Half and Half
from
Msgr. Gary
Smetanka

What comprises a parish? What is essential for a parish community and what then flows from it? Certainly what is essential is the weekly, and even daily, celebration of the Eucharist. During the celebration of the Eucharist we gather as the Body of Christ to offer Him back to God the Father, the perfect sacrifice for all God has done for his people, and what he continues to do today, and in the future. That is essential, from the Last Supper until today. As the Mass is the source and summit of all that we do, everything flows into the celebration of Mass and everything flows from our celebration. We are called and challenged to serve one another through acts of charity. We are called to educate and form ourselves, and others, in the ways and practices of the faith. We are called to come together as a community to know each other, supporting and consoling each other within our shared life. A parish is certainly more than simply "having Mass" and dispensing the sacraments.

As you all know, the parish is to provide programs and engage others in ministries to help to build up and serve the Church. There are the various ministries that are present at our Sunday Masses, i.e., servers, lectors, ushers, music ministers, extraordinary ministers of the Holy Communion, sacristans, and caretakers of the linens. Each of those ministries play an important part in each of our celebrations. The other programs or ministries often found in a parish are also very important for a vibrant parish. Adult faith formation, faith formation for children, companions to accompany those desiring to become Catholic, St. Vincent de Paul Society, Mens' organization, grief ministers, programs or drives to help the less fortunate, hospitality, are just a few that help to round out the picture for a healthy parish, serving and loving in the name of Jesus.

Next weekend, in the Gathering Space, you will have an opportunity to ask questions to program or ministry representatives, and volunteer for the program or ministry that will engage you in the faith and service to others. None are very time consuming. Some operate on a more regular basis and some are once or twice a year. What is important is the engagement you have to live out the call of discipleship through active participation with others, bringing forth blessings upon many!

Throughout the year I often get asked about one thing or another that we used to have and do not have presently, It all comes down to volunteers that make it happen, The great parish staff can only do so much! Volunteers truly make a parish great

Please drop off bags of candy at the parish to help seminarians provide a safe trick-or-treating experience for kids!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

For more information contact Bryan Garcia garcia.bryan@shms.edu

It's that time of the year again! Halloween is just around the corner, and Sacred Heart Major Seminary needs your help. Each year the seminary community opens their doors and their hearts to over 2000 children from the surrounding Detroit neighborhood so that the kids can have a fun and safe place to play games and trick-or-treat. But they need your help to make this year a success! They are asking for donations of Halloween candy that will then be passed out to the many kids. If you are willing to participate in this important ministry by donating bags of candy please bring them to the gathering space and place in the white box by October 27th.

Samaritan's Purse - Operation Christmas Child

What is Operation Christmas Child?

Operation Christmas Child is a project of Samaritan's Purse, an international relief organization. Our mission is to provide local partners around the world with shoeboxes filled with small toys, hygiene items, and school supplies as a means of reaching out to children in their own communities with the Good News of Jesus Christ. We ship these simple gifts outside the United States to children affected by war, poverty, natural disaster, famine, and disease.

For more information please visit their website at <https://www.samaritanspurse.org/operation-christmas-child/>

Please pick up a box in the gathering space. Fill the box with items for a child ages 5-9 years old ...gift ideas are on the flyer on the table with the boxes (suggestion to take the box with you when shopping). Return to the parish no later than October 27th. Box must be able to close. Please DO NOT include Candy, toothpaste, gum, used or damaged items, scary or war related items, seeds, food, liquids, lotions, medication or breakable or glass containers, aerosol cans!

Please pray for:

MASS INTENTIONS

What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

It is worth noting, however, that the offering of the Mass for that intention does not depend on it being publicly voiced but on it being specified in the priest's personal prayers. Similarly, if a priest announces that "I am offering this Mass for [such and such an] intention" he does not thereby require the rest of the congregation to pray for that intention.

Stewardship Thoughts

In the framework of the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews: ... for whom and through whom all things exist through God, today's Scripture readings from the Book of Genesis and St. Mark's Gospel promote the common theme of sacred marriage. In the Gospel, Jesus, referencing Genesis, proclaims, God made them male and female. For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. It is clear from these Scripture readings that God's blessing of marriage is the union between one man and one woman. This is God's teaching on Christian marriage. It is this Scriptural Truth, this Church teaching, that faithful stewards must embrace to counter secular society's law, which professes a false image of marriage. In this Truth, the Sacrament of Matrimony accomplishes its full Christian meaning and potential by strengthening husbands and wives to love and serve the Lord and one another. To enhance your marriage, consider attending a Marriage Enrichment Series or a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend.

An Invitation to Participate in our Parish Ministries and Organizations

Are you interested in becoming more involved in the Parish? We invite you to consider joining one of the many ministries or organizations listed on these two pages. It takes many volunteers to prepare for our weekend Masses and to support our outreach programs. Look over the following opportunities and join us in The Pointe after all Masses on October 12/13 to learn more and to volunteer.

Greeters

Greeters provide a warm, welcoming atmosphere for all those arriving at church for Mass. Greeters serve about once a month at the Masses they normally attend. This is a perfect ministry for anyone interested in meeting new people and welcoming visitors and fellow parishioners as they gather to worship. The greeter ministry is a great way to get involved with the Parish and is open to singles, couples, or families with children of all ages.

Betty Ahee (bahee@comcast.net)

Lectors

The Lector proclaims Sacred Scripture at Mass. Anyone who has been confirmed may be trained to serve as a Lector. Lectors are scheduled to serve once or twice in a two-month period. Lectors are responsible for thoughtful preparation of the readings in advance of the liturgy. We are especially in need of Lectors for the Saturday 4pm and Sunday 8am Masses.

Terry Varani (terry.varani@gmail.com)

Sacristans

Sacristans set the table for the Lord's Supper. They set out vessels used at Mass, prepare the bread and wine to be brought up in the Offertory Procession, light the candles, turn lights on and off, assist the presider before Mass, and in some cases unlock or lock the church. Sacristans arrive about a half hour before Mass begins, and remain a few minutes after Mass to complete their after Mass responsibilities. Sacristans are scheduled to serve once a month at the Mass they normally attend.

Terry Varani (terry.varani@gmail.com)

Sacred Linen Ministry

Those involved in this "behind the scenes" ministry carefully wash and iron the linens used during Mass (not the large altar cloths). The linens include the purificators (small towels used to wipe the chalices during Communion), and lavabo towels (the small towel the priest uses to dry his hands). No experience is necessary; instructions on how to care for the linens will be provided. Please consider joining this ministry. The "angels" currently involved in this ministry can always use additional help.

Terry Varani (terry.varani@gmail.com)

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC)

EMHCs assist priests and deacons with the distribution of Holy Communion. This ministry is open to those who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation and are committed to showing the utmost reverence for the Eucharist. Training sessions for EMHCs are held twice a year. EMHCs are certified by the Archdiocese of Detroit and commissioned to serve for a renewable five-year period. EMHCs are not scheduled in advance, but are asked to volunteer by signing in when they arrive at Mass. EMHCs are also responsible to wash the sacred vessels after Mass.

Terry Varani (terry.varani@gmail.com)

Music

OLSOS Adult Choir sings at the 11:30 liturgy and certain holy day liturgies (Christmas, All Saints, Ash Wednesday, Holy Week, and Easter). Rehearsals are Wednesday evenings 7:00pm – 8:30pm September through May. Contemporary Music Group plays instruments and sings contemporary Christian music at the 4:00pm Mass twice a month. Men's Schola sings at two liturgies a year: All Souls Day and Good Friday. The group is open to all men of the parish and meets only a few weeks before each of the two liturgies. Cantors are scheduled monthly and rehearse individually with the music minister before each Mass. The cantor sings the psalm and helps lead congregational song. Instrumentalists (flute, oboe, clarinet, trumpet, violin, cello, saxophone, etc.) add beauty and embellishment to our liturgies. Instrumentalists are coordinated with the music minister.

Aaron Kaleniecki (a.kaleniecki@stargp.org)

Live Streaming

Help us live stream 4:00pm weekend Mass, Holy Days of Obligation, funerals and special events when requested. We will train you. If you can multi task and touch an ipad you are perfect for this ministry.

Debby Veltri (d.veltri@stargp.org)

Hospitality

Help us to provide "unusually gracious hospitality" to our neighbors and parishioners. Perfect opportunity for a family or group. Through – Coffee and Donuts, Funeral Luncheons, Special Events.

Judy Zedan (jl.zedan@gmail.com)

An Invitation to Participate in our Parish Ministries and Organizations

Are you interested in becoming more involved in the Parish? We invite you to consider joining one of the many ministries or organizations listed on these two pages. It takes many volunteers to prepare for our weekend Masses and to support our outreach programs. Look over the following opportunities and join us in The Pointe after all Masses on October 12/13 to learn more and to volunteer.

Altar Servers

Boys and girls may begin serving once they have reached the fourth grade. The ministry is open to students attending the Parish School or the Parish Religious Education Program. Altar Servers assist at our weekend and Holy Day Masses.

Servers are encouraged to continue in the ministry during their high school years as well. A training session will take place after the 9:30am Mass on October 13.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka (msgr.smetanka@stargp.org)

Ushers

Ushers greet and seat people, handle offertory collections, coordinate the Offertory procession, assist with the Communion procession, distribute bulletins, handle any emergencies that might arise, and prepare the church for the next Mass. Ushers work in teams and serve at the Mass they normally attend. Ushers arrive 15 minutes before Mass and remain about 10 minutes after Mass. The Ushers Club also raises money to support various parish activities and outreach programs.

Greg Bourgoin (gregbourg@att.net)

Faith Formation

Faith Formation is more than a subject to be taught – it is an invitation to a way of life...Joe Paprocki

The Faith Formation Education team works with all ages from youth to adults. Volunteer opportunities include the following: Catechist, Faith Formation Facilitator, assisting with Baptisms, Weddings, or Funerals, and participating as an OCIA team member.

Meredith Nesom (m.nesom@stargp.org)

Evangelical Charity (Christian Service)

Help create and promote programs that aid the needs of the parish and wider community. Assist with service drives, Giving Tree, Operation Children Christmas Boxes, Parish Mailings, food drives, Homebound Ministry, and Fish Frys during lent. Members of this ministry are also encouraged to find new ways to help our community through service.

Debby Veltri (d.veltri@stargp.org)

Prayer Ministry

Prayer Ministry is a team of trained individuals dedicated to lifting the intentions of others to God. Working in teams of two, prayer ministers say intercessory prayers upon request after Masses on the weekend, and occasionally on week-days. The ministers care deeply about each other, staying connected through texts, praying for the needs of all. Both the training for this ministry, and the prayers offered, are short. This is a ministry of sharing God's great love. Please join us.

Midge Culos (mbculos@gmail.com)
Roberta Henrichs (robertahenrichs28@gmail.com)

St Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent de Paul is a spiritual organization dedicated to the service of those in need within our community. Our Conference covers those neighbors in parts of the 48236 and 48225 zip codes. We provide assistance with rent, utilities, furniture, appliances, and food. This assistance is funded by the donations we receive from parishioners.

Maryann Gesell (mgesell64@gmail.com)

Men's Club

Support and participate in activities benefiting the parish and School.

Rich Korte (richkorte@gmail.com)

Knights of Columbus

Our Knights of Columbus council is a charitable and fraternal organization centered at Star of the Sea. We welcome Catholic men who want to grow in their faith, serve the parish and our community, and become stronger role models, husbands, and fathers. We support causes year-round at the local and national levels. Put your faith into action — visit kofc.org for more info.
