PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Ox Roast is Here!

This weekend we will celebrate the 87th Ox Roast Festival. Join us. Thanks in advance to the host of volunteers who make this possible, and to all the volunteers who will be spending time helping us set things up and staff the various aspects of the Festival. Please plan to attend and bring your family, friends, and neighbors too.

Sacred Relics of the Saints: Treasures of the Church

As part of our celebration of the Exaltation of the Cross, on September 14th, the Church of the Resurrection will present a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Wednesday, September 14 at 6:30 pm. There will be a presentation in the church, and then the relics will be available for veneration in Mercy Hall following. Do not miss this opportunity! You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Please spread the word.

Cost of Discipleship

Last weekend, I referenced Dietrich Bonhoeffer's great book, Cost of Discipleship. Here are a few excerpts that I hope you will find edifying and challenging.

As we embark upon discipleship we surrender ourselves to Christ in union with his death—we give over our lives to death. Thus it begins; the cross is not the terrible end to an otherwise god-fearing and happy life, but it meets us at the beginning of our communion with Christ. When Christ calls a man, he bids him come and die. It may be a death like that of the first disciples who had to leave home and work to follow him [or death to something else]. . . But it is the same death every time—death in Jesus Christ, the death of the old man at his call. Jesus' summons to the rich young man was calling him to die, because only the man who is dead to his own will can follow Christ. In fact every command of Jesus is a call to die, with all our affections and lusts. But we do not want to die, and therefore Jesus Christ and his call are necessarily our death as well as our life. The call to discipleship, the baptism in the name of Jesus Christ means both death and life. The call of Christ, his baptism, sets the Christian in the middle of the daily arena against sin and the devil. Every day he encounters new temptations, and every day he must suffer anew for Jesus Christ's sake. The wounds and scars he receives in the fray are living tokens of this participation in the cross of his Lord.
