This week I hope we will put aside time to give God thanks for the many blessings we have received from Him and from others. (Hopefully our thanksgiving lasts more than on Thanksgiving Day!) I think such thanks is also appropriate as we celebrate the great Feast of Christ the King this weekend while getting ready for the Advent Season which begins next Sunday.

I thank God for you and the gift of faith He has given to each one of us. Our faith is such a tremendous resource when we are faced with challenges, difficulties, and doubts. God is so great and so wonderful! I thank God for the many great things I see with you and this parish. Thanks for all that you do to live out your baptismal faith in words, deed and example. Thank you for the 160 boxes of food collected (and gift cards) for our Fall Food Drive. Thanks for the ways in which you pray for the parish. Thanks for the times you allow your faith to be challenged and try to see beyond the limitations we impose on ourselves. I thank you for your stewardship of time and talent. Thanks to the parishioners who have just stepped up and taken care of things, great and small. This is a good sign of our understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Christ, as we give ourselves for the sake of others. The amount of volunteers we have for The Taste and the auction is inspiring. Thanks so much for your favorable response to look at your Sunday Offering and see if it matches your commitment of good stewardship and titling. Thanks for the pride you have in your parish, all 65 years of it, and in your awesome school!! Thanks for the support you give to me and to the dedicated staff that is very committed in serving you. I trust with your prayers and help, we are becoming what we have been praying at Sunday Mass, that we become that "spark to ignite the fire of divine love that transforms this time and this place into the Kingdom of Heaven."

The thanks we express to God, and to each other, remind us of how we are so connected to each other. Let us remember how our salvation is not only dependent on Christ but how our salvation is also based upon relationship – our relationship with God and with each other. I know I am blessed being here at Star and being a part of your life. {You undoubtedly have noticed I often prefer to stay and quietly work on the sidelines, off stage, in the kitchen, not in the forefront. I may not always take the opportunity to let each and every one of you know how much I care for you and

Thanksgiving Masses

Please note the following Mass schedule for Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Eve at 7 p.m. at St. Lucy.

Thanksgiving Day at St. Joan of Arc at 9 a.m.

There will be no Mass at OLSOS on Friday, November 29th.

Blessed Thanksgiving!

appreciate what you do. Likewise I am sorry for times I might have disappointed or offended you in some way. My only wish is that we all come closer to the Lord, to know Him and to serve Him.) On this Feast of Christ the King, and as we gather around God's table, we know that our true transformation into the image of Christ is dependent upon the acceptance of God's transforming power in our hearts, in the Eucharist and in the world around us. Especially in a world that at times can be very terrifying, we especially need each other with the Lord as King of our hearts.

Today is a good day to renew our hearts and to claim Christ as our Lord and King. As we open our hearts for His reign, we become more ready for the season of Advent and the coming of Christ.

 Thanks for your support in the Catch a Lucky Star Raffle and The Taste. Thank you so much to Debby Veltri and her committee who worked on getting the commitments from the vendors 6 months ago! We will be publishing soon all those who support Star of the Sea through The Taste. It is good that we thank those who support us when we patronize them. And for those who you don't see on the list...you can always comment to them that they should!!

 This year it is St. Lucy's turn to host the Thanksgiving Eve Mass this Wednesday at 7 pm. Thanksgiving morning at 9 am we join at St. Joan of Arc Church. (There is no morning Mass on Friday at Star of the Sea.)

 Remember: if you, or someone you know in the neighborhood, will be alone on Thursday, know you are invited to come to the Thanksgiving Dinner in The Pointe. See the ad elsewhere in this paper.

 Look for the Star of the Sea Float in the Grosse Pointe Santa Parade this Friday.

 Advent begins next Sunday. A time for patient waiting...

Blessings upon you and your family - and keep an attitude of gratitude this week!

FORMING OUR FAITH

The Catholic Origins of Thanksgiving!

By Taylor Marshall

<https://www.catholiceducation.org/>

"This history books will tell you that the first Thanksgiving was celebrated by the pilgrims in 1621. Not true.

An interesting bit of trivia is that the first American Thanksgiving was actually celebrated on September 8, 1565 in St. Augustine, Florida. The Native Americans and Spanish settlers held a feast and the Holy Mass was offered.

A second similar "Thanksgiving" celebration occurred on American soil on April 30, 1598 in Texas when Don Juan de Oñate declared a day of Thanksgiving to be commemorated by the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

The Catholic origins of Thanksgiving don't stop there. Squanto, the beloved hero of Thanksgiving, was the Native American man who mediated between the Puritan Pilgrims and the Native Americans. Squanto had been enslaved by the English but he was freed by Spanish Franciscans. Squanto thus received baptism and became a Catholic. So it was a baptized Catholic Native American who orchestrated what became known as Thanksgiving."

As Catholics, we are blessed to be able to celebrate Thanksgiving every time we receive the Eucharist, the Greek word for thanksgiving. Let us come to the table of the Lord in faith and thanksgiving today and always!

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving!! See you at Mass!

Little Sailors Child Care HELP WANTED!

Are you looking for a great way to get involved in the parish, love children and have some time to share on Sunday mornings?? Our Little Sailors Child Care program has taken off and we are in need of additional adult volunteers to share in the fun and activities with our 1–3 year old children while their parents attend the 9:30 Mass on Sundays.

We meet in Room 29 of the School where the children have lots of toys to engage their imagination under the direction of Miss Patty Solomon. All adult volunteers are required to participate in a safe environment workshop called Protecting God's Children.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

go and make disciples

On Thursday we will celebrate Thanksgiving Day.

It's a day of gratitude, when we give thanks for the abundance of blessings we have received both materially and spiritually. We thank God for the blessings of the food we eat, for our homes and family and friends, for our health, our work and our play.

We thank Him for being with us in all our joys and sorrows, for comfort in our sadness, for His companionship in our loneliness. We are grateful for all our yesterdays, today and tomorrows.

We are called to bring Christ to all. Getting to know Him, helps us love and serve Him.

We may be missing something essential by just believing and following the rules and rituals. Faith and obedience . . . these are central to our Catholic Christian faith. And they should be!

But are we sometimes so ready to charge on to the next act of faith and obedience that our prayers of gratitude are rote? Do we forget about taking time to just be with Jesus?

Of course, we are thankful for all of God's blessings and of course God understands. But what do we miss? We can miss a relationship with Jesus, the intimacy that comes from "falling" at His feet in gratitude and thanking Him personally and directly.

Jesus invites us into a personal relationship with Him. Saying "thank you" should be more than just a heartfelt emotion. Giving thanks can open up our hearts to know Jesus more personally and intimately.

In this season of thanksgiving, let's give God the thanks He deserves from us. But let's also allow our thanks to draw us nearer to Him and help us build a personal relationship with Him.

Happy Thanksgiving. May God continue to bless you abundantly.

Students at Our Lady Star of the Sea recognize that their voices are a gift from God which they are called to use not only to share His love but to lead others to Him.

Please plan to join us
Thursday, December 12th
at 1:30 p.m. or 6:30 p.m.

Teens from Ignite Youth Ministry were able to visit the residents at Sunrise on Vernier and play board games. Over the course of the evening, the group was able to play games with over ten residents and at the end of the evening a resident mentioned that this was "the highlight of my day."

The teens really enjoyed their visit and were so touched by the comment that they have decided to go back in December.
