PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Deanery Mission (March 3-5)

This Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday evenings, Dr. Mary Healy will give our Deanery Mission, which focuses on the Holy Spirit. It begins at 6:30 p.m. tonight (Sunday, March 3) at St. Thomas Aquinas church. The title of the Mission is "The Holy Spirit: The Presence, the Power, and the Promise." Each evening will include opportunity for some praise and worship, confession, and prayer ministry. Join us, if you're able, and invite others to join you. Come, Holy Spirit!

Men's Morning of Reflection (March 9)

Men and boys (middle school and up) are invited to our Lenten Morning of Reflection in Mercy Hall. The title is, Fathers and Brothers in the Spiritual Battle. I will be offering two talks, followed by discussion questions at tables. The first talk, "Fathers and Faith," addresses the indispensable role fathers play in forming their children as disciples and protecting them spiritually. The second talk, "Becoming a Band of Brothers," explores how good friends help us survive the spiritual battle. Our morning will conclude with Exposition in the church at 11:30, where confession will also be made available. Benediction will be at 12:30 for all those wishing to stay until that time. Please register on the website.

Diocesan Services Appeal

Thank you to all who have already made their pledge to the 2024 Diocesan Services Appeal. This year our goal is a bit more than $117,000. As I have said in past years, I am hopeful that some of us who are able to give generously will do so, to help us make goal. I would love, in order to show support for Bishop Boyea and his great staff, to have a very high percentage of families/households donate, even if the amount of the gift is not very large. The fact of our giving donations, even if the amounts vary, is a sign of our support. Please prayerfully discern your gift. You can fill out the form online or drop the envelope in the offertory. Thank you!

St. Ignatius and Spiritual Discernment

Last Sunday, I quoted from Rules for Discernment of Spirits from the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, to highlight how the Church has long reflected on the ways that spirits (our own, God's Spirit, and evil spirits) operate in our daily lives. Some of you asked me to include these notes, so I'm sharing them here. The first six rules (of fourteen) are divided into pairs. St. Ignatius says of them the following: Rules for becoming aware and understanding to some extent the different movements which are caused in the soul, the good, to receive them, and the bad to reject them. And these rules are more proper for the first week.

Two Fundamental Directions in Life (Rules 1 & 2)

The first Rule: in persons who go from mortal sin to mortal sin, the enemy is ordinarily accustomed to propose apparent pleasures to them, leading them to imagine sensual delights and pleasures in order to hold them more and make them grow in their vices and sins. In these persons the good spirit uses a contrary method, stinging and biting their consciences through their rational power of moral judgment.

The second: in persons who are going on intensely purifying their sins and rising from good to better in the service of God our Lord, the method is contrary to that in the first Rule. For then it is proper to the evil spirit to bite, sadden and place obstacles, disquieting with false reasons, so that the person may not go forward. And it is proper to the good spirit to give courage and strength, consolations, tears, inspirations and quiet, easing and taking away all obstacles, so that the person may go forward in doing good.

Two Fundamental Movements in the Spiritual Life (Rules 3 & 4)

The third is of spiritual consolation. I call it consolation when some interior movement is caused in the soul, through which the soul comes to be inflamed with love of its Creator and Lord; and consequently when it can love no created thing on the face of the earth in itself, but only in the Creator of them all . . . . I call consolation every increase of hope, faith and charity, and all interior joy that calls and attracts to heavenly things and to the salvation of one's soul, quieting it and giving it peace in its Creator and Lord. The fourth is of spiritual desolation. I call desolation all the contrary of the third rule, such as darkness of soul, disturbance in it, movement to low and earthly things, disquiet from various agitations and temptations, moving to lack of confidence, without hope, without love, finding oneself totally slothful, tepid, sad, and as if separated from one's Creator and Lord . . . .

Rules for what to do (and not to do) in times of spiritual desolation (Rules 5-6):

The fifth: in time of desolation never make a change, but be firm and constant in the proposals and determination in which one was the day preceding such desolation, or in the determination in which one was in the preceding consolation. Because, as in consolation the good spirit guides and counsels us more, so in desolation the bad spirit, with whose counsels we cannot find the way to a right decision. The sixth: although in desolation we should not change our first proposals, it is very advantageous to change ourselves intensely against the desolation itself, as by insisting more on prayer, meditation, upon much examination, and upon extending ourselves in some suitable way of doing penance.

Church Renovation Update

Pending some final steps, the renovation of the church will proceed as planned shortly after Easter. The Diocesan Finance Council and College of Consultors have approved the expenditure for the project, and we are excited to be able to proceed with this after so many years. Thank you for your patience and your generosity.

With gratitude,

Father Steve

Lansing Catholic will be hosting a talk on mental health

Jim Owens and Dr. Felipe Lopez-Sustaita present "Do this an you will (TRULY) Live" Tuesday, March 5 at 6:30pm - LCHS Auditorium

When Jesus was asked what was most important in life, he preached what is known as The Great Commandment, summarized here as Love God, Love Neighbor, and Love Self - with everything you've got. As mental health practitioners, Jim Owens, clinical mental health counselor, and Dr. Felipe Lopez-Sustaita, Clinical Master Social Worker and Dean of Support Services at Lansing Community College, will explain why these three relationships are foundational for mental health, and pursuing a meaningful life. They will share practical wisdom and strategies rooted in faith and psychology that will inspire, educate, and equip participants to better love themselves, their neighbor, and our God.

Your Home is a Domestic Church

March 6, 2024 at 6:00 p.m.
St. Joseph Catholic Church, 109 Linden St, St Johns

This presentation is for all parishioners to learn how our homes and families are a domestic church. Also learn how to transfer the faith to your children and grandchildren.

Our guest presenter will be Rich Budd, Director of Marriage and Family Life for the Diocese of Lansing.

“The Offering of the Just Enriches the Altar.” This scripture from the book of Sirach is a call to unite our prayers, good works, and blessings more deeply with the sacrifice of the altar in the Holy Eucharist.

Our Diocesan Services Appeal is one such opportunity to offer up our many blessings to God and unite them with Jesus’s sacrifice on the altar. And to give thanks for the work of the Church in our own lives and in lives across our diocese.

This weekend our parish will conduct Commitment Weekend for our Diocesan Services Appeal. This is when we will be asking each member of Resurrection Parish to consider a generous gift to DSA. Our parish goal of $117,184 can be reached if each one of us shares a portion of the many blessings God has bestowed upon us. Please prayerfully consider how you or your family will respond to this call to carry on Christ’s work in our community.

Altar Society Announcements

Altar Society Board has a meeting on Wednesday, March 6 at 7 PM in the meeting room at the Church office building. Anyone is welcome attend our meetings although we ask those not on the Board reserve comments unless recognized.

Looking of officers for the Altar Society Board for the upcoming year. As a Board we meet 9 times during the year for about 1 - 1 1/2 hours. If you have any interest in learning more about the Altar Society or officer positions, contact Joyce Richardson at 517-614-4902. We would love to have you join us in serving our church.

Seeking Donated Items - The Altar Society is having the Annual Indoor Rummage Sale on Saturday, April 6. We sell the things donated by all of you, so be thinking of what items you may donate to the sale. Donations will be received on Friday, April 5. Keep you eyes on the bulletin for more information.
