When was the last time you participated in one of the primary liturgies of the Church's year – the liturgies of the Paschal Triduum? Five years? Ten? Forty? Maybe never? Why not make the commitment to participate in one this year.

Lent ends at the start of the Mass on Thursday night as the "Paschal Triduum" begins. Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday are different than all other days in the Church's year, e.g., funeral Masses are not permitted these days. The liturgies we celebrate are different from the normal liturgies we experience. In essence, they are to be looked at as one complete liturgy though divided over three days. Let's take a look at each one of them.

Holy Thursday: There is only one Mass on Holy Thursday and that is the "Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper." Holy water is removed and the church begins to be rather bare and simple. The Sacred Oils, blessed earlier that day at the Cathedral, will be presented for use in this parish. At this Mass we commemorate the institution of the Eucharist, the institution of the priesthood and Christ's commandment to love all our brothers and sisters. There are generally two distinctive features or actions at this Mass. Following the homily, we do what was just heard in the Gospel, i.e., feet are washed. The presider washes the feet of twelve selected people following the example of Jesus. This is a reminder to all of our call to serve each other in charity and with love. As a further extension of this call, those who are present are asked to bring up their Lenten Alms during the presentation of the gifts. At this Mass, we also consecrate enough bread or hosts for communion on Good Friday. Following communion, the Blessed Sacrament remains on the altar and then carried in procession to a place of reposition. For us, we process to The Pointe where the Blessed Sacrament will remain until 11 pm. All are invited to come and pray during this time.. The church is then quietly stripped. After 11pm, the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in the sacristy, and not the tabernacle in church, until the Easter Vigil.

Good Friday: The official liturgy of the Church this day is the "Celebration of the Passion of the Lord" and consists of three parts. (Stations of the Cross is a popular devotion prayed by many this day but it is not the official prayer of the day.) At the appointed time (1:30 pm here at Star) the ministers enter in silence and everyone kneels. After standing, the opening prayer is prayed. The Liturgy of the Word consists of two readings and then the reading of the passion from John's gospel. After the homily, we have the General Intercessions, i.e., ten intercessions praying for the members of the Church as well as those who do not believe in God. The second part of this liturgy is the Veneration of the Cross. Here our focus is on a cross, not a crucifix, the instrument of our salvation. The whole church comes to venerate the cross either by a genuflection, a touch or a kiss. The third part of the liturgy is Holy Communion. As this is not a Mass, we now distribute the Blessed Sacrament that was consecrated at the previous evening. Following communion and a short prayer, all the ministers and people exit in silence.

Holy Saturday: (Remember there is no 4 pm Mass this day.) On this day the church is still stark and empty. The day and night is one of vigil for the Lord. The liturgy of the whole year is "The Easter Vigil." It begins after sunset and darkness sets (8:30 pm this year) and consists of four parts. The first part is the Service of Light. The church is totally dark as we begin with a simple introduction as a fire is lit and then blessed. The new Easter or Paschal Candle is prepared, lit and then carried in procession through the dark church as "Christ our Light" is proclaimed three times. The Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) is sung amidst the flickering candlelight. The second part of the Easter Vigil is the Liturgy of the Word. Here a number of readings are proclaimed, the Gloria is once again sung as well as the Alleluia. Part three is the Liturgy of Baptism and one of the real highlights of the night. Here we bless new water, initiate any new members of the Church through baptism and confirmation, and then together we all renew our baptismal promises. The fourth part is the usual Liturgy of the Eucharist when we receive the great gift of Jesus himself in His Body and Blood. Then we finally conclude the Easter Vigil with the sign of the cross and dismissal, going forth to bring the Light of Christ to the world.

Now don't be afraid to come to church for any or all of these liturgies! We highly encourage you to attend. They truly are the most beautiful liturgies of the Church's year. Hopefully the above explanation gives you a clearer idea as to what will happen during those liturgies.

 Usually on Palm Sunday and Easter there are many people who return "home" to church or who have not been present for a period of time. We pray that the Lord will continue to stir the flame of faith in you. We also pray that you will continue to join us in the future.

 When people get new palms they often wonder what to do with the old. Do not throw them in the garbage.

Since they are blessed, they should be burned or buried. The simplest thing is to cut them up in small pieces and bury them in the garden.

 Please be attentive to the schedule for Saturday and Sunday. Remember: there is no 4 pm Mass on Saturday.

 This year we will have a reception after the Easter Vigil in The Pointe. We celebrate with Easter joy as we break-fast together. This will be a potluck event! The parish will provide some refreshments, I might bake some brownies or something, and I ask anyone who is coming to the Vigil and wants to participate in the reception to simply bring your item (a dessert, deviled eggs, cakes, cookies, etc.) to The Pointe before the Vigil begins. It will be great to see what we get!!

 The SERF vicariate will gather at 1 pm for a penance service Monday at St. Margaret Church and 7 pm at St. Joan of Arc church. Remember you are confessing to Christ and He is full of mercy, waiting to give it to us.

 Thanks to all who came to the parish Fish Frys this year. Many thanks to the great volunteers who worked these wonderful events for the good of the parish!

May this week truly be holy for you. Please take the time to pause, reflect and spend some time with our Lord and the Church.

Teacher Feature

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." --Matthew 5:4. That scripture verse was proclaimed by Jesus during his ministry, and until this year, I never took the meaning to heart. There is also a reason for everything that happens and sometimes we don't understand that meaning until something occurs. I have fallen victim to this reality countless times. This year, I know what it means to mourn and why things have happened.

Some families may know that I lost my father to Esophageal Cancer this past September. He had been courageously battling the disease since last year. When I heard the news of the diagnosis last year, I was overcome with disbelief and worry. I was a sixth-grade religion teacher at the time and decided to inform my students. Every day we prayed as a class for a miracle. Every day I found strength to believe that he would heal, and every day my students and their families prayed. We all believed my dad would be saved. Then, on September 10th, my dad took his last breath with my mom by his side. My mom told me he was speaking with a man in a meadow filled with flowers. He reached out and grabbed a flower and gave it to my mom; he said he was in heaven.

When I returned to school, my students (now seventh graders) greeted me with tears and hugs. During one of my classes, I told them the story of my dad picking flowers. They sobbed, prayed, and their hearts were filled with love and faith. They told me that they will always hold this in their hearts.

A month later, I became a seventh-grade homeroom teacher. The first chapter I taught was on the sacrament: anointing of the sick. This session filled my heart with faith, wonderment, love, and healing. One student decided to create in art class a door to heaven for me to keep on my prayer table. The door is surrounded by an angel, the same angel from my dad's funeral. This door has slowly healed my heart.

Everyday being at Star has also healed my heart. I feel comfort and peace while teaching my gracious students while being surrounded by the most loving staff. I want to send a special thank you to my students and their families who have helped me navigate through my grief. Thank you all! Remember prayers work, so please keep praying.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

As we celebrate Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem and the beginning of Holy Week, it's a time to reflect on our Lenten journey.

Did our fasting, prayer and almsgiving change us? Did the Parish Mission, the Stations of the Cross, the opportunities to go to confession, the presentations, the videos, the almsgiving spark a desire to continue to incorporate these practices into our lives? Did they instill in us a desire to keep learning more about our Catholic traditions?

Were we moved to share our faith stories? Were we inspired to more humility and love in our relationships?

Jesus from the beginning of his life until his end showed us the power of humility and love.

The Son of God humbles Himself and becomes human. He is born in a stable. He grows up in small, insignificant, culturally backward town that was spoken of in disgust.

After preaching, teaching, driving out demons, healing the sick, and raising the dead, Jesus entered the Holy City on a donkey not a war horse. His ordinary disciples, not legions of soldiers, accompanied him waving palm branches.

At the last supper, Jesus washed the feet of his disciples, a task so undignified that even Israelite slaves wouldn't do it. Jesus was betrayed for the "book value" of a slave. His punishment when he was condemned to death wasn't even the usual punishment for Roman citizens. He was scourged and crucified, a punishment for the worst criminals.

But Jesus willingly lowered himself in his birth, in his ministry, in his death. No one took his life from him. He freely laid down his own life. He humbled Himself. The donkey-riding, foot-washing, Jesus crushed death by means of loving, humble obedience.

In today's reading we hear from St. Paul, "Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross."

Have our Lenten practices helped us to humbly follow Jesus this Palm Sunday into Jerusalem where death is inevitable but leads to the triumph of the cross? Our faith is based on the sacrifice of the cross and victory of the Resurrection.

Have a Holy Week.
