Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

went about his "ordinary" life of bringing people to God for the sake of building God's Kingdom on earth and preparing that eternal home for his disciples in the hereafter!

The Mass is one of the great gifts the Church has to give to the world. It is life giving to all who come and open their hearts and minds. What more could we ask for as we recall the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus as he gives us his very Body and Blood!

As we begin this new year I ask you to be renewed in your participation in the celebration of the Mass and help others to likewise participate as well. First of all, it is good to be on time for the start of the Mass. Fr. Jeff and I, or other priests, are prompt in starting on time so know that the Mass (especially 9:30 and 11:30) really starts at that appointed time! Second, as our Mass counts proved a few months ago, we have plenty of seats inside the worship space. There is no need for families or individuals to simply enter the gathering space and stop there. Come inside! The ushers will be happy to assist you in finding a seat. (They might ask you to wait a bit so as not to disturb the proclamation of the readings but they will escort you to a seat that is comfortable.) The gathering space is meant for the gathering of worshipers before and after Mass and for parents who need to temporarily remove a child from the worship space for a brief period of time. (Sometimes I see those in the Gathering Space socializing during Mass ... this is really not participating in Mass!) Third, I encourage you to open a hymnal and please join in singing. Mass and its music is not a performance to sit and listen to others but a prayer for all to join. (Remember: he who sings prays twice!) We have great acoustics that help to fill the church with wonderful sounds if everyone will join in singing. It also enlivens the liturgy and fills the spirit of those participating. Fourth, listen to the prayers (those at the beginning, the prayer over the gifts and the post communion prayer). Listen to the various parts of the Eucharistic prayer. What strikes you anew? What phrases have you not heard before? How is it that you can offer your life with that of the bread and wine offered that is changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus? After you receive Holy Communion and return to your pew (and not exit through the doors!), reflect on the words and action of the Mass so that your encounter with the living Jesus you just received can deepen your faith and love for Jesus. Fifth, and the end of every Mass, after the final blessing, we are encouraged to go forth and announce the Kingdom. What is it from Mass can you take and offer to others? This is our mission. To take Christ and bring his life and love to others.

 In two weeks we have our school Open House. A great time to bring some prospective families through our "school of excellence." A great school providing great education and formation in a great parish community. Have your neighbors and other interested parties check it out during the Open House or any time!!

See you in church! Encounter the Lord at Mass and know His deep love for you. Msgr Gary Smetanka

We warmly welcome the newly baptized

Stewardship Thoughts

In his First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul invites his followers to holiness through Christ Jesus. We must be mindful that sanctity — to make holy — is not reserved only for the “saints” of old. In St. John’s Gospel, God, through His Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit, calls us all to become saints and lead lives full of grace and holiness. Do we, as Christian stewards, strive to embrace this call to holiness? An important step toward sanctity is prayer. Make time each day for the Rosary, Scripture, and, if possible, Mass and reception of Holy Communion. Participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation often, and offer service to your parish and neighbors in need.

Ushers Needed

We are looking for parishioners of all ages, male and female, to participate in the usher ministry.

If you are at all interested in being an usher, please let me or any of the ushers know and we’ll be happy to answer any questions you may have. The ushers thank you for your support and let you know it’s a pleasure to serve.

Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, give us men willing to sacrifice and serve. Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity. Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call. With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

St. Anne, pray for us.

St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.

FAITH DIRECT

The new year is filled with hope and promise as we seek to grow our vital ministries, explore new ways to share the good news of Christ’s love, and reflect His care and mercy to those in need throughout the community. To continue to make a difference in 2023, Our Lady Star of the Sea is reaching out to our parishioners.

Begin the new year with eGiving to help sustain and build ministries throughout 2023 that reflect the steadfast promise of God’s love. The need is great in our community, and your generous online gifts will help people all around us.

We prayerfully request that you consider signing up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet. You can set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift. Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/MI1044, or text ‘Enroll’ to 313-887-6612. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

God Bless You,
Msgr. Gary Smetanka

"Many people nowadays say, 'I wish I could see his shape, his appearance, his clothes, his sandals.'

Only look! You see him! You touch him! You eat him!"

(St John Chrysostom)

Spend an hour per week in the Eucharistic Presence of Our Lord by your own personal commitment of the day and the hour. Our Lord cannot be outdone in generosity when we give to Him of ourselves in prayer.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
 I believe that you are present
 in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment
 receive you sacramentally,
 come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace you as if you were already there
 and unite myself wholly to you.
 Never permit me to be separated from you.
 Amen.
