Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). We have this great feast to increase our appreciation of this great gift of the Eucharist in our Church and in our lives.

Saint Pope John Paul II gave us his 14th encyclical entitled, “Ecclesia de Eucharistia” (“Church of the Eucharist”). The encyclical begins with the most simple but direct statements: “The church draws her life from the Eucharist. This truth does not simply express a daily experience of faith, but recapitulates the heart of the mystery of the church.”

It can be so simple for us to take for granted this great gift of the eucharist. Maybe we feel we come to Mass so often and it usually seems to be the same thing over and over again. However, if we really contemplate what Christ has done for us in giving us His Body and Blood for our very lives through the celebration of the Mass, we can only be drawn into “profound amazement and gratitude.” As Pope John Paul II wrote in his conclusion of the encyclical: “In the humble signs of bread and wine changed into his body and blood, Christ walks beside us as our strength and our food for the journey, and he enables us to become for everyone witnesses of hope. If in the presence of this mystery, reason experiences its limits, the heart, enlightened by the grace of the Holy Spirit, clearly sees the response that is demanded and bows low in adoration and unbounded love.”

Maybe some people think of the Eucharist only as the physical, i.e., the sacrament, or the consecrated host and Precious Blood. That is certainly one aspect of the Eucharist. But hopefully we place the physical sacrament into the whole context of the Eucharistic Liturgy or the Mass, because it is from the celebration of the Eucharistic Liturgy that we receive the Blessed Sacrament in the host and the Precious Blood. Hence, the Church places utmost importance on the whole Mass and utmost importance on participating in the whole Mass. In “the old days” people were taught that one had to be present at Mass by the proclamation of the Gospel “for Mass to count.” In one way that teaching still holds true. Yet, on the other hand, one should be present for the whole celebration of the liturgy of the Word, i.e., by the time of the first reading, for “Mass to count.” The Church wants us to experience the presence of God in all these liturgical elements, not only through the Eucharistic elements. The Church also believes so much in this great gift of Jesus himself that she obligates us to participate in this Eucharist each and every Sunday, not just when we feel like or when there are no sports event, practice, shopping trip or other things to do on a Sunday! This feast is also a good time to remember to be present until the end of Mass as well. The point of Mass is not to simply receive Holy Communion and then leave. The whole experience, the whole prayer, is important. (Do you visit a family members house on Thanksgiving and walk out once you eat the turkey?)

The celebration of the Mass is truly awesome indeed and maybe, ultimately, too mind boggling for us! But the Church gives us the celebration of Mass and the Eucharist so we can encounter Christ in our daily life and then be transformed into that image and presence of Christ in the world around us. The readings and homily are meant, not to necessarily teach or catechize the faith, but to point how the Word of God we hear at Mass is being encountered by us and is alive indeed in the midst of our lives as we hear it! With hearts of gratitude for that presence and action of God in our midst, we then offer that sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, i.e., Jesus in the Eucharist. Jesus then becomes food for our daily journey so we can be Christ to others in our daily life! Yes- it is mind boggling indeed!

 A few words about Mass Intentions. Sometimes there is confusion about Mass intentions and if the Mass was “said” for the specific intention as asked for by a person. Perhaps a person did not hear a name announced prior to Mass and Half and Half continued... thereby think the Mass intention was not fulfilled. Or maybe the name was incorrectly mispronounced. Or maybe a person read the wrong names for a day and Mass. Or maybe a name was misspelled in the bulletin. The bottom line is, none of these matter when it comes to the fact if the Mass was offered as intended. Mass intentions do not need to be published or announced at any time in the Mass. Mass intentions are solely for the celebrant of the Mass. As I am sure you understand, every now and then humans make mistakes! Maybe the name had a misspelling. Or the wrong name was read. That does not negate the Mass intention, Here we priests have a Mass intention book that we sign before every Mass for the intention that was given to us. And if by human error that might be even a slight error in spelling...I fully believe God knows the correct spelling and for whom the Mass was intended to be offered!

 Thank you for your sacrifices and donations to the Catholic Services Appeal. We are trying to complete this campaign soon so your help and cooperation would be very much appreciated. Through your gifts, you share in the education and formation of our future priests, lay ministers in the church, catechists, many social services, Right to Life initiatives, youth and young adult ministry, marriage and family ministry, media evangelization and so much more. Please remember, a gift or pledge to the CSA goes directly to more than 160 very Catholic programs and ministries that share Christ with others. So if the parishioners who have not yet given even made a gift of $40 or $50, we can meet our CSA target and assist hundred or thousands of people through the CSA ministries! Think about it. It is good deal all the way around with a gift to the CSA!

Have a great week blessing the Lord for His goodness.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Stewardship Thoughts

Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

The Scripture readings for today's Feast of Corpus Christi focus on the profound mystery of bread and wine consecrated into the Body and Blood of Christ. The Book of Deuteronomy foreshadows the Eucharist with a retelling of the epic story of God's gift of manna to the Israelites, which nourished them in the wilderness. Both St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians and St. John's Gospel emphasize the real, true, and substantial presence of the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ in Holy Communion. Jesus especially brings this home for us in the Gospel: Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. Our Lord promises eternal life, and His words bring great hope and comfort even in the most difficult of times. Conversion of mind to heart occurs in faithful stewards who reflect on this beautiful Gospel passage. To satisfy your thirst for Christ, consider accepting His invitation to attend the Sunday Eucharistic celebration and receive Communion, as well as at weekday Mass when possible.

Why Should I enroll my child in Faith Formation Class?

For children and young people, religious education is where the parish accompanies their parents on the journey of sharing the Gospel with their children and forming them as they grow into mature young Catholics. It cannot be emphasized enough that the parents are the first, and best, teachers of their children. What you do in your home will echo down the years of the lives of your children. YOU are the Domestic Church! The major sacramental moments that children experience at First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation are important parts of the journey of faith, but the journey doesn't end with them, it only begins.

We are now accepting registrations for the 2023-2024 school year.

Classes begin in September.

Grades 1-6 Tuesdays, 4:00—5:15 PM

Grades 7 & 8 Tuesdays 6:00 —7:15 PM

What is a Catechist?

The role of a Catechist is to enrich the faith formation of children. A Catechist is someone who lets the word of God echo through their life. Catechists do more than simply teaching the faith. A Catechist shares their faith and guides their students to learn how to apply and live their faith, as well.

We are in need of Catechists for our Faith Formation program this fall. All necessary materials will be provided, and training will be available.

Please consider joining our team!
