PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Church Renovation Update

Many of you have seen the renderings that are in the vestibule of the church. Some of you mentioned that the design seems significantly changed from what you recalled seeing. That's not for no reason. The original proposal was modified through discussion with the original architect, our committee, and the diocesan Liturgical Design Commission. We originally only had an altar rail in the center, but after time passing, and more discussion, we determined that it would be prudent to increase the number of seats in the church, which was possible by reorienting the pews back to the original design (with, as you may have seen, angles on the two outside banks of pews). This gains us over 100 additional seats, which seems prudent while we're doing the renovations. We also extended the altar rail the whole width of the church, which will make it possible for people to receive kneeling wherever they are sitting in the church. The reredos, which is the wooden backdrop where the tabernacle will be, as well as the altar and ambo, are being designed by a different architect. We hope to have renderings of those by September to share with you, and to get approved by the diocese. Please note that our current crucifix will be featured in the reredos above the tabernacle. Our hopes, as I've mentioned at Mass, is that the work on the renovation will begin by mid-April. We haven't worked out, obviously, all the details for daily Mass and weekend Masses, but we have some good ideas for that. We will share those details as they develop. Please keep all of this in prayer, as we proceed.

Councils and Commissions

The Parish Pastoral Council met this past week to review applications and to make appointments and to draw lots for positions on the various councils and commissions. It was a time bathed in prayer, and we are grateful for the desire on the part of members of the parish to serve in these various capacities. We will be letting individuals know about their appointment to these bodies in coming weeks, and will announce their names in the bulletin and on the website shortly thereafter. Please pray for them and for the staff of the parish as we seek to serve the Lord more faithfully, in order to worship well and better form missionary disciples who know, love, and serve the Lord. Thank you!

Keeping Our Children Safe

For over twenty years, Catholics in the US have been committed and intentional about creating codes of conduct and helping everyone in the community be mindful of "red flags" about potential grooming and/or abuse. As we enjoy these gifts, let's also be prudent and attentive to the potential risks of those who may try to take advantage of trust and/or laxity in our oversight of children. As you surely know, abuse is most often committed by people children know. Let's recommit to protecting all God's children. And please pray for all those who have suffered (in the Church or without) from abuse of any kind. Lord, have mercy!

World Youth Day

Please keep the youth who will gather in Lisbon, Portugal, this week for World Youth Day, as well as for all the presenters and ministers. I am grateful that St. John Paul II began the tradition of World Youth Days, and I pray that this one will, like those before it, offer the youth from around the world a powerful encounter with the Living Love of God. I pray also that it will spur evangelical zeal among the youth in our times. The Lord is the answer to the question of every human heart, and, if the youth "catch fire," they will be able to stand as lights in these dark times. Come, Holy Spirit!

Come Encounter Jesus

Saturday, August 12, we will have a time of praise, worship, prayer, adoration, and confession from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the church for our bi-monthly Healing Encounter. It's a great opportunity to worship God and to open our hearts to His healing love. Come, and bring others with you. Prayer teams will be available to pray for healing and other requests.

Intercessory Prayer Meeting/Vigil

Please join us for an Intercessory Prayer Meeting in the church at 7 p.m. on Friday, August 4. We will be praying for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit on our parish. The one-hour prayer meeting will include a short talk, prayer for baptism in the Holy Spirit, Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, and will conclude with a novena to the Holy Spirit, as we begin the Vigil. Benediction will be held at 7:30 a.m. on Saturday, August 5.

With prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit,

Father Steve

FORMATION COURSES at

COURSE 8 | ON HOPE

In the modern world, many are tempted to despair by the circumstances of life or eke out lives of quiet desolation. How can we retain our hope when everything around us seems to be dragging us down? This short formation course explores: the theological virtue of hope; despair and presumption, the two sins against hope; and how we can hold onto hope in adversity.
