Being Good Stewards

This weekend, we continue hearing parables about the end times and judgment in St. Matthew's Gospel. This week we hear the account of the parable of the talents. The Lord wants us not to waste, but to invest, ourselves and our gifts, so as to get a good return. This is unsurprising. I have a sense that most people get the fundamental truth that scripture tells us, namely that "to whom much is given, much is expected" (Luke 12:48). We have God-given gifts, among them life itself, which is precious. Time, Talent, and Treasure are the "three Ts" of stewardship, and we do well to honor God by investing our time, talents, and treasure so as to bear fruit that will remain. For over a decade now, we have prayed as a diocese and parish the following prayer: Let us pray that every person within the Catholic Diocese of Lansing will come to know and love our Lord Jesus Christ in a personal way, grow in maturity as a disciple of Christ, become actively engaged in the full life of the Church, and joyfully utilize his or her gifts for the building up the Kingdom of God and the salvation of souls. That prayer is really about being missionary-minded stewards of our gifts, with an eye to helping ourselves and others become disciples of Christ.

Blessed to Be a Blessing!

We are, all of us, blessed by God from gifts. I have said repeatedly that I long for all of us to be able to use the gifts that we've been given for the building up of the Kingdom of God and the salvation of souls. Many of you offer of your time, as well, in many diverse ways of serving the parish and our community. Thank you! Finally, our "treasure" is also what we can offer to support the work of ministry. Your generosity makes possible our ministry. And greater giving will, I believe, translate into greater ministry and greater evangelization and service that allow us to fulfill the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

Tithing Is Evidence of Thanksgiving and Obedience

It's always dangerous to talk about money, because pastors are often accused of doing so "all the time." Jesus, however, did so often, and does so today in the Gospel. St. Paul tells us that "the love of money is the root of all evil" (I Tim. 6:10). Note that it is the love of money rather than money itself. Indeed, all money is ultimately the Lord's. But we can see money as being our security, but that is false. Our hope is always (only) in Christ. That doesn't mean that we are not prudent to plan for the future and to save. But we are commanded by the Lord to give God the first, the "tithe" of our income, as a sign to us and to Him that we know that He is the source of all we have. As part of my homily this weekend, I quoted the powerful words (and promise) found in Malachi Chapter 3, which makes clear the importance of giving God what is due Him. God speaks through Malachi, and has, as it were, a conversation with reluctant givers. I hope that this is primarily an encouragement to you, but it might also be a needed prod to consider your giving, even as it challenges me to do the same.

Malachi 3:8 Can anyone rob God? But you are robbing me! And you say, "How have we robbed you?" Of tithes and contributions! 9 You are indeed accursed, for you, the whole nation, rob me. 10 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, That there may be food in my house. Put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, and see if I do not open the floodgates of heaven for you, and pour down upon you blessing without measure! 11 I will rebuke the locust for you so that it will not destroy your crops, and the vine in the field will not be barren, says the LORD of hosts. 12 All the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land, says the LORD of hosts.

Given the challenges we are all dealing with in terms of inflation, it may seem impossible to increase our giving, but I am convinced that the Lord is asking me to do so and, as we draw to the end of the liturgical year, to invite you to stretch and to make an intentional decision about how much you are going to give to God each week/month/year. Some of you are giving a tithe of your income (splitting between various causes), and I thank you. Your generosity makes the ministry here possible. Thank you! With more giving, we would be able to expand our outreach, to support families and those in need more effectively. Let's please pray for wisdom as we consider how the Lord might be inviting us to increase our giving, as well as our service to the parish and to the Lord. We just did our "October Counts," and for the five weekends in October, we had an average of 160 envelopes or electronic gifts per week. We have about 600 families that on our parishioner roles, so I think that it's likely that many who are parishioners are giving minimal amounts. Some of those 440 are putting cash in the basket, but I would be surprised if those gifts amount, over time, to much more than a percent or so of annual income. Even so, we do well to remember the parable of the widow's mite, which Jesus praised because she gave out of her need, whereas other give out of their surplus. The Lord loves a cheerful, sacrificial giver. Come, Holy Spirit!

Thanksgiving

Eucharist means "thanksgiving," and we especially pause this week to say "thank you" to God. This week, families across our Land will celebrate God's gracious gifts to us. I continue to pour out my heart of thanks for all God has given me by sending me to the Church of the Resurrection. I am grateful for your prayerful support, your financial support of the parish and school, and your generosity in service. My prayer for you is that you will experience the delight that our God takes in you as you pour out your thanks to Him. May your time of celebration be filled with love, joy, and peace. We will have Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 8:15 a.m. Join us if you're able. Please note that we will not have exposition on Friday after Thanksgiving, just in case we are not able to guarantee we have sufficient adorers. We will have the church open, and there will be a Holy Hour and confessions from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

With gratitude for all God's gifts to us,

Warrior to Lourdes, an annual military pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes, has been co-sponsored by the U.S. Military archdiocese and the Knights of Columbus since 2014. It is timed to coincide with the annual International Resurrection St. Vincent DePaul continues to serve our neighbors.

Our fiscal year ended September 2023 and within that timeframe we helped 1836 families; 1178 adults and 658 children.

We help people with variety of ways. One major way that we assist our neighbors is providing them with food. Much of our food is purchased from the Greater Lansing Food Bank at a cost of $800-$1000 per month.

Another source of food comes from the Meijer Simply Give program. This program is funded by donations from our parishioners.

The Lake Lansing Meijer gives us a time frame, this year it is October 1 through December 30th in which people can purchase a $10 donation card (or more...in increments of $10) at the store in the check-out lane. Meijer matches each donation, so a $10 donation becomes $20..etc. Meijer will DOUBLE MATCH on ONE day during the campaign...this year it's SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16th. We are encouraging cash donations be given directly to St. Vincent...then we will take donated funds to the store on the DOUBLE match day.

If you would like to make a donation, please put it in a separate envelope marked St. Vincent and place in the collection basket or drop it off at the office.

Your help allows us to be the helping hands of Jesus and to try to spread His love in this broken world in which we live.
