“The church draws her life from the Eucharist. This truth does not simply express a daily experience of faith, but recapitulates the heart of the mystery of the church.” Pope St. John Paul II wrote that to the Church 16 years ago.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). We have this great feast to increase our appreciation of this great gift of the Eucharist in our Church and in our lives.

It can be so simple for us to take for granted this great gift of the eucharist. Maybe we think we come to Mass so often and it usually seems to be the same thing over and over and over again. (Even though not everything is the same thing, that is what some people think.) However, if we really contemplate what Christ has done for us in giving us His Body and Blood for our very lives through the celebration of the Mass, we can only be drawn into “profound amazement and gratitude.” As Pope John Paul II wrote in his conclusion of his encyclical: “In the humble signs of bread and wine changed into his body and blood, Christ walks beside us as our strength and our food for the journey, and he enables us to become for everyone witnesses of hope. If in the presence of this mystery, reason experiences its limits, the heart, enlightened by the grace of the Holy Spirit, clearly sees the response that is demanded and bows low in adoration and unbounded love.”

Some people think of the Eucharist only as the physical, i.e., the sacrament, or the consecrated host and Precious Blood. That is certainly one aspect of the Eucharist. Hopefully we place the physical sacrament into the whole context of the Eucharistic Liturgy or the Mass, because it is from the celebration of the Eucharistic Liturgy that we receive the Blessed Sacrament in the host and the Precious Blood. Hence, the Church places utmost importance on the whole Mass and utmost importance on participating in the whole Mass. In “the old days” people were taught that one had to be present at Mass by the proclamation of the Gospel “for Mass to count.” In one way that teaching still holds true. Yet, on the other hand, one should be present for the whole celebration of the liturgy of the Word, i.e., by the time of the first reading, for “Mass to count.” The Church wants us to experience the presence of God in all these liturgical elements, not only through the Eucharistic elements. The Church also believes so much in this great gift of Jesus himself that she obligates us to participate in this Eucharist each and every Sunday (keeping God’s commandment to “keep holy the Sabbath”) not just when we feel like we should come to church or when there are no sports event, practice,

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

At the end of week five of the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA), 303 parishioners have pledged $110,000 which is 58% of our $190,000 goal.

Remember that any payments above our goal are returned to the parish.

FAREWELL
Fr. Marko Djonovic

Thank you for your ministry here at Star! We would like to express our gratitude for your practical and spiritual guidance that you have imparted to our parish community.

On June 30th there will be an opportunity after the 9:30 am and 11:30 am Masses to offer good wishes to Fr. Marko as he begins his new assignment on July 1st.

Christ to others in our daily life! Yes- it is mind boggling indeed!

 Thank you for your sacrifices and donations to the Catholic Services Appeal. Through your gifts, you share in the education and formation of our future priests, lay ministers in the church, catechists, many social services, Right to Life initiatives, youth and young adult ministry, marriage and family ministry, media evangelization and assistance like “The Mass for Shut-Ins,” various chaplaincies, and so much more. Please remember, a gift or pledge to the CSA goes directly to more than 100 very Catholic programs and ministries that share Christ with others. Think about it. It is a good deal all the way around with a gift to the CSA!

 Next Sunday will be the end of our parish’s fiscal year. A good time to “make up” Sunday offerings that have been missed.

 Please continue to pray for our Parish Strategic Planning process and openness to the Holy Spirit to go where the Spirit is leading us. Also pray for those priests and parish communities who will be experiencing change in leadership July 1.

Have a great week by blessing the Lord for His goodness.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

shopping trip or other things to do on a Sunday! This feast is also a good time to remember to be present until the end of Mass as well. The point of Mass is not to simply receive Holy Communion and then leave but the whole experience is important. (Do you visit a family members house on Thanksgiving and walk out once you eat the turkey?)

The celebration of the Mass is truly awesome indeed and maybe, ultimately, too mind boggling for us! But the Church gives us the celebration of Mass and the Eucharist so we can encounter Christ in our daily life and then be transformed into that image and presence of Christ in the world around us. The readings and homily are meant to point out how the Word of God we hear at Mass is being encountered by us and is alive indeed in the midst of our lives as we hear it! With hearts of gratitude for that presence and action of God in our midst, we then offer that sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, i.e., Jesus in the Eucharist. Jesus then becomes food for our daily journey so we can be this week...

FORMING OUR FAITH

Prayer for the Next Phase of Unleash the Gospel:

Heavenly Father,

*Thank you for the abundant graces of Synod 16:
for awakening in us the vision and resolve to become again your Church on mission, eagerly working together
to “make disciples of all nations,” according to our commission from the Lord Jesus.*

*Pour out upon us your Holy Spirit, as a new Pentecost, to guide us in our next phase in our movement
to Unleash the Gospel.
By his power at work in us, transform our parishes into bands of joyful missionary disciples.*

*Come Holy Spirit:
Set our hearts on fire to share the Good News of Jesus
with all those who stumble in darkness, who hunger for hope, who thirst for eternal life.
Above all, grant us the boldness and courage of the apostles to put the mission above all else, so that our community becomes the spark to ignite the fire of divine love that transforms this time and this place into the Kingdom of Heaven.*

*We pray through the intercession of Our Lady, Star of the New Evangelization, and her mother, our Patron, St. Anne;
and in the spirit of Blessed Solanus we thank you ahead of time for “accomplishing in us far more than all we ask or imagine.”*

We ask all of this in the all-powerful name of the Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns forever.

Amen

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

There are many things that I learned in all my years of Catholic education by the Adrian Dominican nuns and the Jesuits at University of Detroit.

Two of those things still stand out. One is the fact that in grade school, because the Mother Superior was Irish and our pastor was Irish, we learned Irish songs for assemblies, and we had St. Patrick's Day off. For almost all the time in grade school we thought the feast of St. Patrick was a holy day of obligation.

The other thing and certainly the more important was learning about the teachings of St. Thomas Aquinas.

In developing his theory of how God's grace works, one of St. Thomas' famous statements is "grace builds on nature."

That's a great thing to hear when we are being asked to Unleash the Gospel and trying to see where God is leading us.

Grace doesn't destroy who we are or make us into completely different people. God's grace perfects us in our uniqueness. Grace takes all our talents and gifts, our personalities and lifts them up to a higher level.

St. Peter is the perfect example. There were so many times when he just didn't get it right. His passionate nature led him to be impetuous and quick-tempered. He tried to walk on water but ended up in the sea. He was awed by the Transfiguration of Jesus. As Jesus is speaking to two of the figures most central to the Jewish faith, Peter talks about building three tents to memorialize this while the most extraordinary scene is unfolding before him.

When they came to get Jesus in the garden Peter reacted violently. "Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear." John 18:1

He denied Jesus three times even after vehemently vowing he would never do so.

Peter grew and changed during his time with Jesus. God took his passionate nature and used it to build His Church.

God does the same for us. Whether we are forceful or gentle by nature God refines those traits for us to do His will.

Grace doesn't make us all Irish because we honor St. Patrick, nor does it change us into brilliant scholars because we admire St. Thomas Aquinas. But what it does do is empower us to be more loving and merciful as we strive to become Christ in the world.

One in the Spirit

CSA—Sacred Heart Major Seminary

On June 8, Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron ordained three men to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Detroit at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Fathers John McKenzie, Adam Nowak, and Derik Peterman studied to become our shepherds at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, which is the college and graduate seminary of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal support seminarians as they prepare for the priesthood as well as men in the permanent diaconate program.

Sacred Heart's student body also includes seminarians studying for the priesthood for other dioceses throughout the country and world, and religious orders. Lay women and men earn graduate and undergraduate degrees and diplomas in religious studies at the seminary to serve in parish ministry throughout the Archdiocese.
