PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Simply Give

Thank you for your ongoing support of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. If you haven't had a chance (or even if you have), consider investing a bit more in our ministry to the least of these by going to the Lake Lansing Meijer (just off U.S. 127) and giving funds to the "Simply Give" campaign. The double-match day will be this coming Saturday, June 19th. Take advantage of this great partnership, triple your money, and help the poor in our midst. Thanks!

Knights of Columbus Blood Drive

There will be a Red Cross blood drive in Mercy Hall on June 15th, co-sponsored by the Resurrection Knights of Columbus and the Lansing Lions Club. You can reserve a time slot to donate blood by either calling 1-800--RED CROSS (1-800--733-2767) or going to: www.RedCrossBlood.org (Enter 'Resurrection' where it asks for a zip code or sponsor code. Be sure to sign up for our blood drive, and not one of the drives in other states that are sponsored by different Resurrection churches.) Your donation of blood might help save a life.

Two New Priests!

On Saturday, at St. Thomas Aquinas Church in East Lansing, the entire Church rejoiced in the ordination of two men to the priesthood of Jesus Christ. May newly ordained Fr. Miguel Colunga and Fr. Mark Martin become good, holy, and loving priests of Jesus Christ. And may the Church of the Resurrection become more and more a place where vocations to the priesthood and religious life grow and bear fruit.

St. John Vianney (Patron Saint of Diocesan Priests)

In his Catechism on the Priesthood, St. John Vianney writes the following:

Saint Bernard tells us that everything has come to us through Mary; and we may also say that everything has come to us through the priest; yes, all happiness, all graces, all heavenly gifts. If we had not the Sacrament of Orders, we should not have Our Lord. Who placed Him there, in that tabernacle? It was the priest. Who was it that received your soul, on its entrance into life? The priest. Who nourishes it, to give it strength to make its pilgrimage? The priest. Who will prepare it to appear before God, by washing that soul, for the last time, in the blood of Jesus Christ? The priest -- always the priest. And if that soul comes to the point of death, who will raise it up, who will restore it to calmness and peace? Again the priest. You cannot recall one single blessing from God without finding, side by side with this recollection, the image of the priest.

These beautiful words from St. John Vianney remind me of the great dignity of the priesthood, and humble me that the Lord has called me to this great honor and service to you. May we be a parish that fosters vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Come, Holy Spirit!

of the great dignity of the priesthood, and humble me that the Lord has called me to this great honor and service to you. May we be a parish that fosters vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Come, Holy Spirit!

Preaching with Authority, Humility, and Love

As you know, preaching is something that I strive to do well, and to continually be attentive to the Lord to offer words that the Lord would have me preach, about the Gospel (of course) and also other aspects of how we should live the Christian life wisely and well. As you know, I'm not afraid to address thorny questions in my homilies. I sometime get the balance wrong, but this essay by Fr. Hans Urs von Balthasar entitled "The Priest I Want" has been quite instructive for me. I offer it to you for your prayerful reflection:

This is the first quality that the priest I am looking for would have to have; for he would have to be a priest, or at any rate he would have to have been commissioned and authorized from above, by Christ, to confront me with God's incarnate word in such a manner that I can be sure that it is not I who am making use of it; I have to know that I have not from the very outset emasculated it by psychologizing, interpreting, demythologizing it away to such an extent that it can no longer create in me what it wills. No, what I am looking for is a man who can confront me with it in such a way that I cannot escape its demands, because I meet then in concrete form of the authority of the Church which, as a serving authority, actualizes the concrete form of the divine authority. It may perhaps be that I have reached the point of being confronted with this demand. But he must also help me to stand firm, not to run away, by sitting it out with me with an unrelenting love. With a terrible love which again and again says to me, "But that is what you really want."

With a love for which in one's heart of hearts one gives thanks because it cannot be replaced by anything else . . .

The humble priest will not be tempted to offer me anything other than the word of God for me; the zealous priest will not tolerate my attempts to slide away from this word. He will make me stick to my last, and I can easily accuse him of intruding and interfering, but what intrudes and interferes in truth is only the word of God itself. If I find the one I want, then I cannot reasonably object if he behaves toward me with a confidence which is not appropriate for a man.

Where my limitations and ego have caused hurt or harm, I repent, seek forgiveness, and ask for your prayers. If you would, please pray for me and all priests, that we will be humble, holy, faithful priests—in other words, that we will be priests you want. Most of all, please pray that we will be the priests God wants us to be.

Humbled by the privilege of being a priest and your pastor,

Father Steve
