Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

"normalcy" returning to our life.

We are working to "reboot" the parish and get back to many of the aspects and activities of the parish that has been suspended during the past two years. Obviously you know about the upcoming Fall Fest on Saturday, Sept. 24. We found a similar event last October to be a huge success. So many people had a good time outside with some darn tasty food (from a variety of food trucks), activities for the children, entertainment, and finally happy winners in the Catch a Lucky Star Raffle. This year we are moving this event up a few weeks to hopefully catch beautiful weather and extra day light! I hope you are planning to attend and bring some neighbors and friends! It is time to welcome back all who have been away, for whatever reason, to this wonderful Star community of faith.

You know what has been asked of me in the past month more than any other "parish" questions???? "When are we going to have coffee and donuts?" No kidding! Really!! Right now, we are planning on the return of coffee and donuts on Sunday, Sept. 25, the morning after Fall Fest. It will be a big "welcome back" weekend!! This will be a wonderful opportunity to get reconnected with some fellow parishioners. It will also be an opportunity to see how often we will have coffee and donut Sunday, but that will be dependent upon the volunteers who step forward so we can have this desired event on a regular basis. So mark your calendar for the weekend of Sept. 24 and 25 and think who you can invite to join you on this big welcome back weekend!

 This Wednesday, Sept.14, we will resume Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for adoration in the Parish Office Chapel from 11 am until 2 pm. This is another item that obviously got cancelled two years ago and we are now finally able to resume this wonderful practice.

 It is time to, once again, have altar servers at our weekend Masses! Any student in grades 5- 12, public, private, or parochial school, who would like to serve at the altar of God, please email me [msgr.smetanka@stargp.org] with your name and phone number. We will have a training session in the next few weeks! It is a great ministry that takes little extra time from your normal Mass attendance every Sunday/weekend.

 If you would like to be a part of bringing back Sunday Coffee and Donuts, please email me as well. In the past we had one or two people available to pick up the donuts and have them in The Pointe by 7:45 am so the "picker-upper" can then participate in the 8 am Mass). Other volunteers are then needed to make the coffee, set out the donuts, replenish them between Mass and then clean up after. In the past all that was handled by two sets of volunteers, one for the earlier part of the morning and another for later part of the morning.

May Our Lady be with you this week and may she bring you closer to Christ!

Music Notes from Glenn Miller

About today's hymns

Our opening hymn, "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling" (Ritual Song, no. 743) was written by the eighteenth century English hymn writer Charles Wesley. Wesley wrote over 6,000 hymns (some believe the number is closer to 6,500). This hymn is a parody of a secular song by John Dryden from the fifth act of his opera King Arthur. Wesley's reuse of this material was not an effort to take advantage of something new and trendy but an expression of his conviction that nothing was beyond redemption or could not be enlisted for God's purposes. The text is rich with scriptural allusions, including Philippians 2: 5-11, John 1: 14, Isaiah 57: 15, Psalm 106: 4, Deuteronomy 28: 65 (stanza 1); John 10: 10, Malachi 3: 1, I Corinthians 3: 16-19, Revelation 22: 3, and I Thessalonians 5: 17 (stanza 2); and II Corinthians 5: 17, Galatians 6: 5, II Peter 3: 14, Psalm 51: 12, Luke 2: 30, II Corinthians 3: 18, and Revelation 4:10 (stanza 3). Its tune, Hyfrydol (pronounced huv-rod-ol) is one of many fine Welsh tunes which have made their mark on hymnody. It was composed by Rowland Huw Pritchard, and it is his most famous tune. Pritchard worked as a loom tender in a Welsh flannel company. He had a fine voice and was a song leader in his church at a time when musical culture was at a low ebb; there was not a single choir in his part of the country. It is said he composed this tune when he was twenty years old; he published it in a collection intended for the use of his church's Sunday School. His contribution to Welsh music is extensive, including a music instruction book for children. An interesting fact about this tune is that with one exception the melody lies within the first five notes of the scale, making it a very singable and easy tune to sing.

Our preparation hymn, "There's a Wideness in God's Mercy," (Ritual Song, no. 742) was written by Frederick William Faber and was first published in 1854 for use during parish missions he conducted in both England and Ireland. Faber studied at Oxford University, where he as a student became active in the Tractarians, a religious group which was the beginning of what became known as the Oxford Movement, a movement which insisted on the church's authority to teach catholic truth to the English as the divinely commissioned agent of Christ and his apostles. Their exploration of this authority began a movement which decisively affected English Christianity's understanding of sanctity, worship, and religious practice. The name Tractarians is derived from a series of pamphlets, or tracts, which expounded on church teaching as well as addressing issues of conflict between the government and the Church. Faber was deeply influenced by John Henry Newman, and, like Newman, eventually converted to Catholicism and became a priest. Faber founded a branch of Newman's order, the Priests of the Congregation of St. Philip Neri and, after his conversion, wrote one hundred and fifty hymns.

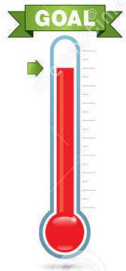

Our communion hymn, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" (Ritual Song, no. 766) is a metrical paraphrase of Psalm 23 by Henry Williams Baker and was first published in 1868. Baker was an English baron and was a high churchman, which means that in his worship and spiritual practice he valued highly ceremonial and disciplines rooted in tradition. He also had a practical bent of mind as reflected in two devotional books he published for his parish: "Family Prayers for the Use of the Those Who Have to Work Hard," and "Daily Textbook." Following the lead of the great hymnwriters Martin Luther and Isaac Watts, Baker introduces New Testament Christianity into the psalm paraphrase: the cup becomes the eucharistic chalice (stanza four), the cross takes its place with the rod and staff (stanza three), and the pastoral caretaker assumes the role of the "Good Shepherd" in St John's gospel (John 10: 11-18, stanza five.) The entire third stanza is based on one of Jesus' parables, which is today's Gospel lesson. The tune, St. Columba, is a traditional Irish melody and is named for St. Columba, who brought Christianity to Ireland and incidentally was the first to report sighting the Loch Ness monster.

Our closing hymn, "Amazing Grace" (Ritual Song, no. 737), was written by John Newton, an ex-slave ship captain who became a leading Anglican evangelical and who was largely self-taught. The son of a ship-master, he went to sea at an early age, first as a midshipman in the Royal Navy. He eventually became a the master of a slave ship. Deeply influenced by the reading of the Bible and the Imitation of Christ by Thomas à Kempis, Newton was converted during a storm at sea. He left the sea to become a tide surveyor in Liverpool, during which time he prepared for ordination in the Church of England by studying Hebrew and Greek and reading theological literature. Ultimately he become rector of St. Mary's, Woolnoth, in the city of London, where he drew together a large congregation and increased his influence in the evangelical movement. During the latter part of his life he was very active in the anti-slavery movement, and lived long enough to hear the news that Parliament had abolished the British slave trade in 1807. Newton wrote this hymn sometime before 1779. It is based on King David's questioning prayer: "Who am I, O Lord God,... that Thou hast brought me this far?" (I Chronicles 17: 16-17.) The original title of this hymn was "Faith's review and expectation." As with other hymns of Newton, "Amazing Grace" is autobiographical, alluding to his conversion, and that change of lifestyle that it led to, together with a sense of thanksgiving for the guiding hand of God in his life. Newton wrote his own epitaph: John Newton clerk / once an Infidel and Libertine / A servant of slaves in Africa / was by the rich mercy of our Lord and Saviour / Jesus Christ / Preserved, restored, pardoned / and appointed to preach the Faith / He had long laboured to destroy.

Call for Catechists!

Like Jesus called His disciples, He calls us too, to teach the Catholic faith and spread the good word of our Lord and Savior. As a catechist, we play the important role of accompanying our young people along their journey with Jesus.

At this time, we are in need of a catechist for grade 6, and a female catechist for our 7th grade girls. Being a catechist involves teaching the faith to our elementary/ middle school age children registered in our Faith Formation program.

Our program meets on Tuesdays from 4-5:15 pm for grades 1-6, and from 6-7:15 pm for grades 7 and 8.

Our program runs from September 27 through May 2. All materials will be provided for you, there is no training required.

DRAWING STRENGTH FROM OUR LADY OF SORROWS BY KIMBERLY HAHN

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, wife of Dr. Scott Hahn and mother of six, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ.

Stewardship Thoughts

Today's Scripture readings focus on God's divine mercy and forgiveness. In the Book of Exodus, Moses pleads with God to be merciful to the Israelites, who sinned by fashioning and venerating a golden calf. St. Paul, in his First Letter to Timothy, illustrates God's mercy in spite of his own former ignorance and arrogance in persecuting Christians. This topic of mercy and forgiveness culminates in the Gospel (long form), when the evangelist St. Luke narrates Jesus' proclamation to the Pharisees: the parable of the Prodigal Son, including the jubilation his father expresses upon his return. As humble stewards, we recognize our unworthiness and seek the Lord's mercy and forgiveness for all sins. Through God's example of forgiveness, we also strive to forgive those who "trespass against us." Has anyone wronged us who we need to forgive? Do we need forgiveness from someone we have wronged? Participating in Confession and the graces that flow from it may make this process easier.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things
and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood
from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest,
give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.
Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity.
Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.
With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship
as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
St. Anne, pray for us.
St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.
