PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Vaccine Mandates

Given the rise in case counts of the Delta Variant, leaders of businesses, governmental agencies, and universities have chosen to require vaccination for employees, students, and/or patrons. In that light, it seems important to consider how important the Catholic Church views freedom as people discern whether they (or those they love) should take a vaccine.

Moral Freedom

The Congregation For the Doctrine of the Faith's "Note on the Morality of Using Some Anti-Covid-19 Vaccines" provides some helpful clarity. Consider this paragraph in light of recent decisions to mandate the vaccine:

5. At the same time, practical reason makes evident that vaccination is not, as a rule, a moral obligation and that, therefore, it must be voluntary. In any case, from the ethical point of view, the morality of vaccination depends not only on the duty to protect one's own health, but also on the duty to pursue the common good. In the absence of other means to stop or even prevent the epidemic, the common good may recommend vaccination, especially to protect the weakest and most exposed. Those who, however, for reasons of conscience, refuse vaccines produced with cell lines from aborted fetuses, must do their utmost to avoid, by other prophylactic means and appropriate behavior, becoming vehicles for the transmission of the infectious agent. In particular, they must avoid any risk to the health of those who cannot be vaccinated for medical or other reasons, and who are the most vulnerable. (Emphasis in original.)

That paragraph is very balanced, balancing as it does, conscience concerns and the Common Good. I am also grateful for the proper focus on those who are most at risk. This focus on levels of risk seems strangely absent from the current national discourse around vaccines and masking.

Conscientious (Religious) Objection

I know that some of you (or your family members or friends) are being required by employers, universities, schools, etc. to take the vaccine. If that happens, I recommend that individuals pursue all potential avenues of appeal with authorities, seeking accommodations or alternatives to vaccination. If you or someone you know desires to file an appeal based on your religious objection to a vaccine mandate, this template created by the National Catholic Bioethics Center is excellent: (www.ncbcenter.org/ncbc-news/vaccineletter). The language in the letter offers a clear argument, based on Catholic teaching, that makes clear the basis for one's religious objection. I'm grateful that both Bishop Boyea and the USCCB, in addition to the CDF have all made clear that vaccines must be voluntary. I would expect nothing less, but I remain grateful.

Update on Witness to Hope (and Renovation)

Just yesterday, I got an email back from Tom Rajkovich, the architect who developed our plans for the sanctuary renovation. After getting information from an engineering firm, I had emailed him with the numbers that the engineer had given us. In coming days and weeks, I hope to resolve some of the differences in estimates that Tom and the engineer made, to determine what a realistic total cost of the project might be. As I have mentioned in the past, our original vision for the sanctuary was a less-elaborate (and, I believe, less beautiful) one. Based on numbers that Tom gave me, it looks like the total cost of the project as it currently stands may be as high as $1.25 million. In coming days, I'll be working with Chris Spalding, members of the Finance Council, and the committee that we pulled together for the renovation project, to discuss the various options, hopefully within the month. If you would, please keep us and this project in your prayers. And, if you're able to donate to the Building Fund, please do so! In closing, I want to thank all who have given so faithfully to the Witness to Hope Campaign! Your generosity is a great gift to the parish. Thank you!

Keeping Our Children Safe

For nearly twenty years, Catholics in the US have been committed and intentional about creating codes of conduct and helping everyone in the community be mindful of "red flags" about potential grooming and/or abuse. I'm grateful that we are able to gather together again in person and to have our children spend time together on the playground. As we enjoy these gifts, let's also be prudent and attentive to the potential risks of those who may try to take advantage of trust and/or laxity in our oversight of children. As you surely know, abuse is most often committed by people children know. Let's recommit to protecting all God's children. And please pray for all those who have suffered (in the Church or without) from abuse of any kind. Lord, have mercy!

Come Encounter Jesus

This coming Saturday evening, August 14th, we will have a time of praise, worship, prayer, adoration, and confession from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the church for our bi-monthly Healing Encounter. It's a great opportunity to worship God and to open our hearts to His healing love. Come, and bring others with you. Prayer teams will be available to pray for healing and other requests.

With gratitude for the gift and wisdom of our Catholic faith,

Father Steve
