PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:
Located in the heart of the City of Lansing, the Church of the Resurrection exists to help everyone in our parish family live in the light and hope of the Resurrection. Encouraged by our experience of God's love, we help others come to know and love Jesus in a personal way. Guided by God's truth, we offer answers to life's real challenges. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we help each other become mature disciples of Christ who will utilize our gifts to spread the Good News of Jesus in word and deed.

Parish Picnic

This coming Saturday, August 17, our Knights of Columbus Council will be hosting a parish picnic at Patriarch Park in East Lansing. It will run from 11:00 to 3:00 p.m. No need to RSVP. The Knights will grill burgers & hot dogs, and will have plates and utensils. Please bring a dish to pass. Join us!

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Thursday, August 15, is a Solemnity and Holy Day of Obligation. We will have a Vigil Mass at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and two Masses on Thursday, our usual one at 8:15 a.m. and another Mass at Noon. May we see in our Blessed Mother's Assumption our own promise of resurrection and life with God. Amen!

The Gift of the Priesthood

We are in the midst of the Bread of Life discourse from John's Gospel, and it is a great grace to be a priest of Jesus Christ. Each summer, the bishop invites those men who may be interested in becoming priests to gather with him, and the seminarians from our diocese, to a BBQ at St. Francis Retreat Center/Bethany House. Whenever I think about the priesthood, this quote from St. John Vianney comes to mind. This is from his Catechism on the Priesthood: Saint Bernard tells us that everything has come to us through Mary; and we may also say that everything has come to us through the priest; yes, all happiness, all graces, all heavenly gifts. If we had not the Sacrament of Orders, we should not have Our Lord. Who placed Him there, in that tabernacle? It was the priest. Who was it that received your soul, on its entrance into life? The priest. Who nourishes it, to give it strength to make its pilgrimage? The priest. Who will prepare it to appear before God, by washing that soul, for the last time, in the blood of Jesus Christ? The priest—always the priest. And if that soul comes to the point of death, who will raise it up, who will restore it to calmness and peace? Again the priest. You cannot recall one single blessing from God without finding, side by side with this recollection, the image of the priest.

None of us priests is worthy of the call, but are graced and blessed to be a blessing. As I serve year after year, I realize how blessed I am to be a priest, and to offer the sacrament, encouragement, and words of help and healing to those who are in need of healing. Please pray for me. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

Vocations Are a Gift from God

I'm grateful for the men and women who have heard the call from God here at the Church of the Resurrection in the past. Their call has been heard because of what God has done in their hearts in and through our parish, and most especially within families where vocations are honored and discussed. We are grateful for the continuing process of discernment that Thomas Crowley, Mason Abbott, and Charlie Gates have been part of from our parish. Thomas will be entering his second year of theology at the North American College in Rome, and Mason will begin his major seminary studies at Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit. Charlie will enter his second year of college seminary at St. John Vianney in St. Paul, MN. I'm glad to be able to report that Joseph Crowley, Thomas's older brother, is entering formation this week with the Holy Cross Fathers in South Bend. Please pray for these four men and for all those men whom the Lord is calling to the process of discernment. The Lord loves an open heart, and I think it's valuable to remind everyone that attending seminary doesn't, of course, mean more than that one is pursuing/continuing one's discernment. For those who are ordained, the Lord's call becomes clearer over time, and is ratified interiorly and by the Church. A very low pressure opportunity is coming up for those who are curious about what it might mean to take a further step in discerning a call to the priesthood.

BBQ with Bishop Boyea and Seminarians

If you are open to come and see what a next step of discernment might entail, please consider joining me, my brother priests, and Bishop Boyea next Sunday, August 18. Beginning at 4:00 p.m. at Bethany House in DeWitt, there will be a BBQ and time for fellowship and prayer for those young men (and even those not so young) who are curious about seminary and/or feel a call from the Lord to give their lives in service to the Lord. If you are a junior in high school or older who has wondered if God might be inviting you to consider the priesthood, please call me, email me, or talk to me after Mass. And let me thank families in advance for their support of sons and brothers who discern the priesthood, and daughters and sisters who discern the religious life.

If you have questions, please contact me. Or you can go to the diocesan website and RSVP on the diocesan website: (<https://lansingpriest.org/opportunities/>).

With gratitude for Mary's Assumption,

Fr. Steve

Resurrection School Auction

Mark your calendars! The Resurrection School Auction will be held on Saturday, November 9th, at 6:00pm in Mercy Hall. This is a fundraiser to benefit our school, whose mission is to provide a nurturing Catholic environment for students. Please consider picking up donation items during your summer travels. Donations must be new, but no item is too small! For questions, call or email Heather Stowe-Fox at (517) 526-1393 or heatherstowefox@gmail.com.

Ox Roast News

Save the date

The Church of the Resurrection's 89th Annual Ox Roast will be held October 11 and 12, 2024. This event has been moved to October this year due to the renovations in the church.

Miscellaneous Raffle

We are looking for donated items for the Miscellaneous Raffle. Those items could include electronics, kitchen appliances, household items, outdoor items, children toys/games, gift cards, etc.

The items must be new with a minimum value $25, please.

Donated items may be dropped off at the parish office, or contact Don Gardner at 517 648-3218, or Cindi Currie at 517 485- 5886.

All items must be dropped off by Thursday, October 3rd.

Attention Bakers

It is early, but please set an intention to contribute a homemade baked good to the Bake Sale at the Ox Roast Festival in October. A well stocked table is more fun for the guests! More details to follow as time gets closer. Also, if you would like to volunteer to work the table, please contact Kathleen Sears at 989-640-2314.

Update on Parish Cookout:

On Saturday August 17th the Resurrection Knights of Columbus, along with the Parish, will have a Parish Cookout at Patriarche Park in East Lansing. We have rented the entire pavilion for the day so you will be in the shade. The Knights will be supplying the hamburgers, hotdogs, buns and lemonade along with the plates and eating utensils.

We will be serving from 11:00am until 3:00pm. Parish members are asked to bring a dish to pass. Please plan on attending to enjoy the fellowship.

Hope to see you there.

Bishop's Discernment Talk & Dinner

Bishop Boyea invites any man, who is entering his junior year of High School or older, to this discernment opportunity. There will be a Q & A session and a chance to meet the Priests and seminarians of the Lansing Diocese.

Mass Intentions

If you are interested in scheduling a Mass Intention this summer, please call 517-482-4749, email smichaels@corlansing.org, or stop by the parish office. We have many openings in July and August. The $10 stipend per Mass can be paid by cash or check.

A Lecture Series on Catholic Social Teaching: Catholic Participation in a Divided America

Join us for a FREE series of ten lectures, sponsored by the Diocese of Lansing and hosted by Immaculate Heart of Mary Church. The lectures will take place over the course of the 2024-2025 school year, and will address the foundations of Catholic Social Teaching.

Topics include: What is catholic social teaching?; understanding our intrinsically social nature; the principles of solidarity, subsidiarity, and the common good; and moving beyond partisan politics. Our speaker is Jeremy Dowsett, a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Dayton, who holds a Masters of Divinity from Western Theological Seminary.

Lectures begin on Tuesday, September 17th, at 7:00pm in the hall of St. Casimir, 815 Sparrow Ave.

Do you want to dive deeper into Catholic Social Teaching? Sign up to be in the scholar track for a small fee of $25, which will include materials for a more in depth journey. Only 12 spots available so contact Jeremy at dowsettj@ihmlansing.org today!

August 27 - Back to School Parent Meeting in Mercy Hall from 6:30pm-8:00pm

Books for our School

Resurrection School is adding more classic literature into the curriculum. We want to continue to cultivate moral imagination and the capacity that our students have for truth, goodness and beauty. We have been purchasing books this summer to add to the curriculum and classroom libraries.

Please consider donating to build our school and classroom libraries by donating a classic book set. Scan the QR code to view the book wish lists and to make a donation. You can also email Cristin Luea for information about our classic library or to make a donation at cluea@corlansing.org. Thank you so much for your generosity and support for our school!
