So how are your Lenten challenges going? Just askin'! Because the more we are challenged the better we become. Think of those basketball teams who get in the "Big Dance" of the college basketball tournament. Or all those baseball players trying to make it during spring training. Or those working so hard to make their physical health better. We certainly know that when we are appropriately challenged to be better, so many good things can happen to us. The same principles apply to our spiritual life. So don't be afraid of the challenges this Lent, no matter what they are!

This Thursday evening I invite you to come to church at 7 pm for a special Lenten prayer experience. No it will not be a Mass and yes it will be finished in 60 minutes. Our Theme is The Love of Christ and Our Response. Within a soothing environment of music, prayer and reflection, we will focus on the great and abundant love of Christ that is so clearly manifested in the season of lent.

** Tuesday is the Feast of St. Joseph. Many people of course know prayers to St. Joseph to help sell a house. Perhaps fewer people know St. Joseph is the Universal Patron of the Universal Church. Here is a short prayer to St. Joseph entrusting the Church to his care:

*Father, you entrusted our Savior to the care of Saint Joseph.
By the help of his prayers
may your Church continue to serve its Lord,
Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Have a blessed week!

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Lenten Alms Giving

The three traditional pillars of Lenten observance are prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Almsgiving: It is a sign of our care for those in need and an expression of our gratitude for all that God has given to us. Works of charity and the promotion of justice are fundamental components of the Christian way of life we began when we were baptized.

Starting March 6th, we will have a Cross displayed in the gathering space with envelopes nearby. Please take an envelope and place your donation to one or more of the organizations in the envelope and return your envelope during the Holy Thursday Service or on Palm Sunday.

FORMING OUR FAITH

Our First Eucharist Retreat

Last weekend our future First Communicants and their family participated in their First Eucharist Retreat here at Our lady Star of the Sea.

The students and families rotated among 7 stations learning about the Baptismal font, the altar, Sacristy & Tabernacle, the Organ, the chapel, re-acted the Last Supper, created a First Eucharist memory plate and were able to taste an unconsecrated host.

Pictures of the day are included here.....

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

Three weeks ago, we had our Parish Mission. What a blessing it was to have Fr. Steven Bell present 3 evenings of inspiration and encouragement on The Hard and Healing Work of Mercy.

He emphasized throughout that we need to remember who we are and whose we are. He gave us tools to help us remember and to help us weather the times of adversity, hurt and pain.

Are you still hearing “be who you is and not who you ain’t.....?”

Did the Mission challenge to “use mercy to move from bitterness into the freedom of love” touch you?

Have Fr. Steven’s challenges and tools to get through those tough situations helped you in your faith journey? Did they help in dealing with hurt, anger, bitterness.?

As Catholics, we’ve learned that we must forgive and love, even those who hurt us. We must love as Jesus loves us. After Jesus and His apostles finished the last supper, Jesus gave the ground rules for how He wanted his emerging family to relate to each other.

*“I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
This is how all will know that you are my* *disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:33-35*

That “as-I-have-loved-you” kind of love is where we often get stuck.

Fr. Steven reminded us that God is with us and that is how we navigate the tough and hurtful times—we rely on Him. We need to cling to Him instead of trying to solve things all by ourselves. The real power in the hard and healing work of mercy is our relationship with Jesus who has promised to be with us always.

Love one another.

We hear often and we write often in this column about our relationship with Him. A deep relationship with God enables us to trust in His mercy and compassion even when we cry on His shoulder and complain about the hurts and pains of our lives.

Your life story is probably different than mine and you and I may be in a different place in our story. But remembering who we are and Whose we are will help us through the suffering and pain that may come our way.

Congratulations!!

This past weekend eight high school students from our parish family were honored with the S.E.R.F. Vicariate Service Award by the Archdiocese of Detroit for their faithful service to our community. We are so proud of them and are thankful for their service to our church.

How the S.E.R.F. Vicariate Service Award Recipients Bless Our Parish Family

Caden A. has been an excellent Altar Server for Our Lady Star of the Sea school Masses and parish Sunday Masses. He has a heart of service and it shows in the way he assists the priests.

Sydney A. has a delightful Spirit. She is very organized and encouraging. It is no surprise that she is such great help in the Kingdom Kids program that serves children preschool to kindergarten as well as a part of the Music ministry for our Christmas Eve Mass.

Gino C. has a gracious heart and a willing spirit to serve. He has been a big help with distributing the Holy Eucharist at Mass on the weekends. We are very grateful for this help.

Paul C. has his hands in everything. He has a heart for the Gospel message and everyone who knows him can sense it. He was specifically being honored for his dedication as a Eucharistic Minister.

Chloe D. wears her heart on her sleeve and always has a smile on her face. She joyfully assists with Kingdom Kids serving them and teaching them the Gospel.

J.T. has given of his time by playing the guitar to help aid the Director of Music Ministry, Mathew Jakubisin, in worship. He is very talented and has a heart that seeks the Lord through song and worship.

Jason M. has been generous with his time assisting at Mass as an Altar Server and has done so for many years. His heart of service is a great gift to Our Lady Star of the Sea community.

Ava W. has been skillfully playing the violin at Mass. Her talent has aided Matthew Jakubisin in offering another variety of music to help lift the hearts and minds of parishioners to God during liturgical worship. Ava is also a Eucharistic Minister. Her openness to the call of using her talents for others is greatly appreciated.

The Christian Service Commission is planning a project to help feed the homeless by putting together a "Blessing Bag" consisting of food items that don't have to be eaten immediately. Please choose 2 or 3 items from our list, or more if you are so inclined. PLEASE NO ITEMS THAT HAVE TO BE REFRIGERATED. We will fill each bag with all 8 items. Our goal is to prepare bags for 100.
