Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

I hope your Lent is progressing nicely! Are those resolutions to help change/improve your spiritual life still strong? I hope so. If not, get back to them and recharge. There is always time to start them again with a bit more determination and help from the Holy Spirit.

I know many of you have signed up for the "I am here" Lent Challenge. That is good. I hope you're answering correctly. Most importantly, learning a bit more about the parts of the Mass that is central to our life!

This week, Wednesday at 7 pm, we have our Lent Taizé Prayer. Taizé prayer is liked by many people. It is done in a very peaceful and quiet environment, softly lit, usually focused on a single item, like a cross, as the point of meditation. The music is typically a phrase or that is repeated over and over, softer to louder and then very soft again. It is all meant to draw one into the center of focus, the center of Jesus. If you have not experienced it before, why not give it a try? Especially if you have a busy and hectic day!

 This Thursday I will be providing an additional time for private confessions, from 3 pm - 4 pm in church.

 If you are reading this on Saturday, know it is Fr. Brian Meldrum's fortieth (40th) birthday and wish him a great Birthday! If you are reading this on Sunday...well he is older now but you can still wish him well and continue to watch that gray hair come in more! It is hard for me to believe he is 40 since I have know him since he was 12 years old. He was a good kid in his younger days. And a better man in his older days! I am very proud to watch him mature in grow and LOTS of wisdom over the years. As you have seen with the Lent trivia challenge, he is quite popular ... and good! Many more years of blessings Fr. Brian, and thanks for enriching Star of the Sea, Sacred Heart Major Seminary, and the thousands of young people and families you have guided to the heart of Jesus. We are happy that this is your second (or third?) home.

 Have you been to our Fish Fry? Spread the good word if you have and come and visit if you have not!

 In two weeks, March 9, is the parish auction at the War Memorial. Our special honoree for the evening is Ms. Julie Aemisegger. She has been such a strong supporter of our school and our parish. It will be great if you can attend. If not, there are many ways to support our parish and school. All contributions are welcome!

May the Lord continue to call you closer to himself. May our Blessed Mother help guide you to her son. May this Lent be fruitful and bring you deep peace and newness of life in Jesus.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Stewardship Thoughts

The topic of sacrifice links today's First and Second Readings. In Genesis, Sarah and Abraham are blessed in their older years with their only son, Isaac. God tests Abraham by directing him to sacrifice Isaac. As Abraham is about to follow through, a messenger from heaven proclaims: Abraham, Abraham! ... Do not lay your hand on the boy ... Abraham offers a ram in place of his son. To encourage the Christian community in Rome, St. Paul reminds them that God sacrificed His only Son ... who intercedes for us. In St. Mark's Gospel, the evangelist tells of Christ's Transfiguration, where God the Father clearly reveals Jesus in His glorified state. Jesus then alludes to Peter, James, and John of His death and Resurrection. Our own giving of the "first fruits" of our prayer, service, and generosity back to God, our parish, and our neighbor, are solid acts of Christian love. Sacrifice brings great joy, peace, and grace to those who embrace stewardship in their lives. This Lent, in a spirit of evangelization, pause and reflect on how you can use your God-given gifts to spread the Good News of the Gospel.

LENT

Prayer, Almsgiving, Fasting

"Adore Jesus in the Divine Host by offering the sovereign homage of your mind to him who is its sovereign truth, of your heart to him who is its God, of your will to him who is its Lord" (St. Peter Julian Eymard).

Consider coming to the chapel to show your love for our Eucharistic Lord. Enjoy the peace only the Lord can give. Bring your Bible, prayer book or rosary and commit to one hour before the Blessed Sacrament.

Please pray for:
