The Baptism of the Lord

This weekend, the Church recalls a third theophany—or manifestation of God. The first theophany, of course, was the Nativity. The second was the Epiphany, which we celebrated last week. This is the third, when Jesus was baptized. Here is the account from St. Luke: The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” God the Father spoke from heaven, along with the Spirit descending upon Him, like a dove.

The Dignity of the Baptized

Through our own baptism, we are brought into this same mystery of the Godhead. We are plunged into the death and resurrection of Christ through our baptism. In Christ, we are invited to hear the Father say, “You are my beloved son (daughter); with you I am well pleased.” It may be difficult for us to believe that we please the Father, but our life is now in Christ. Indeed, we the baptized have received the Holy Spirit, and we too have been anointed “priest, prophet, and king,” just as Jesus was. We are Christians, which translates “anointed ones.”

Thank you!

I could easily offer a long list of “thank yous” each week in my bulletin because of all the wonderful things that so many of you are doing week-in and week-out for our parish, school, and community. First of all, thank you for all the generous gifts that people gave to me and the parish and school staff this Christmas. Your kind words and thoughtful gifts encourage us. Thank you. All the many gifts are part of the legacy of “family” and “service” that have marked the Church of the Resurrection for over a century, and Resurrection School for nearly a century. Everything the Lord has done in and through our parish has been made possible by the generous investment of time, talent, and treasure from parishioners like you. In particular, I am grateful for the donations of time, talent, and treasure that have made possible the improvements and renovations to our church. Thank you!

John Paul II Healing Center Retreat

I am heading out today (Sunday) to serve as lead chaplain of the John Paul II Healing Center priest’s retreat entitled “Holy Desire.” If you would be so kind, please pray for the priests and for me, and for the John Paul II Healing Center staff, that the men who are coming on retreat will experience the healing touch of the Lord’s love. Come, Holy Spirit!

Altar, Ambo, and Altar of Repose Installation

This weekend, you should (I pray) see the new altar and altar of repose completed and set in their places. I can’t (but must) wait to use the new altar of sacrifice until after Bishop Boyea dedicates it (that is, sets it apart as holy, for purposes of the holiest of sacrifices) on January 25. We will have to make do without it until the dedication. Since the contractors still need to install the ambo, daily Masses after Monday will be canceled again this week. We will have Saturday morning Mass on the 18th, as usual. Because I am going to be away at the retreat, I have canceled Thursday and Friday Morning confessions, since there will be no Mass afterward. Confessions will be heard in the reconciliation room in the vestibule of the church Wednesday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. and Friday from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Please pray for the contractors as they install the marble. Thanks!

Upcoming Event: Trivia Night

Saturday, January 25 beginning at 7:00 p.m., adults of the parish are invited to a Trivia Night. The event will be held in Mercy Hall. There will be a good mix of topics from movies to saints to geography. We will have prizes, snacks and drinks will be provided, and onsite child-care will be available. This is one of our Resurrection Life events, and we hope to have a good turnout, and invite you to come and bring your friends. Please go to the website or use the QR code in this bulletin to register.

Upcoming Event: Building a Eucharistic Marriage Course

I’m very grateful to be able to offer a seven week “marriage course” beginning February 20th. (The week of Spring Break will be an “off” week.) The course will run from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and include dinner, a video, and sharing by couples at their own tables (no group sharing). It will be held in Mercy Hall. Because of the set up we have to limit attendance to twenty-five couples. You can register using the QR code in the bulletin or by going to the website. (Onsite child care will be provided.) Thanks to Maureen Budd and her team for organizing and planning these events. Keep an eye out for future upcoming events, as well. And please pray for success of these opportunities. Thanks!

With gratitude for the Dignity of the Baptized,

Father Steve
