PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Jesus Christ is King!

We come to the end of our Liturgical Year by celebrating the Reign of God manifest in Jesus Christ our Lord and King. Our entire life as Christians is ordered to hope and anticipation of Christ's return and our own fellowship with Him in Heaven. Our home is in Heaven, and the King who is to come is our Brother, our Friend. If we walk always by His side, following Him, accompanying Him in our daily choices, we have no reason to fear His return. He will welcome us into His Father's House.

Advent Begins Next Sunday

What a great transition we find at this time of year! Right after we celebrate Christ's Kingship, we begin to anticipate His coming in three ways: His Incarnation (coming as a baby for us), His coming again in glory, and His coming in our hearts. It is a holy season of anticipation. To assist you in your preparation, please take a booklet filled with meditations for each day of Advent. May we all enter deeply into this great season of hope. Feel free to take a copy of the Magnificat Advent Companion, at the various exits.

Celebrating Our Centennial

After months of planning, about 300 of us are going to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of our parish. I'm very grateful for the team who helped plan the evening, especially Janice Harvey, Teresa Spalding, Mickie Kreft, Colleen Fahrenbach, and Mary Stanewich, along with the great team from Soup Spoon Café, especially Keith Buchele and Nick Gavrillides. Thanks also to all of those who helped us sift through our archives in anticipation of the celebration, especially Kathryn Reed, Paula Panetta, Beth Gordon, Kate Kent, and Margaret Costigan, along with David Stattelman and Guine Norman who lead our scholae, Jeremy Whiting who pulled together the Centennial video, and our generous sponsors. Last but not least, thanks also to all of those who have been part of the Church of the Resurrection for these hundred years. Here's to another hundred, to our Second Century! Cheers!

"The Three Worlds of Evangelicalism"

I quoted from this article last weekend by Aaron Renn in First Things, from the February 2022 issue of the journal. Here are the excerpts I shared:

Within the story of American secularization, there have been three distinct stages:

Positive World (Pre-1994): Society at large retains a mostly positive view of Christianity. To be known as a good, churchgoing man remains part of being an upstanding citizen. Publicly being a Christian is a status-enhancer. Christian moral norms are the basic moral norms of society and violating them can bring negative consequences.

Neutral World (1994–2014): Society takes a neutral stance toward Christianity. Christianity no longer has privileged status but is not disfavored. Being publicly known as a Christian has neither a positive nor a negative impact on one's social status. Christianity is a valid option within a pluralistic public square. Christian moral norms retain some residual effect. (2014 because of Obergefell.)

Negative World (2014–Present): Society has come to have a negative view of Christianity. Being known as a Christian is a social negative, particularly in the elite domains of society. Christian morality is expressly repudiated and seen as a threat to the public good and the new public moral order. Subscribing to Christian moral views or violating the secular moral order brings negative consequences.

The reason I shared this last weekend, and include it in the bulletin today, is that this reality confirms our sense of what's happening in our culture. One reflection seems apt, as we think about these historical stages. The fact is that Christians who have lived the faith have always been out of favor. As we proceed, perhaps with increasing hostility and rejection, our call is to be the light in our community. We are salt and leaven in our world. Let us recommit to live our core values: Mission Focused, Authentically Catholic, and Supportive of Families. As we proceed, we are called to live the faith in a more intentional way and invite others to join us. Living the light and winning hearts by attraction. Come, Holy Spirit!

With prayers for all our loved ones who have died,

Father Steve
