PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

“Ordinary Time”

Today, we celebrate the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. There is nothing “ordinary” or “plain” about “ordinary time.” The name stems from the word ordinal, meaning “numbered.” The Latin for this liturgical period, which makes up the majority of our Liturgical Year, is Tempus Per Annum, which means “time throughout the year.” We do have special seasons during the year, but every Sunday of Ordinary Time is a day of obligation. We have an extraordinary opportunity to experience God’s redemptive love for us when we gather together as a community of faith at Mass. Each and every time we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we recall Christ’s Incarnation, His Death, His Resurrection, His Ascension, and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us for the forgiveness of sins. So, because the time we spend at Mass is anything but ordinary (after all, the Sacrifice of Christ on Calvary is made present, and Heaven comes to earth!), it is essential that we come each week (or even more often) to celebrate the Mass, to remember how extraordinary our life is in Christ.

Thank you!

What a great event it was a week ago at the Twelfth Night Celebration! As I mentioned last weekend in my Sunday homilies, the second annual celebration of Epiphany was a resounding success. Thanks to all those who made the evening such a great time of food, drink, music, poetry, and fellowship. Sean and Liz O’Neill, Teresa Spalding and her crew of cooks, Debbie McPherson, Steve Simonson, Piper Fountain, Joel Stanewich, Chris Spalding, Sean Riley, David Kerr and a host of others contributed to making for a wonderful evening. I want to also express thanks to all those poets, musicians, and singers who shared their talents. What a wonderful evening it was, and we look forward to having additional events in the future where members of the parish and community can share their talents and gifts with us.

From the Bishop about Ten Deans (including me):

Initially, it was thought [the vision for Realignment of Resources for Mission] could best be facilitated through our priests operating a shared pastorate over a group of parishes. This is what Canon 543 of the Code of Canon Law refers to as in solidum. However, we soon received word that Rome will not allow priests in solidum to be pastors of individual parishes.

What is more, our priests didn’t like the in solidum concept either preferring, instead, to maintain the traditional link between a pastor and his people, between the shepherd and his flock. This was all good feedback and has been duly incorporated into the implementation of the Realign Resources for Mission vision, a process we’ve entitled Made for Mission.

Hence the more recent move to 22 parish groups organized within 10 deanery territories with each led by a priest who is nominated as a dean. Canon 555 of the Code of Canon Law lays out nicely the responsibilities for a dean. These includes:

- To promote and coordinate common pastoral activity
- To ensure that local clerics lead a life in keeping with their state
- To ensure that local clerics perform their duties diligently
- To ensure that religious functions are celebrated according to liturgical precepts
- To ensure that the beauty and elegance of churches and sacred furnishings are maintained carefully, especially in the Eucharistic celebration and custody of the Eucharist
- To ensure that, according to particular law, clerics attend lectures, theological meetings, or Conferences
- To take care that spiritual supports are available to presbyters of his district and to show concern for those who are in difficult circumstances or beset by problems.

I have now selected the priests for this role through a consultative process involving the priests, the chancery staff as well as other trusted advisors.

I will be serving as Dean, beginning in July, of the “Lansing Deanery,” which includes the following parishes and groups:

- Lansing North: Church of the Resurrection, St Andrew Dung-Lac, St Mary Cathedral, and St Therese.
- East Lansing/Shiawassee: St Mary, Morrice and St Thomas Aquinas (includes St. John Church & Student Center, East Lansing)
- Eastern Ingham: St Martha and St Mary, Williamston

Please pray for me, the other nine deans, and the entire diocese as we anticipate this new structure, which will go into effect in July. Come, Holy Spirit!

With prayers for wisdom,

Father Steve

A Special Parish 100th Anniversary Event

A musical concert dedicated to the legacy and contributions of Ursula Klein

Lansing's Church of the Resurrection is hosting a musical celebration of its 100 years Saturday, February 4th at 6:30pm in the Church (following the 5pm Mass), a free concert honoring the legacy of Ursula Klein. Miss Klein served the Parish for over 50 of those 100 years, teaching music to all ages: elementary, middle, high school and adults. She played and sang for countless weddings and funerals, and encouraged generations of people to persevere in their musical endeavors. Choirs of former and current Resurrection musicians and students will perform in tribute, along with organists Dr. Conrad Donakowski, Doug Austin and Michael Garnett. Please come and be inspired!

Free admission, reception and exhibits to follow in Mercy Hall!

Have a favorite memory about Miss Klein? Send it to ukleinconcert2022@gmail.com

Former chorister or musician wishing to participate? Reply by email for information and rehearsal dates
