PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Book/Pastoral Letter Studies

As I've mentioned in recent months, we are looking forward to several book/pastoral letter studies that will be held on Thursday evenings in Mercy Hall during the Lent and Easter Seasons. Our plan is to get things set to begin with one of the studies the last week of February. The others will follow on subsequent Thursdays. You can sign-up online or call the office to get updates on the schedule. The four studies that we will get started with will cover the following four books/pastoral letter:

Live Not By Lies: A Manual for Christian Dissidents, by Rod Dreher (Study Guide for Live Not By Lies)

USCCB's Pastoral Letter "Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love" (Study Guide for "Open Wide Our Hearts")

Loved As I Am (for women only) by Sr. Miriam James Heidland

The 3 Big Questions for a Frantic Family by Patrick Lencioni

[Please note that we will be delaying the study group for Ralph Martin's book for the time being, so we could include some other titles that we believed might be of interest to more parishioners and members of the community.]

Format for the Mercy Hall Book Study Evenings

Our hope is that those who plan to be part of these conversations about the books/pastoral letter will have read the entire book or pastoral letter prior to the first session. The reason for this is that we don't plan to go sequentially through the books, chapter by chapter, but will take time each of three weeks to discuss major themes together as a large group. The facilitators for the discussion will send out anticipated discussion questions prior to the meetings, which will help frame the discussion.

Interested in running a study on your own?

Of course, some of you may wish to go chapter by chapter through the book(s) and/or pastoral letter, and I can understand the appeal of that approach. Feel free to establish studies on your own. Just one recommendation: If you plan to lead a study of these or other books, please be wise about how you do so, and get the game plan for discussion set at the start, because, as you know, these conversations can be quite challenging. Whether in the large group studies or in small group studies, let's be sure to reflect Christian virtues, including humility and charity, as we conduct these conversations. One more note: small group "leaders" should be quite familiar with the books, and be intentional about not playing the role of the "expert" but rather serve the group as a facilitator for honest engagement with the ideas conveyed in the book/letter.

Men's Breakfast

Because of the recent changes to the requirements for food establishments, Men's breakfasts have returned. Hopefully, we will be able to offer a simple bagel and coffee breakfast and fellowship after that in Mercy Hall. The plan at this point is to work through Rod Dreher's book, using the study guide that he created, and which is linked on our website.

Healing Hearts

In today's Gospel, we recall the healing work that Jesus did, and recounts how the people longed to be healed and were looking to him and for him to be healed. The Lord today gives us to the world, to be agents and instruments of healing. I love the fact that the Church gives us Psalm 147 for today's Psalm. Consider these beautiful words:

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

He tells the number of the stars;

he calls each by name.

R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

May we each come to know the healing power of the Lord, that we can help others be healed, as well.

Come Encounter Jesus

This coming Saturday (February 13), we have our next Healing Encounter. It is a time of praise, worship, prayer, and adoration from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the church. The focus this month will be hope. It's a great opportunity to worship God and to open our hearts to have Him do healing work in us. We will also stream the service, as we have been doing regularly of late. Come, and bring others with you. Prayer teams will be available in separate rooms with "distancing" to allow people to receive prayer for healing and other requests. Come, and invite someone to join you. May we be a parish that experiences healing and offers healing opportunities to our friends, neighbors, and family members.

With prayers that we would all have our broken hearts healed,

Father Steve

NOW HIRING:

Lansing Catholic High School has three positions open for part-time cafeteria food staffers.

These positions would be from 10:00 am until 1:15 pm, Monday through Friday, and would include food prep, serving and cleaning school cafeteria. There is no formal training needed for the positions, however, you do need to have your own transportation, and a background check. If you would like to work at one of our area elementary schools, a ServSafe certification would be required, and we would provide the materials for the class, and pay for the certification exam.

The fruit that I have seen come from Catholic Youth Summer Camp, in the spiritual and social development of their campers, I believe, makes it more than worthy of consideration in your summer plans. I have seen that campers come back into their parish and school intent to take on leadership and to build catholic identity. Imagine the strength that could come from your son or daughter and his or her group of closest friends experiencing the adventure together.

As camp sells out each season, to ensure our youth has opportunity to attend the 2021 season, as a parish/school, we have reserved a limited number of camper spaces. These spaces need to be filled by February 7, 2021 before they are released back to public use. When registering, PLEASE use "as a group" option with code RESURRECTIONCYSC2021

Camp costs $545 for a week of food, lodging, and high adventure. Because our parish sees value in Catholic Youth Summer Camp and knows that it will help to build that Catholic Identity of our school and parish youth, we are offering a very generous scholarship of $100 to all parishioners in need of it. While registering, at checkout use the promo code RESURRECTIONPROMO to apply for this discount. Consider discussing with grandparents, godparents, aunts and uncles to provide this opportunity through a Christmas gift. Both codes can be used.

For more information about camp, or to register, please go to www.cysc.com. If you are going to register, please do so soon. There is an option online to pay for camp in monthly installments if that is helpful for you.

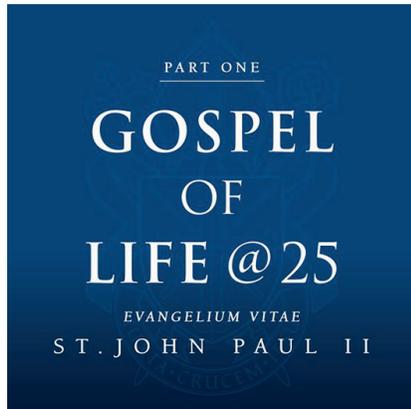

With gratitude for this ministry to our youth,

Father Steve

Our evening will conclude with Benediction

THE GOSPEL OF LIFE @ 25:

Just over a quarter of a century ago, Pope Saint John Paul II released his prophetic encyclical, Evangelium vitae, in response to the ever-increasing attacks against human life and dignity.

Over the next 12 months, we will be releasing a weekly teaching or reflection on this important encyclical so that the faithful may grow in their understanding of the Church's teaching on matters of life and human dignity. We hope you will join us on this journey of life. Evangelium vitae, translated in English to "The Gospel of Life", was promulgated in Rome on 25 March 1995 by Pope John Paul II. It deals with issues pertaining to the sanctity of human life, including murder, abortion, euthanasia, and capital punishment, reaffirming the Church's timeless teachings on those issues in a way that is relevant to this day.

The document gave greater foundation and focus to what a "Culture of Life" should look like and, by contrast, greater understanding as to what underpins the contemporary "Culture of Death" which continues to hold sway over much of the western world.

The United States' Conference of Catholic Bishops had designated 2020 as the year to begin celebrating the 25th anniversary of Evangelium vitae but, as with many things, COVID-19 got in the way. Hence the beginning of this new series, introduced upon this Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children, January 22, 2021. Next installment? Next week. Until then, God bless you.

Women's Retreat: Inspire! And Light A Fire

St. Francis Retreat Center
March 12 -March 14

This retreat is based on the book "To Light a Fire on the Earth" by Bishop Robert Barron and aims to highlight evangelization as the center of every Catholic's mission. We all have family and friends that no longer practice their faith, and know individuals of no religious faith whatsoever. With these weekends, we hope to give retreatants the tools and knowledge to introduce those individuals to the beauty and life-changing truth of the Catholic faith.

This year will be a little different, as we have put into place safety protocols to keep our retreatants safe. It will be required to have your temperature taken upon arrival, masks will be required in group settings, and meals will be served cafeteria style. We are also using CDC recommended disinfectant when cleaning.

Check in is 6:00pm Friday evening, and the retreat ends after lunch on Sunday.

The suggested donation is $185.
