In emergency situations needing the prompt attention of a priest, please call the parish office.

MARRIAGE

Archdiocesan law requires advance notice of at least six months.

PARISH REGISTRATION

Newcomers to the parish may register in the Parish Office during regular office hours. Others, please notify the Parish Office of address changes.

Hearing devices are available for use during Mass. Please ask an usher for assistance.

Bulletin articles are due by 10:00 a.m. on Friday. Submitted bulletin content is subject for approval.

Next weekend we will celebrate the Feast day of Our Lady Star of the Sea. (The actual feast day is Thursday but we get to "transfer" the feast day to Sunday.) As you know there are a number of activities to help us celebrate as a parish community.

Friday night please come and invite others to come to Fall Fest. It is a great night for the family with things for the little kids to do, raffles with great prizes, and of course, some good food. I have been asked to again make some pulled pork with a special sauce and I couldn't say no. So come and give it a taste. See the notice elsewhere for more information.

Sunday morning after Mass our Knights of Columbus is presenting a Buttermilk Pancake Breakfast...and more! See the ad elsewhere for the menu and prices. And know that the proceeds will help a host of people who need our assistance. Monday, as the weekend continue to flow, the Mens' Club is presenting their annual Golf Outing at Lochmoor Country Club. Again you can find more information in this paper.

These special activities only highlight the many wonderful committees, organizations, and individuals who make up this great parish. Please support these notable events, have some fun and enjoy the fellowship that unites us! We have much to celebrate, especially as we give God thanks for his continued blessings. We also turn to our Patroness, Our Lady Star of the Sea, who guides us into safe harbor and to the Lord, Jesus the Christ.

 Hopefully you will notice the new school entryway. Finally people should notice, without a doubt, where the entrance is! For the men, if you need to use the rest room during Fall Fest, you will see the new men's room. It is finally handicap accessible. Thanks to all who participated in Changing Lives Together and making so many of our improvements possible over the past 4 years!

 Please keep in your prayers all those who have been affected by the Hurricane/Tropical Storm Florence. Such devastation for so many people. Pray also for those who are there to assist them in their need.

 Please pray for Archbishop Vigneron and all the clergy of the archdiocese. We will be meeting together this Wednesday in conversation and collaboration regarding our response to the recent current events regarding the devastating clergy sexual abuse.

 Looking ahead, please remember the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, Sunday, October 7: Matthew Jakubisin will be presenting an organ concert of Marian Music and then in the evening we will have a special outdoor rosary.

Have a blessed week!
Msgr. Gary Smetanka

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

In recent weeks, the Catholic Church was again rocked with the awful news about the extent of the abuse by clergy and the cover up by Bishops.

Our confidence and trust in the Bishops to shepherd us has been shaken again.

But our faith should not be. Our belief is in one person and one person only—Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd. As evil as these abuses were and are and even one is an atrocity, we need to remember that most clergy and bishops are holy men committed to their ministry and the people they serve.

Our mission as Catholic Christians is to keep in mind that Jesus is our hope.

Jesus died but rose again on the third day. That is the essence of our beliefs. The story didn't end with the tomb. If the Gospels had stopped at the crucifixion and tomb, the story of Jesus would just be about a prophet who spent his life for an ideal.

In this case, the Gospel would simply become "an edifying and consoling book," but it would in no way "be an announcement of hope." Pope Francis

However, the Gospels go beyond the tomb, Francis said, explaining that "it is precisely this last part that transforms our lives." The resurrection is the foundation of our hope.

Troubling and tough times happen to all of us. No matter how strong or powerful or confident we are, tough times happen. As strong and mighty as we can feel one day, we can feel just as lost and scared the next. The hardest part of these times is not to lose hope.

We experience troubling and tough times personally, in our Church and globally and it can lead to a feeling of hopelessness.

Unfortunately, tough times in the Church aren't new. In all of salvation history people have been troubled and tested. The theme of hope in seemingly hopeless times can be found many times in both the old and new testaments.

Focus on Abraham who was our father in faith and hope. We know that Abraham received amazing promises from God himself. At 99 years of age, he was promised that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars in the sky. It seemed impossible and Abraham had to believe that promise by faith.

"He believed, hoping against hope, that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "Thus shall your descendants be." Romans 4:18

Hope against hope is to have hope even when the situation appears to be hopeless.

Rising above the feelings of hopelessness is not easy.

Will there be ongoing help for the victims? Will there be healing? Will there be a complete purification of the church? Those questions and others are being asked now.

We may have anger, serious doubts, questions, and complaints, but we also have hope. Have faith and pray.

Hope against hope. God is with us.

One in the Spirit,
Joanne Mualem

(Sports offered: Boys/ Girls Basketball).

Please note that the registration period is set based on the CYO administration office time line of when we as a sports program must register our teams. No late registration.

Why register early:

- Star sports program must register our teams with CYO office by Mid-September for winter 2018-2019 sports.
- By registering early allows the Star sports program the best opportunity to register the correct number of teams to give all our athletes and opportunity to be placed on a team and hopefully to avoid cutting situations if possible.
- By registering early will hopefully give the CYO administration the best chance to place us in local divisions and avoid long commutes for away games.

Fr. Ytsen has directed various summer and student retreats and led summer service programs to Appalachia. British literature is his first love. He participated in the Oxbridge Program which provided the opportunity to study three summers at Cambridge and Oxford in England and at Trinity College in Dublin. Fr. Ytsen says he is excited to begin this new ministry at Manresa, confident that his background in Ignatian spirituality and history of the Jesuits, particularly in England, will enhance and support his commitment to retreat and spiritual direction.

CSA — Pastoral Music

This week, pastoral musicians will gather for “In Service of the Sacred,” a conference on music and liturgy presented by the archdiocesan Academy of Sacred Music at Sacred Heart Major Seminary.

Conference keynotes will cover “Authentically Catholic,” “Authenticity in Gospel Worship,” and “Authenticity in Spanish Worship,” complementing conference sessions on planning bilingual liturgies and praise and worship in liturgy.

Your CSA gifts support the work of the Christian Worship Office, which certifies pastoral musicians in the Archdiocese of Detroit and coordinates the Archdiocesan Chorus along with other music ministries.

For more information about this and other CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, go to aod.org.
