(This came across "the wires" last Sunday from the Vatican. Given our mission statement, remembering how Mary brings us to save harbor, I thought it was a good thing to share!)

At Mass in the Basilica of St. Mary Major on Sunday, Pope Francis said that when we go through difficult times or have problems or worries, Mary is our shield, guarding our faith and protecting us from evil.

"Where the Madonna is at home the devil does not enter; where there is the Mother, disturbance does not prevail, fear does not win," the pope said Jan. 28.

"Who of us does not need this, who of us is not sometimes upset or restless? How often the heart is a stormy sea, where the waves of problems overlap, and the winds of worry do not cease to blow! Mary is the sure ark in the midst of the flood."

Francis celebrated a special Mass at the Basilica of St. Mary Major for the Feast of the transfer of the icon of Salus Populi Romani.

Salus Populi Romani (Protectress of the Roman People) is the title of an ancient Byzantine icon of Mary and the Child Jesus, traditionally held to be painted by St. Luke the Evangelist and to have arrived in Rome in the 6th century.

It was first canonically crowned in 1838 by Pope Gregory XVI and a second time in 1954 by Pope Pius XII. It has a long history of devotion by the Roman people, as well as by popes. It resides in the Pauline, also called Borghese, Chapel in St. Mary Major.

Francis has a special devotion to the image. His first visit as pontiff was to the Basilica of St. Mary Major to pray before the image following his election.

The image has been undergoing extensive restoration in the Vatican Museums, and the Mass also served as the image's official unveiling following the work.

In his homily, Francis said that it is "a great danger to faith, to live without a mother, without protection, letting ourselves be carried away by life as leaves by the wind."

Just like persecuted people once took refuge under the cloak of the noble, high-ranking women of their village, in "turbulent moments" we must take shelter under the mantle of Mary, "the highest woman of mankind," for our own protection.

"Her coat is always open to welcome us and gather us," he said. "The Mother guards faith, protects relationships, saves in bad weather and preserves from evil."

As Christians, we cannot be neutral or detached from our Mother, he continued. "Because without a Mother we cannot be children. And we are, first of all, children, beloved children, who have God for a Father and the Madonna for a Mother."

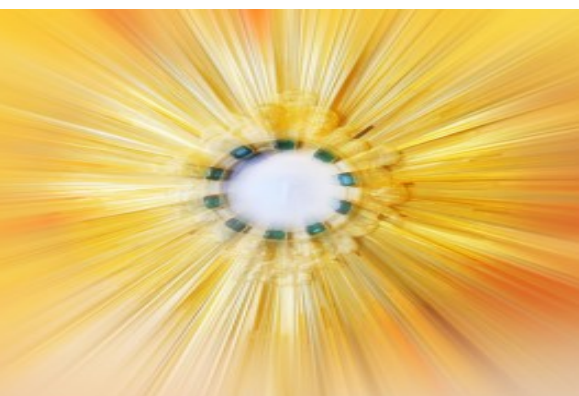

To illustrate his point, Francis recalled a story of a woman who sat beside the bed of her son in the hospital. He was in pain after an accident, and the mother remained by his bed day and night.

Once she complained to a visiting priest that God never allowed one thing to a mother, which is to suffer in place of her child.

"Here is the mother's heart," the pope said. "She is not ashamed of the wounds, of the weaknesses of her children, but she wants (to take) them on herself."

And this is how it happens every time, he said. Whether we lack hope, or joy, or our strength is exhausted; whatever our problem, our Mother intervenes.

"And she never, never despises our prayers; she does not let even one fall. She is a Mother, she is never ashamed of us, she only waits to be able to help her children."

"Let's make the Mother the guest of our daily life, the constant presence in our home, our safe haven," he concluded. "Let's entrust (ourselves) to her every day. Let's invoke her in every turbulence. And let's not forget to come back to her to thank her."

 Please join us Monday night for some time with the Lord during our monthly Holy Hour beginning at 7:30 am in church.

 Saturday is our big Auction. Open to all parishioners, held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, it is always a showcase event for our parish, A time to celebrate the brightness of Star of the Sea, especially our school of excellence. You can find all the information you need by going to the auction website...www.olsos-auction.org. Hope to see you there for a terrific night!

Have a blessed week in the Lord's grace and peace.

Holy Week and Easter Choir

Are you interested in singing, but unable to commit to choir rehearsals throughout the whole year? Singers are welcome to join the choir for this year's Holy Week and Easter Masses. This includes only five Wednesday evening rehearsals beginning on February 21 at 7pm. The other rehearsals are March 7, 14, 21, and 28.

Singers will participate in the 11:30am Palm Sunday, 7pm Holy Thursday, 8:30pm Easter Vigil, and 11:30am Easter Day Masses. Those unable to sing for all the Masses are still welcome to participate in those they can attend. Please consider joining our growing music ministry in the prayer, fun, and music-making during this holy season.

Singers high school age and older are invited to join and no previous singing experience is required.

Contact Matthew Jakubisin (m.jakubisin@stargp.org) for more information or stop by the piano after any Mass.

FORMING OUR FAITH

At the 9:30 am Mass this week, our First Communicants will be participating in the Rite of Enrollment. This rite is modeled after the Rite of Christian Initiation Enrollment in which the candidate makes a formal commitment to study and be prepared to become full members of the Catholic Church. First Eucharist is the 2nd of the three Sacraments of Initiation, the first - Baptism, the third - Confirmation. Our Confirmation candidates participated in their Rite of Enrollment in November.

This weekend is our "Adopt a Candidate Weekend". We have cards with the candidates names on them and a short prayer on either a chalice for our First Communicants or doves for our Confirmation candidates and adults entering the Church. We are asking you to take a few moments to take one or more of the cards and for your prayers to support them on their faith journey.

Thank you!!

Sharing about Jesus at Home

Why is GRATITUDE important?

Scripture: Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

Quote: It is not happy people who are thankful. It is thankful people who are happy.

Here are a few ways to discuss this topic with your children and others . . .

Have you ever done a kindness and the person did not even say "thank you?" What happened?? How does God feel when most everything he does for us goes without our saying "thank you?" Think of simple things you can do for him.

Sometimes we just don't "feel" thankful. Should we give thanks anyway? Some people say our thanks means more to God under those circumstances. Why would that be?

Gratitude:
feeling thankful for blessings in your life, big and small.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

Many self-improvement or self-help ideas are put forth not only at the beginning of a new year, but throughout the year, as well. They come in many, many topics.

If you want to know what you could do in the area of Catholic evangelization, there's help out there for that, too! It's just not nearly as widely covered in the media. However, there is a definite presence for the topic on the Internet.

Whether they're called tips, keys, ways, or lists, Catholic evangelization ideas can be found. Their source may be a diocese, media/communications group, or other organization. Their length might be a few items or dozens of them.

In reviewing a few of them that came up in my search, I found some very familiar themes and suggestions.

The first group consists of what the evangelizer does personally on a regular basis, some of them daily.

- Engaging in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ
- Reading scripture and reflecting on it
- Nurturing a strong prayer life
- Frequently attending Mass and receiving the Sacraments

The next group deals with the evangelizer reaching out.

- Being inviting and welcoming
- Establishing good relationships
- Sharing your faith story
- Volunteering and performing charitable works

These are what I would call the basics. Other ideas are more specific, such as particular outreach projects or recommended techniques to use when talking with someone.

"We need to continuously evangelize ourselves and continue to grow. "

Another term for acquiring and developing these basic practices is called "evangelizing the evangelizer" or "evangelizing ourselves".

This is essential since we cannot give to others what we do not have ourselves.

It is not a "once and done" type of thing, either. We need to continuously evangelize ourselves and continue to grow. Otherwise, we'll become stagnant.

Attention to the basics is always important.

It doesn't take a flip of the calendar or a new Liturgical season for us to reset our goals, but that always helps.

One in the Spirit,
Jean Wersching

USCCB Word of Life What Can I do?

The Bible commands us to help "the least of these, my brothers and sisters..." Matthew 25:45.

In our culture of death, no doubt the "least of these our brothers and sisters" are the defenseless, innocent children in the womb who are so incredibly vulnerable. So, here are some ideas of what we can do to make a real difference:

- ♦ Join or Support the Respect Life Committee in our Parish
- ♦ Start or Support a Gabriel Project in Your Parish
- ♦ Meet with and write to your Legislators as a Constituent, Communicating the Catholic Church Position on Life Issues
- ♦ Support Local Pregnancy Centers by donating Your Time, Talents, and Treasure
- ♦ Tell Others about Project Rachel, a Post-Abortion Reconciliation/Counseling Program (Toll Free 888-456-4673)
- ♦ Pray for Those Who Have Been Involved in an Abortion
- ♦ Pray for the life of all, particularly giving witness outside our local abortion clinics

"From the first moment of existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person—among which is the inviolable right of every innocent human being to life."

National Collections

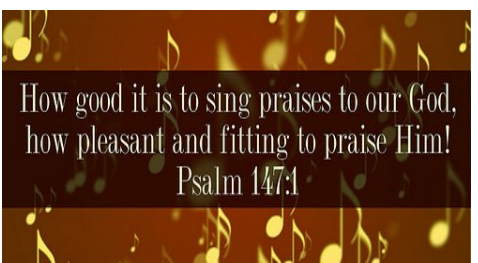

A number of national collections are included in the Catholic Services Appeal each year, such as the Black and Indian Mission Collection — the first-ever special collection that the U.S. bishops established in 1884 to embody the Church's concern for evangelizing U.S. Black and Indian people.

The Black and Indian Mission Collection provides grants to dioceses to operate schools, parishes, and other missionary services that build the Body of Christ in African American, American Indian, and Alaska Native communities. You can learn more about this important collection at www.blackandindianmission.org.

Other national collections benefiting from your gifts to the Catholic Services

Appeal include those for the Catholic University of America, the Church in Latin America, Catholic Home Missions, the Holy Land and the Catholic Communication Campaign.
