Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

October is Respect Life Month. What does respect life mean? Here is one definition: "Respecting life means protecting oneself and others from harm, but it also means valuing life in everyday ways."

Most often when people hear the phrase "respect life" the immediate thought or connection is protection of the unborn. That is a good connection. However, the understanding must go beyond the beginning stage of life and encompass all stages of life through natural death.

I know you have seen the notice in the bulletin, the quick slide in church prior to Sunday Mass, etc., about the requirement of all volunteers (school and church) participating in the Protecting God's Children safe environment certification or recertification. For the past 20 years, only those who were going to be with the youth or vulnerable adults had to take the class. It is a good change that now ALL volunteers must go through this class. Essentially, it is about respecting life, especially given the definition "protecting oneself and others from harm..."

One of the goals of this new requirement is to have more people part of the solution and not part of the problem. In taking this short class or presentation, we are given the things to look out for in what some type of abuse might possibly be going on or the prelude of something that might happen down the road. The more we are aware, the more we can raise the flag of potential abuse and hopefully prevent it from happening. That is protecting others. We also need to protect ourselves. The class or workshop raises the awareness of making sure volunteers do not put themselves in a situation or predicament so they might be accused of any inappropriate actions or words.

Yes, this class or video series lasts 2 or 3 hours. Do some people not waste that or more time a day on their computer? Or watch useless television program, or programs, that amount of time every day? This certification/recertification is more valuable than that, especially when it can save a person from harm and even their life.

This is why every volunteer, in all programs, ministries, and organizations, in all parishes and schools within the Archdiocese, is now being asked to complete a safe environment certification by Nov. 1. It is time well spent, respecting life as we value all life!

** Thank you for all your pledges and gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal. Gifts are still welcome in support of the more than 120 different ministries and programs in SE Michigan. In addition, the parish now receives all gifts past our target, which will be applied to our Raise the Roof

Half and Half continued... campaign.

** I will be in Cincinnati this week at the 54th national meeting of the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions, this year sponsored by the dioceses of Michigan and Ohio. Being a member of the Board of Directors of the FDLC, the organizers of this meeting and co-sponsored by the US Bishop's Committee on Worship, I have had direct involvement in the planning and execution of this meeting and its Study Day. Our focus is our children in the Church and their liturgical formation and education. Fifty years ago, the Directory of Masses with Children was published by the Vatican so we are taking another look at their valuable document and hopefully bringing new life to it in our present day. Please pray for a successful and profitable week!

Blessings on your week, see the Goodness of the Lord!

Our Lady Star of the Sea welcomes you to:

Grieving with Great HOPE

"Thank you for showing me the way to mourn with hope."

There are no stages to grief. We all experience loss in our own unique way. Healing is an intentional process, where we gather as a community of faith to become disciples of HOPE. It is through prayerful reflection, practical learning and personal fellowship that we mourn.

Grieving with Great Hope is a weekend grief support workshop for anyone who is grieving the death of a loved one. Msgr. Gary Smetanka will join John and Sandy O'Shaughnessy from Good Mourning Ministry, a Catholic Bereavement Apostolate, who will facilitate the workshop.

An Invitation to Serve as a Lector

The Parish needs some new lectors to serve along with our existing team of dedicated lectors.

Do you read aloud well? We'd love for you to share your gift for reading aloud with us by proclaiming the Word during Mass.

Our lectors find that participation in the Lector Ministry gives them an increased understanding of and appreciation for Sacred Scripture.

Lectors are normally scheduled to serve about once a month at the Mass they normally attend.

No experience is necessary. Anyone who has been Confirmed may serve as a lector. A single training session will be scheduled at your convenience.

Mass of Remembrance

Thursday, November 2 7:00 pm

The month of November has traditionally been set aside for remembrance of those who have died.

Please join us for a special Mass as we remember those buried from our parish in the past year and all the dead.

Choir practice for the Advent and Christmas Season begins this week - on Wednesday at 7pm in Choir Room. Anyone who is interested in singing with the Choir whether it be on Sunday at the 1130am Mass, or if you wish to sing for the Christmas Season including any concerts, should see Aaron as soon as possible, Or you can email him at a.kaleniacki@stargp.org. The choir will be singing sections from Handel's Messiah as well as the ever popular Gospel Messiah "Too Hot to Handel". Hope you can join us. The adult choir is open to any confirmed adult. The ability to read music is a plus but not a requirement.
