PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Some Time Away

I'm away this weekend, as I mentioned last Sunday. Please note that confessions and Mass Monday, July 17 will be canceled. As you know, this is my "Bethany." It's a place of rest and refreshment. It was a great grace to have Russ and Cindy Kogut, Fr. Dan Kogut, Pete & Lisa Kogut and their children, and Joe & Molly Fountain at the Fort Wilkins campground. Each day, we celebrate Mass at the local Catholic Church. The first day I preached at Mass this year at Our Lady of the Pines Catholic Church, the date was July 11th, the Memorial of St. Benedict. St. Benedict was the founder of Western Monasticism, and his Rule and the households of faith that were the Benedictine monasteries helped the world at the time retain and grow the Christian view of the world. He was a great gift to the sustaining of Christian Culture in his time. We are all indebted to him. His rule called on monks to have their days formed by "Ora et labora," which means prayer and work. That's the model for all of us, even if we're unable to pray as often or as long as monks are able to pray. We should all begin and end our days, and be sustained by the daily communication with Jesus, to whom, as I preached last week, we do well to remain "yoked." Remember, his yoke is easy, his burden is light.

"The Benedict Option"

At various moments during my tenure as pastor, I have referenced a book written by Rod Dreher, which I believe will be very helpful to us as a parish and a Church as we navigate the increasingly hostile cultural context of our times. The book is The Benedict Option: A Strategy for Christians in a Post-Christian Nation. Increasingly, we can see how divided our nation is about what it means to be human and what remedies are most appropriate for various wounds. The elites in the culture place much of the blame for current crises on traditional western values. Some are arguing for the replacement of those values by those inspired more by Marx than by the Holy Spirit. I have preached over the past month or two about how we have effectively lost the "culture wars." The question for us now is how to respond to the new reality. I believe that Dreher's book offers witnesses of communities where the deep ideas of the faith are remembered, honored, and handed on to the next generations. We will need each other more in the future, not less. Please pray for wisdom for a committee that will soon be charged with making practical recommendations about how we as a parish, school, and community can support each other in knowing and living the faith more and more in these hostile times.

Sound of Freedom

I have yet to see the film about human trafficking, but it sounds like it is a vital film for our culture and country to grapple with, because it reveals a dark underbelly of our culture. I hope to see it soon, and believe I can recommend it for mature audiences. Because it reveals such evil, it might have an ill-effect, even a sense of being overwhelmed by how our nation and world can allow such evil. A prayer that our prayer ministry uses after prayer ministry may be helpful should you ever feel overwhelmed or troubled by things you see or hear about. It comes from the John Paul II Healing Center resources.

Cleansing Prayer Following Ministry

Lord Jesus, thank You for sharing with me Your wonderful ministry of healing and deliverance. Thank you for the healings that I have seen and experienced today. I realize that the sickness and evil I encounter is more than my humanity can bear, so cleanse me of any sadness, negativity or despair that I may have picked up. If my ministry has tempted me to anger, impatience or lust, cleanse me of those temptations and replace them with love, joy and peace. If any evil spirits have attached themselves to me or oppressed me in any way, I command you, to depart – now – and go straight to Jesus Christ for Him to deal with you as He will. Come Holy Spirit: renew me- fill me with your power, your life, and your joy. Strengthen me where I have felt weak and clothe me with your light. Fill me with life. Lord Jesus, please send your holy angels to minister to me and my family – guard us and protect us from all sickness, harm and accidents.

Beauty of Creation

I'm writing this column at a campground in Copper Harbor. It's a perfect day, filled with beauty and God's blessings. I brought my kayak and bike, and it has been a great break from every day life. I look forward to returning home refreshed by God's goodness to me in and through the beauty of creation. During my time away, I have given God thanks that I am beginning my twelfth year as your pastor. As I reflect on the past eleven years, I can see that God has been very faithful. Though we are still very much a parish and school "in progress" (as I am myself!), the Lord has blessed us richly. Among God's many blessings, being pastor at the Church of the Resurrection is among God's greatest gifts to me. Be assured of my daily prayers for you. Please pray for me. Come, Holy Spirit!

With gratitude for all God's gifts,

Father Steve

Summer Updates from the School

We are mostly finished with the hiring process for the upcoming school year.

3rd Grade Teacher

We will miss having Teresa McDowell as our 3rd grade teacher, but we are happy for her to be able to spend more time with her children and grandchildren. We are also blessed that Niabh Keenan has accepted the 3rd grade position. Niabh is a parishioner at Resurrection who just recently graduated from Grand Valley State. She has done extensive work in youth ministry and substitute teaching with parishes and schools in Grand Rapid, and we are very excited to add her to our teaching staff!

Latin Teacher

We are still searching for someone to teach Latin part-time in the school. Please pray for the Lord to bring us a good candidate for this position and share this opportunity family and friends who also love Latin. They may be interested or know someone who is!

Enrollment

We are anticipating 200 students in the elementary and middle school for the fall, and 40 in the preschool. This will put our school over 90% of our enrollment capacity. We know that is due in large part to the commitment of our pastor, parish, and parishioners for spiritually and materially supporting the school. Our families are so blessed by the school and the community of faith which surrounds our children.

Green Envelopes

Many of our parishioners give directly to the school through the Green Envelope which has been a tremendous blessing to the school for many years! We also have families giving recurring gifts to the school on a weekly or monthly basis. The funds generated through the Green Envelope are essential for supporting the operational needs of the school. It helps us to provide books and instructional materials for students without charging a book fee, and it also helps us to cover the teacher salaries without charging our school families the full cost to educate, which is $5,500 per student. It is only through the generosity of our parish that we can maintain affordable tuition for our families. If you are one of the many parishioners making a direct gift through the Green Envelope in-person or online, thank you for being so generous in supporting the school! And if you didn't know about the Green Envelope but want to make a gift, please look for the Green Envelope next month or go to our online giving platform. <https://www.corlansing.org/give>
