Opposing Proposal 3

In Last weeks bulletin, we discussed Proposal 3 (the “Reproductive Freedom for All” proposal), and how it will amend Michigan’s Constitution to create a startling broad right to abortion. In the first article we learned that the proposal’s broad language (giving the right to “every individual”) authorizes a minor to obtain an abortion without parental consent or notice. In the second article, we learned that the same would be true if a minor sought a sterilization procedure, and that the proposal would also authorize partial-birth abortion. Proposal 3’s supporters say that the State will still be able to regulate abortion “after fetal viability.” But that is grossly misleading. The proposal specifically allows abortion through all nine months of pregnancy—notwithstanding any contrary Michigan law—if an abortionist decides, in his professional judgment, that an abortion is necessary to protect the “physical or mental health” of the mother. As a legal matter, such a “mental health” exception is widely acknowledged to be so broad as to justify abortion on demand until birth. An abortionist need merely document that the prospect of having a child is causing extreme anxiety and stress for the mother. And while Proposal 3 supporters say a judge won’t have to allow such a broad exception, the proposal’s language specifically requires courts to defer to the abortionist’s “professional judgment.” No matter how a voter feels about abortion, Michigan’s Constitution should not be amended to allow abortion on demand through all nine months of pregnancy. Please tell everyone you know: vote “NO” on Proposal 3 on November 8th. John Bursch is a constitutional lawyer and former Michigan Solicitor General. Through Alliance Defending Freedom, he represents the Michigan Catholic Conference and Right to Life of Michigan in court to uphold Michigan’s pro-life laws.

Becoming a Eucharistic Minister

Volunteering to serve as a Eucharistic Minister is a wonderful way to get involved in Parish Ministry.

Serving as a Eucharistic Minister is a great way to deepen your devotion to the Eucharist.

Eucharistic Ministers are commissioned by the Archdiocese of Detroit for a period of 5 years.

Eucharistic Ministers are not scheduled. EMHCs are invited to sign up on the sign-up board in the Gathering Space before Mass. So, EMHCs serve at the Mass they normally attend.

Eucharistic Ministers are asked to go to the Sacristy after Mass to assist with washing the vessels used at Mass.

NO PROPOSAL 3

A committee called Reproductive Freedom for All (RFFA) is working to amend the Michigan Constitution. Led by Planned Parenthood and the ACLU, this committee's amendment would create a new unlimited and unregulated right to abortion in our state. This radical proposal is not about reproductive freedom, which already exists. This poorly worded amendment would repeal dozens of state laws, including laws unrelated to abortion. It could affect any law related to pregnancy and abortion and does not exempt minor children. Vote NO on proposal 3 this November.

The following state laws are at risk:

- Parental consent for abortion
- Ban on school employees helping children have abortions
- Laws requiring parental consent for medical treatment related to pregnancy, including sterilizations and hormone therapy
- Late-term abortion bans
- Screening for women being coerced to have abortion
- Health and safety requirements for abortion facilities
- Requirement that only doctors perform abortion
- Conscience protections for doctors/nurses who object to abortions
- Ban on tax-funded abortions
- Michigan's original 1846 and revised 1931 abortion ban
- Bans on statutory rape and incest

Want to learn more?

Scan the code or visit supportMIwomenandchildren.org to read the amendment, what it could do to our state, and for more opportunities to get involved to stop it.

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council.

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, which culminated in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.

Saint Teresa of Ávila: A True Reformer by Christopher Blum

Dr. Christopher Blum unfolds the inspiring life of St. Teresa and her important role in the Catholic Reformation. After having already been a nun for twenty years, she had a radical transformation in her own life and then became one of the most powerful forces for bringing about conversion and positive change in the history of the Church. Listen and learn about this Mystic, Doctor of the Church, and True Reformer.

Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood
from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest,
give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.
Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity.
Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.
With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
St. Anne, pray for us.
St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.

An Invitation to Serve as a Lector

The Parish needs some new lectors to serve along with our existing team of dedicated lectors.

Do you read aloud well? We'd love for you to share your gift for reading aloud with us by proclaiming the Word during Mass.

Our lectors find that participation in the Lector Ministry gives them an increased understanding of and appreciation for Sacred Scripture.

Lectors are normally scheduled to serve about once a month at the Mass they normally attend.

No experience is necessary. Anyone who has been Confirmed may serve as a lector. A single training session will be scheduled at your convenience.

Contact Terry Varani for additional information.

Stewardship Thoughts

In today's Scripture readings in the Second Book of Kings and St. Luke's Gospel, we hear of the miraculous curing of those who have contracted leprosy. In Kings, Naaman is encouraged to seek out the prophet Elisha to cure his disease. After much uncertainty, he follows Elisha's counsel and is healed. In gratitude, Naaman constructs an altar in his homeland to no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the Lord. In the Gospel of St. Luke, the evangelist narrates the account of the 10 lepers who encounter Jesus en route to Jerusalem and are healed. Yet only one, a Samaritan, returns in gratitude to thank Jesus. As stewards on a faith journey, do we remember to thank our Lord for His abundant blessings, or do we take our gifts for granted? Have we adopted an "attitude of gratitude?" Thank the Lord daily for at least five blessings received.

Ushers Needed

We are looking for parishioners of all ages, male and female, to participate in the usher ministry.

If you are at all interested in being an usher, please let me or any of the ushers know and we'll be happy to answer any questions you may have. The ushers thank you for your support and let you know it's a pleasure to serve.

About today's hymns

Our opening hymn, "Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven" (Ritual Song, no. 684) is a paraphrase of Psalm 103 written by Henry Francis Lyte. Lyte deserted an early intention to pursue a medical career for the priesthood. This was sung as the processional hymn of the wedding of Queen Elizabeth II, and as a result became one of the most popular English hymns. The tune was composed for this text, and its name, Lauda anima, is Latin for "Praise, my soul."

Our presentation hymn, "Keep in Mind" (Ritual Song, no. 940) is based on today's second reading, II Timothy 2: 8-14. It was written and composed by Lucien Deiss CSS, a French Catholic priest, biblical exegete and liturgical composer. Entering the Congregation of the Holy Ghost in 1942, Deiss composed over 400 liturgical compositions. Passionate about the Bible and liturgy, he was initially professor of Holy Scripture at the major seminary of Brazzaville, Congo. He was a specialist in biblical exegesis and he formerly occupied the Chair of Sacred Scripture and Dogmatic Theology at the Grand Scholasticat des Peres du Saint-Esprit in Paris. He was heavily involved in the liturgical reform of the Lectionary during Vatican II and was a member of the Concilium on Liturgy. As a missionary priest, he gave retreats and worked with the poor in several nations of the world, including Africa, Haiti and Taiwan, for many years.

Fr. Lucien wrote hundreds of liturgical songs and hymns, and for this he is best known in the United States.

Our communion hymn, "I Am the Bread of Life" (Ritual Song, no. 931) was written and composed by Sister Suzanne Toolan in 1966 for the Archdiocese of San Francisco, and is a rendering of verses from John 6. Born in Lansing, Michigan, Sister Suzanne moved to Hollywood at 17, before she became a professed Sister of Mercy. She earned a master's degree in humanities and then began her teaching career, directing choirs for high schools, colleges, parish, and seminaries. She continued her music studies, which included composition work at Michigan State University, liturgical study at the University of Notre Dame, and choral work with Robert Shaw at San Diego State University. A prominent American spokeswoman for the music and prayer of the Taizé ecumenical community from France having brought the music and prayer of the Taizé ecumenical community from France to the Mercy Center in 1982, she leads many Taizé-style retreats. Sister Suzanne attributes the popularity of "I Am the Bread of Life," which has been translated into 20 languages, to its "message of resurrection, which is so strong in these words of Jesus. We so need that message of hope." On her 80th birthday, she released an autobiography, I Am the Bread of Life, which includes the story behind her beloved hymn. Sister Suzanne is the resident liturgist and directs Taizé prayer at Mercy Center, a ministry of the Sisters of Mercy in Burlingame, California.

Our closing hymn, "I Danced in the Morning" (Ritual Song, no. 809) was written by English song writer Sydney Carter in 1963. Carter was a leader in the church folk song movement of the 1960's. The text is naturally thick with biblical references, with allusions in almost every line. It is also helpful to keep in mind that this hymn affirms what could be called a Dance of Life in opposition to the Dance of Death motif that received much attention in European culture from the late Middle Ages onward, emphasizing instead that the Good News centers on the gift of life. About this hymn Carter wrote: I see Christ as the incarnation of the piper who is calling us. He dances that shape and pattern which is at the heart of our reality... I sing of the dancing pattern in the life and words of Jesus. Whether Jesus ever leaped in Galilee to the rhythm of a pipe or drum I do not know. We are told that David danced (and as an act of worship too), so it is not impossible.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things
and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
