Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Tuesday, August 15, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary. This is the day that we celebrate Our Blessed Mother being assumed into heaven, body and soul. It is a Holyday of Obligation this year.

Catholics and many other Christians celebrate the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This significant feast day recalls the spiritual and physical departure of the mother of Jesus Christ from the earth, when both her soul and her body were taken into the presence of God.

Venerable Pope Pius XII confirmed this belief about the Virgin Mary as the perennial teaching of the Church when he defined it formally as a dogma of Catholic faith in 1950, invoking papal infallibility to proclaim, "that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever-Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory."

His Apostolic Constitution "Munificentissimus Deus" (Most Bountiful God), which defined the dogma....contained the Pontiff's accounts of many longstanding traditions by which the Church has celebrated the Assumption throughout its history.

The constitution also cited testimonies from the early Church fathers on the subject, and described the history of theological reflection on many Biblical passages which are seen as indicating that Mary was assumed into heaven following her death.

Although the bodily assumption of Mary is not explicitly recorded in Scripture, Catholic tradition identifies her with the "woman clothed with the sun" who is described in the 12th chapter of the Book of Revelation. [from Catholic News Service]

Throughout the year the church designates a number of her great solemnities as a Holyday of Obligation. These celebrate, and bring us to a heightened awareness, their significance to our faith. Some of those Holydays are quite common to us, like Christmas and Easter. Others are likewise at the core of our faith, i.e., Immaculate Conception (Dec. 8), Mary, Mother of God (Jan 1), All Saints (Nov. 1), and The Assumption of Our Blessed Mother into Heaven (Aug 15). The more we celebrate these significant events in our life, the more we bring them into the core of who we are as disciples of Jesus.

Our Masses for the holyday this Tuesday are at 7:30 am and 7:00 pm.

 The lower school roof is now complete. (Thank you to all those who have contributed to the CSA and the Raise the Roof campaign!). The new skylights certainly make the classrooms so much brighter. Work has also begun on some new additions to the school playground, thanks to the many generous contributions at the last two Auctions. (As you can imagine, commercial grade playground equipment is expensive but meant to last many years.)

 This coming Saturday, Aug. 19 at 6 pm, we are very happy to host Hubert Velten Chorale from Regensburg Germany.

May the Lord bless you this week and may you respond with a grateful heart!

FORMING OUR FAITH

For children and young people, religious education is where the parish accompanies their parents on the journey of sharing the Gospel with their children and forming them as they grow into mature young Catholics. It cannot be emphasized enough that the parents are the first, and best, teachers of their children. What you do in your home will echo down the years of the lives of your children. YOU are the Domestic Church! The major sacramental moments that children experience at First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation are important parts of the journey of faith, but the journey doesn't end with them, it only begins.

We are now accepting registrations for the 2023-2024 school year .

Classes begin in September.

Grades 1-6 Tuesdays, 4:00—5:15 PM

Grades 7 & 8 Tuesdays 6:00 —7:15 PM

Registration forms and more information is available online at www.olsos.org.

Click on the Faith Formation tab on top and select Youth Faith Formation

Registration closes September 1!

If you have any questions, contact the Faith Formation Office 313-884-7407 -OR- m.nesom@stargp.org

What is a Catechist?

The role of a Catechist is to enrich the faith formation of children. A Catechist is someone who lets the word of God echo through their life. Catechists do more than simply teaching the faith. A Catechist shares their faith and guides their students to learn how to apply and live their faith, as well.

We are in need of Catechists for our Faith Formation program this fall. All necessary materials will be provided, and training will be available.

Please consider joining our team!

thank you

Dear Star of the Sea Family,

For the last five years while I was studying at The Catholic University of America (and long before that, too!), you have made our parish a welcoming home for me. I am happy to be finished with my studies in Washington, DC and very much looking forward to my time as the weekend associate at Star starting in September.

As a sign of my gratitude for all your prayers and friendship, please join my family and me at the 4:00 Mass on Saturday, September 9. A light reception will follow in the Pointe.

Please, please no gifts. Each of you has been a gift to me and helped me in so many ways over the years. Please come and celebrate so that my family and I can express our gratitude for your generosity and hospitality.

Peace,

Fr. Brian Meldrum

Fall 2023 Adult Faith Study
What We Believe: The Beauty of the Catholic Faith

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic?
What do Catholics actually believe?

Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church. Written and presented by Marcellino D'Ambrosio and Andrew and Sarah Swafford, What We Believe: The Beauty of the Catholic Faith was filmed on location in Rome. In it you will discover:

- What Catholics truly believe
- Who Catholics truly are and how we are called to live
- The blessings of Creation, redemption, and newness of life in the Holy Spirit
- The profound gift of the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist, the source and summit of our Faith
- How to imitate Christ through prayer, through personal conversion, and through love for others

This study will meet for 10 weeks on Thursdays from 9:30-11 AM in the Parish Office or 7-8:30 PM in The Pointe beginning September 21, 2023. Classes will not meet on the Thursday of Thanksgiving. The cost for this study will be $35. To register for the study, please contact Meredith Nesom at m.nesom@stargp.org - or- (313) 884-7407

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish presents the "ASK Program" featuring the novel:
A Hiker's Guide to Purgatory by Michael Norton

An out of this world page-turner novel and a life-changing read
Read the book then join us for conversation with the author
Sunday, September 24th at 12:30 pm., in The Pointe

As we journey through life, whether we are 16 or 96, we can't help but think of the next level of our spiritual journey: heaven, purgatory, or the other place. One of my favorite reads for 2023 is Michael Norton's A Hiker's Guide to Purgatory. The protagonist, 77-year-old Dan Geary an attorney, finds himself no longer on this earth, but in a setting much like being in a national park surrounded by flowering hills, glistening streams and far off majestic snowcapped mountains. Having no trails to follow, but plenty of time to figure it out, Dan finds that each day is a new adventure which eventually leads him to his final goal. Through this believable character who has not yet reached heaven, the reader is invited to ponder the experiences of regret, contrition and forgiveness while realizing how much he is loved by God. Please join us for a conversation with the author where you will have the opportunity to ask him questions related to this exciting novel on the afterlife. This would also be a great opportunity to have extra copies of the book for Norton to autograph for family and friends. Hope to see you there. A Hiker's Guide to Purgatory is available for purchase at the Parish Office or from book sources everywhere. For more information, please contact Ray Kettel (313-680-9890).

Open 6am - 11:30pm

St. Clare of Assisi, Foundress of Poor Clare Nuns, Italy
(1193-1253)—Feast, Aug. 11

"At night she prolonged her vigils, and then, alone, prostrate on her knees before the tabernacle, she gave free course to the transports of her devotion. Going in spirit to the heights of Calvary, she joined her tears to the tears of the Redeemer, and never wearied of offering herself a pure victim to the Eternal Father for the conversion of peoples—the holocaust of her senses by penitence and prayer, and the still better holocaust of her heart by the outpourings of her love" (St. Clare of Assisi, Leopold de Cherance, OSFC).

"Every one of us needs half an hour of prayer each day, except when we are busy—then we need an hour."

Grieving with Great HOPE

"Thank you for showing me the way to mourn with hope."

There are no stages to grief. We all experience loss in our own unique way. Healing is an intentional process, where we gather as a community of faith to become disciples of HOPE. It is through prayerful reflection, practical learning and personal fellowship that we mourn.

Grieving with Great Hope is a weekend grief support workshop for anyone who is grieving the death of a loved one. Msgr. Gary Smetanka will join John and Sandy O'Shaughnessy from Good Mourning Ministry, a Catholic Bereavement Apostolate, who will facilitate the workshop.

Please complete registration on the back.
