Happy Epiphany!

Our celebration of the Magi coming to see the newborn King should also remind us of our own need to come before the Lord to offer homage and praise. We each come before the Lord with the many gifts God has bestowed upon us. We might not have gold, frankincense and myrrh, but we have faith, a free will, and the love of God. We might also have a sense of humor, intelligence, compassion, a listening ear and heart, insight, wisdom, physical skills, athletic skills, musical ability, etc., etc., etc.. We all have many God given gifts that we first must offer thanks to God and then use in the service of others for the sake and good of others.

There is a custom of blessing homes on this day or during this week. Over your door frame, in chalk, you would put 20 + C + M + B + 18. This is the new year we are in with the first initials of the three traditional names of the three kings, Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar.

I pray that during this year we will continue to grow in our love of all people as sisters and brothers in the Lord. May this year bring all of us closer to the Lord and to each other. There are so many gifts from God that still need to be discovered and used for the sake of the Kingdom of God. May the Light of Christ continue to shine bright in the hearts of all Our Lady Star of the Sea Parishioners as we journey together to the Kingdom.

 Monday we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, Usually this is celebrated on Sunday, but with Christmas, New Year's and Epiphany on Sundays, the Baptism gets transferred to Monday, bringing to a close the Christmas Season.

 Monday night we will have an hour to exactly offer our homage and praise to the Lord! At 7:30 pm in the church we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament concluding with Benediction. What a nice way to bring to a close the Christmas season and simply be with this gift we have received from God, the Lord Jesus himself! Why not join us?

 We look forward to an exciting year indeed. There will be numerous programs and activities for everyone to grow in their faith. Keep watching this paper for more information.

 May the Peace and Love of the Holy Family and the wonder and awe of the Three Kings be yours!

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Catholics have been around a LONG time, so they've had a lot of years to think about things... to develop habits and practices and to come up with certain ways of doing things. And unlike Protestant churches, which split and break pretty regularly, Catholic Churches don't really. Many of the practices that made sense to the Old Testament Jews, the first century Christians, people today, and everyone in between—Well, they're still around today.

So if you've ever wondered "Why do Catholics do all the weird things they do" — you're not alone. Many lifelong Catholics don't know either. Here are a few explanations of why we Catholics do what we do.

Why Do Catholics Pray to Mary and the Saints?

Have you ever asked a friend or family member to pray for you? Or asked them to help you out with something you were struggling with spiritually? Catholics do the same thing when they pray to Mary or a Saint. While Protestants typically believe Mary and the Saints aren't in Heaven yet or are in Heaven but just can't hear us down here on Earth, Catholics believe Mary and some saints are already in Heaven and can hear us.

Catholics still pray to God and Jesus — same as Protestants do. And they still ask their friends and family to pray for them when they are struggling — same as Protestants do. They simply ask Christians who have gone before to pray for them too.

Why Do Catholics Use Holy Water?

Similar to how the Old Testament Jewish people used to purify themselves with water before they entered in to worship, Catholics will make the sign of the cross with Holy Water as they enter a church. (We use it for blessing things and baptisms as well.)

Holy Water is meant to accomplish three purposes: to signify the believer's repentance from sin, to be a reminder of their baptism, and to help protect them from evil.

Why Do Catholics Genuflect When Entering and Exiting a Pew?

For the same reason that people centuries ago would have bowed briefly when going in front of a king: to show respect. And who deserves respect more than the true King of Kings, who is present in the church?

Why do Catholics Use Crucifixes?

Crucifixes, like statues and stained glass windows, are used by the Catholic Church to help tell the story of Jesus. Catholic churches use crucifixes instead of empty crosses because it helps bring the message home in a deeper way and because the cross is meaningless without Christ's death on it. Catholics do realize, of course, that Christ didn't stay there.

The Catholic Church requires a crucifix to be visible during Mass. You can also find them in Catholic homes, hospitals and schools, for example.

The Feast of the Epiphany

On this Feast of the Epiphany, we hear the story of the Wise Men who followed a star that led them to Jesus, the newborn king. Wouldn't it be wonderful if a bright star could lead US to Jesus? Well, there is! The Holy Spirit, living and active in our hearts, can help lead us if we only open ourselves to hear him. He can show you God's love more deeply, give you guidance, or console you in a time of need. Try listening to the Spirit today. One way to do that is to take one of the readings from Mass and read it slowly and prayerfully. See if something from the passage speaks to you. If it's an encouraging thought, it may be the Holy Spirit!

Just as the Magi left their home/"comfort zone" to seek Jesus, the Holy Spirit can help lead you to all the good that God wants for you.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

In homilies and reflections on The Epiphany of Our Lord, Pope Francis uses the symbol of light in various ways.

There is the light of the star guiding the Magi to the newborn King Jesus who is the Light of the world. He said "The star appearing in the sky kindled in their minds and in their hearts a light that moved them to seek the great Light of Christ."

The Magi were among the first to encounter Jesus. They offered Him some of their most valuable possessions and "they entered into a personal communion of love with Jesus" (Pope Francis).

We are a lot like the Magi. The needs back then compared with now haven't really changed. We are still searching and longing for peace in our lives.

Pope Francis warns us that there are many different lights attracting us to do various things or spend time in particular ways.

Some are wonderful, but fleeting; and others are good, but not really satisfying in the long term. So, we keep looking and longing.

What is the answer? Encountering Jesus. Entering into our own "personal communion" with Him.

"The Magi, instead, invite us to follow a steady light, a gentle light that does not wane, because it is not of this world...This true light is the light of the Lord, or rather, it is the Lord himself. He is our light: a light that does not dazzle, but accompanies and bestows a unique joy. This light is for everyone and it calls each one of us." (Pope Francis)

May this new year be a time when we fully recognize the true Light that enlightens everyone has come and He is here with us every day.

One in the Spirit,

Jean Wersching

CSA—Youth Ministry

The Archdiocese of Detroit is inviting the "Young Church" to the 2018 Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service, to take place from Detroit's Sacred Heart Parish next Saturday, January 13.

The service day will begin at 9 a.m. and conclude with a prayer service and rally at 2:45 p.m. Participants will receive lunch and a T-shirt.

Your gifts to the CSA make possible events like this, which keep our youth engaged and active in their faith. Youth ministry is coordinated through the Department of Evangelization, Catechesis and Schools, along with young adult and campus ministry.

For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, please go to aod.org.
