021 before they are released back to public use. When registering, PLEASE use "as a group" option with code RESURRECTIONCYSC2021

Camp costs $545 for a week of food, lodging, and high adventure. Because our parish sees value in Catholic Youth Summer Camp and knows that it will help to build that Catholic Identity of our school and parish youth, we are offering a very generous scholarship of $100 to all parishioners in need of it. While registering, at checkout use the promo code RESURRECTIONPROMO to apply for this discount. Consider discussing with grandparents, godparents, aunts and uncles to provide this opportunity through a Christmas gift. Both codes can be used.

For more information about camp, or to register, please go to www.cysc.com. If you are going to register, please do so soon. There is an option online to pay for camp in monthly installments if that is helpful for you.

With gratitude for this ministry to our youth,

Father Steve

Men's Retreat: Inspire! And Light A Fire

This retreat is based on the book "To Light a Fire on the Earth" by Bishop Robert Barron and aims to highlight evangelization as the center of every Catholic's mission. We all have family and friends that no longer practice their faith, and know individuals of no religious faith whatsoever. With these weekends, we hope to give retreatants the tools and knowledge to introduce those individuals to the beauty and life-changing truth of the Catholic faith.

This year will be a little different, as we have put into place safety protocols to keep our retreatants safe. It will be required to have your temperature taken upon arrival, masks will be required in group settings, and meals will be served cafeteria style. We are also using CDC recommended disinfectant when cleaning.

Check in is 6:00pm Friday evening, and the retreat ends after lunch on Sunday. The suggested donation is $185. February 12-14 at St. Francis Retreat Center.
