Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Believe it or not here we are at the end of October and the start of November already. The falling leaves and the change of season certainly remind us that the earth in this part of our world is starting to fade away and ready to go dormant. November has also traditionally been a time in the Church when we pause and become more mindful of our beloved faithful departed. The Church provides very fitting readings as we will hear more about the end of time and harvesting of all the souls by God.

Tomorrow is All Hallows Eve, or as many call it, Halloween. The noun "hallow" means a holy person or saint. Back in the 8th century, Pope Gregory III dedicated a chapel in St. Peter's Basilica to all the saints. Pope Gregory IV then made the feast day for all the saints universal and made November 1 the day to celebrate All Hallows (All Saints). Later, anticipating this feast, people started calling October 31 All Hallows Eve, which then eventually morphed into "Halloween." While we do not think today so much of Halloween as an extension of All Saints Day, we certainly can get back to those roots!

God's saints come in all sizes, shapes, colors and ages. Some saints are remembered and known by name, officially recognized by the Church. However, most saints are unknown to us. Think of the people you would call a "saint," because of their lived holiness and personal witness. So Tuesday, All Saints Day, we celebrate the countless unknown and uncelebrated saints who have done the work of God in every age. Mass on this Holyday of Obligation are at 7:30 am, 10 am, and 7 pm.

Wednesday, November 2, is All Souls Day, a companion feast to All Saints day. All Souls Day is a solemn memorial for all the departed Christians who were not exemplary saints or martyrs. On All Saints Day we celebrated, for our benefit, our union with those holy men and women whose good deed can assist us on this earthly journey. On All Souls Day, we ask that our prayers may somehow assist those who have died, especially those in Purgatory. On All Souls Day evening, we will gather as a parish for a special Mass of Remembrance. At this Mass, we will remember in a special way, through the reading of names, all those buried from Our Lady Star of the Sea during the last 12 months. This special Mass of Remembrance is at 7 pm. All are invited. We will also remember all those who are inscribed in the Book of Life. [The Book of Life is available today so that you may inscribe the names of your departed loved ones who have died during the past year. The names inscribed during the previous year are still in the book so please do not duplicate names]. Everyone is invited to this special evening Mass and pray for all the faithful departed. Please consider it!

 Time to turn back your clock this Saturday evening, Nov. 5.

 Trunk or Treat was a great evening! Thanks to all who planned it and participated in it!

 Thank you for your participation in our Food Drive. Many will certainly appreciate your thoughtfulness and generosity.

 We have lined up some wonderful musicians for our weekend liturgies, filling in after Mr. Miller's departure. Please know that our new Music Minister will begin on November 15. I am very happy and look forward to his starting date. More about our new minister next week.

Pray hard and strive for sainthood...because that is what we are called to be!

The Saint Challenge is launching on All Saint's Day, November 1st. It is a year-long series of challenges based on the saint of the day. In 90 seconds you'll learn a little fact about the saint of the day, and be given a challenge inspired by that saint. It could be a corporal or spiritual work of mercy, or something to improve your interior life and your relationship with God and neighbor. The Saint Challenge is free, and you can find more information and find ways to sign up at

Prayer for Life and Right Laws

Almighty ever-living God,
 you bestow the gift of life
 as you form each of us in our mother's womb.

Look on our nation, state, and community
 and awaken in every heart
 reverence for life.

Protect our state from unjust laws.
 In your Name, bring to defeat
 every attack against the sacredness of life.

Safeguard the rights of parents,
 whom you have entrusted with the care and formation of their children.

Help all who believe in Jesus
 to proclaim the Gospel of Life to their neighbors.

Dispel every anxiety and fear.
 Strengthen the bond between parents and their unborn child.

May mothers and fathers accept and nurture the gift of life
 made in your image and likeness.

Our Lady, Queen of the Family, pray for us!
 St. Michael the Archangel, pray for us!
 St. Joseph, Protector of the Unborn, pray for us

Opposing Proposal 3

This is now our 6th week discussing the startlingly broad language of Proposal 3 (the “Reproductive Freedom for All” proposal). In addition to violating the Church’s teaching that every human life is sacred and must be protected from conception, the proposal allows minors to obtain sterilizations as well as abortions without parental consent or even notice, effectively allows abortion on demand through 9 months of pregnancy, prevents the State from protecting unborn life or stopping discrimination based on a baby’s sex, race, or disability, and effectively exempts abortionists from health and safety regulations. It gets worse. In subsection (3), Proposal 3 says that the state shall not “penalize, prosecute, or otherwise take adverse action against someone for aiding or assisting” a mother in obtaining an abortion. That means if a teacher or counselor takes a student to obtain an abortion without notifying the child’s parents, there are no legal consequences. If someone assists with an abortion—even if they have no medical license or training whatsoever—there can also be no legal consequences. Most bizarrely, if an abortionist engages in gross negligence and severely harms or kills the mother as well as her child during an abortion, he will have a constitutional defense to any malpractice claim: Michigan’s Constitution would prevent the State from imposing an “adverse action,” i.e., a state-court judgment, against him. No matter how a voter feels about abortion, Michigan’s Constitution should not be amended to allow non-medical providers to assist in abortions and to absolve abortionists of medical-malpractice liability. Please tell everyone you know: vote “NO” on Proposal 3 on November 8th. John Bursch is a constitutional lawyer and former Michigan Solicitor General. Through Alliance Defending Freedom, he represents the Michigan Catholic Conference and Right to Life of Michigan in court to uphold Michigan’s pro-life laws.

STAR SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Donna Liburdi – Resource Room & Learning Center

Lately in the Resource Room...

Having a Resource Room for students is a great way to spend the extra time for students to get the individualized help they need.

With the lower grades we have been working on reading and spelling words and reading sight words. In the upper grades I help students with their tests and quizzes.

A little bit about Mrs. Liburdi

Hobby: Kayaking

Favorite place to travel:
Leland, MI

Food: Spaghetti & Meatballs

Favorite thing about teaching:
Helping students have an "ah-ha!" moment

Prayer: Our Father

These days...

Every day is different in the Resource Room. Everything mostly depends on the needs of each teacher and each student. You never know what a typical day will feel like!

It feels like home here. I enjoy coming to work every day!

Prayer Ministry is Returning!

After two years, our Prayer Ministry, is returning! Has the Holy Spirit ever “nudged” your heart to help people pray and experience what St. Matthew described, “For where two or three are gathered in My name, I am there in their midst.” (Mt. 18:19-20) Now is the time to investigate this powerful ministry! Our simple one hour training session will answer your questions and remove your fears.

Our Prayer Ministers stay a short time after the Sat. 4 pm and the Sunday 9:30 am Masses, scheduled and based on your availability.

The Training session will be following the Sunday Nov. 13, 11:30 Mass in church. This sessions also serves as a refresher for present prayer ministers!

For more information, or answers to your questions, please call Midge Culos (313-623-7033) or Robbie Henrichs (313-333-6637).

Pray for discernment of your participation in this ministry. It is a wonderful privilege to be a Prayer Minister, serving as God’s instrument of grace and consolation.

An Invitation to Serve as a Lector

The Parish needs some new lectors to serve along with our existing team of dedicated lectors.

Do you read aloud well? We’d love for you to share your gift for reading aloud with us by proclaiming the Word during Mass.

Our lectors find that participation in the Lector Ministry gives them an increased understanding of and appreciation for Sacred Scripture.

Lectors are normally scheduled to serve about once a month at the Mass they normally attend.

No experience is necessary. Anyone who has been Confirmed may serve as a lector. A single training session will be scheduled at your convenience.

Contact Terry Varani for additional information. (313 492-8327 or terry.varani@gmail.com)

Ushers Needed

We are looking for parishioners of all ages, male and female, to participate in the usher ministry.

If you are at all interested in being an usher, please let me or any of the ushers know and we’ll be happy to answer any questions you may have. The ushers thank you for your support and let you know it’s a pleasure to serve.

Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood
from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest,
give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.
Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity.
Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests,
comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.
With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
St. Anne, pray for us.
St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.

Stewardship Thoughts

Today, in the Book of Wisdom, the sacred author indicates the Lord's love for His creation — even those who sin so that they may repent. In St. Luke's Gospel, the dishonest tax collector Zacchaeus scampers up a sycamore tree to view Jesus in the crowd. Zacchaeus' meeting with Jesus is so powerful that he undergoes a life-changing conversion in Christ. He vows to donate half his wealth to the poor and pay back four times over anyone he has cheated. Due to his charitable actions, Jesus proclaims that Zacchaeus and his household have gained eternal salvation. Stewardship, too, embraces a conversion of mind to heart — to encounter Jesus in a deeper discipleship in Christ. Those who experience this gift of conversion will find true peace and joy, not only now, but also in the next world. Ongoing conversion is a life-long process. Begin deepening your discipleship with the Lord by attending an evangelization session at your parish, like Alpha or ChristLife.

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

The Catholic Take on Halloween

Remembering the dead in purgatory, celebrating the Saints, and the Catholic perspective on Halloween.

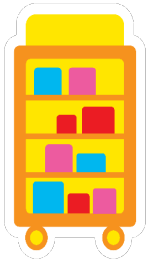

Purgatory by Dr. Scott Hahn

This remarkable talk is an essential resource for answering the various objections that Protestants make to the Catholic Faith, including the authority of the Pope, the doctrine of Purgatory, devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, the Sacrament of Confession, and the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

Happy reading,

Mr. Glenn Miller celebrated his last Mass at Star this past Sunday as our Music Minister. Glenn is moving to Portland, Oregon to be an Artist in Residence This photo was taken with our Adult Choir just before Mass.

Although Glenn's time at Star was short, he became deeply aware of Our Lady's impact in his life, and we are extremely grateful that his life's path came through Star of the Sea. In Glenn's words, "how important and absolutely primary it is that we heed Mary's example; her example of utmost humility each and every day in all that we do."

Glenn also made sure that the choirs prayed before and after practice/rehearsal. Here is one of his favorite prayers that sums up why we praise God with song: "Bless O Lord us thy servants who minister in thy temple. Grant that what we sing with our lips we may believe in our hearts. And what we believe in our hearts we may show forth in our lives. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

GOOD LUCK GLENN!

FAITH DIRECT eGIVING

Are you ready to "Fall into eGiving?"

After the joyful summer months, the Fall season is a great time to streamline your stewardship. eGiving is a way to simplify your giving and provide steady, consistent support that helps us be ready with programs, services, and ministries for our church families and for those in our community. Your recurring gifts will help strengthen our parish and sustain our ministries throughout the year, even if you need to miss a Sunday service.

It's easy to get started.

Here are the ways to sign up:

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things
and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen.
