I have to admit the past two weeks have been rather extraordinary. We are still feeling the wonderful effects of Fr. Steven Bell and his preaching not only during the weekend Masses but through out our parish mission, Feb. 24-26. It is obvious he spoke to the heart of so many people at the weekend Masses and also during the mission. First, I believe this happened because we were praying to the Holy Spirit to stir our hearts as well as for Fr. Bell, who was praying for us. Second, he was speaking about the place where many people are today dealing with their own struggles in life, i.e, excess baggage we carry around, deep seated anger almost about everything, not willing to forgive others, and of course feeling a separation from our God who loves us so much and is always there for us. He helped us to rethink how we have strayed from our connection with God and hopefully reawakened our understanding that we are a full, beautiful, intentional, gifted, purposed, creation of God! We need to be true to our identity as these beloved children of God. And remember..."Be who you is, and not who you ain't. 'Cuz if you ain't who you is, then you is who you ain't! And, that ain't good!"

I would still like your memorable moments of the mission from those who participated in the mission. Let me know what two or three messages are still with you. Please share with me a short story how you find God in your life. (These stories help others to see our loving God in their lives as well.) If we were to get him back for an evening, what would you like to hear him talk about? Just drop me a note in the collection, through email (msgr.smetanka@stargp.org) or an old fashioned letter through the US post office! I'd very much appreciate that!

Last Saturday night, we had a super wonderful Auction at the Country Club of Detroit. Mrs. Danielle Brousseau once again, with her fabulous Auction team, took us not only on a great adventure, but opened the hearts (and pocketbooks) of so many people in support of our school and parish. It was fantastic to see so many alumni, parishioners, school parents and their friends at this showcase event. "Thank you" to all of our sponsors and supporters who made it so successful! There certainly was a great buzz in the air and Mr. Gregory DeMars who, with his wife Phyllis were Honorary Auction Co-Chairs, gave a passionate testimony to the importance of Catholic Education and Schools. It truly was an inspiring and fantastic evening, making Star shine bright!

Holy Week and Easter Choir

May your Lent journey lead you to true Easter Joy and Peace.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Last Sunday we hosted the Detroit Symphony Orchestra to a standing room only house! Vivaldi’s “Four Season” has never sounded so beautiful and so moving. I am always very proud of Star of the Sea when so many people thank me for hosting the DSO, providing such a tremendous space so close to their homes. It helps to strengthen our presence in the Grosse Pointe communities. And the DSO loves to play here because of the terrific acoustics in church. They also love The Pointe and the hospitality extended to them. Another way Star shines bright!

 I pray that this Lent is the most productive season for you. I hope you are able to enter into the Lent challenges and find them simple ways to strengthen your faith. Please note, as highlighted on the lenten challenge sheets in today’s paper, a few of the website links have been corrected! (Sorry about that so please take note

Lenten Alms Giving

The three traditional pillars of Lenten observance are prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Almsgiving: It is a sign of our care for those in need and an expression of our gratitude for all that God has given to us. Works of charity and the promotion of justice are fundamental components of the Christian way of life we began when we were baptized.

Starting March 6th, we will have a Cross displayed in the gathering space with envelopes nearby. Please take an envelope and place your donation to one or more of the organizations in the envelope and return your envelope during the Holy Thursday Service or on Palm Sunday.

Better Way Detroit: www.betterwaydetroit.com

Haiti Orphanage: <https://www.heartshandsheroes.org>

Hello, my name is Jamie Rennert and I am the physical education teacher here at Our Lady Star of the Sea. I have been taking mission trips to an orphanage in Haiti for the last 10 years. In the last two years the orphanage had to expand. They began to build another building and had to stop due to lack of funds. They currently have no kitchen, dining room, or electricity. With help from our parish their prayers will finally become reality. Please make checks payable to OLSOS or to Hearts and Hands of Heroes for the orphanage construction. Thank you!

St Leo Soup Kitchen: www.stleosoupkitchen.org

Make Me a Channel of Your Peace

Our Lenten theme for our School children this year is based upon the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi. St. Francis is known for his preaching about returning to God and obedience to the Church as well as his great love for all of God's wonderful creation. He is the patron saint of Animals and Ecology.

Our students learned about St. Francis at a recent All School EDGE and are taking part in activities to re-purpose plastic grocery bags into mats and pillows for the homeless under the direction of Motor City Mitten.org. In addition, the students will determine how they can be "channels of peace" to others this Lenten season. Please pray for all of our families as we make this Lenten journey together!

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

Presented here last week was the basic call to holiness for all of us that Pope Francis addressed in a recent apostolic exhortation. (Rejoice and Be Glad: The Call to Holiness in Today's World, 2018)

His emphasis is that the call is for everyone, each in their own way, and it can be done in today's world with all our roles and responsibilities. Even doing small things can help us grow in holiness, the Pontiff says.

In giving us some guidelines to follow, he looks to Jesus, "the Master", and His Word in Sacred Scripture. Specifically, he uses the Beatitudes and points out that "holy" can be substituted for "blessed" or "happy" once you delve into each one.

He challenges us to think about each Beatitude in new ways. He proceeds to help us do just that, calling that section "Going Against the Flow" since it truly is countercultural. Here is a summary of the key ideas.

The "poor in spirit": being pure in heart; not having our focus on material things; serving others.

The meek: having humility; trusting in the Lord.

Those who mourn: having empathy; helping the suffering; being there for them.

Those who hunger and thirst for righteousness: helping the weak, the poor, the vulnerable.

The merciful: giving of self to others; also forgiving others.

The pure in heart: having the right motivation or intent in what we do.

The peacemakers:

seeking peace and harmony in any situation.

Those persecuted for righteousness sake: living out the Gospel even with subtle or direct activity by others.

These really encompass what Pope Francis has called "living our lives with love".

Mother Teresa has a great quote that applies to serving others: "It is not how much we do, but how much love we put in the action that we do."

One in the Spirit,
