Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Well... you obviously know that I am not Irish. Nonetheless, I do appreciate Irish people, Irish tradition, and certainly the faith of the Irish people. As we mark this March 17, the feast day of St. Patrick, we also know many people, Irish or not, pause and celebrate because as someone once said, "everybody is Irish on St. Paddy's day!" This day dedicated to St. Patrick is also a mark that we are getting closer to spring! That certainly makes us happy!

Perhaps you can use this "Table Blessing" at your meal today:

Lord of All Nations and All Peoples, we rejoice today in a special servant of Yours, St. Patrick. Irish or not, Catholic or not, we all dance a gleeful jig on this his joyous feast day. Lord of bishops, bakers and bartenders, we thank You for sprinkling saints among us like Patrick, Bishop of Ireland.

His green feast day gives us all a chance to wear the green of spring and life. Four days from now our old friend winter will loose his lease on life. Packing up his ice and snow, his chilly winds and frosty breath, he'll soon be gone.

The green of this day foretells of rich vegetation soon to grace our countryside; proclaims the fresh and new to the tired and weary; announces to one and all that spring is on her way!

Glory for spring and saintly Patrick, whose feast of songs and jokes, of dancing feet and faerie folks, will be for us the eve of springtime.

As Patrick sent snakes slithering out of Ireland by Your blessed touch, may we, each, through his pastoral intercession, be freed of any evil in our lives.

Lord of All Seasons, winter is on his deathbed, but song and mirth are greening all around us.

Blessed be St. Patrick, bishop and man of prayer.

Blessed be all saints, and the wee folk as well. Amen.

Now don't forget about the Solemnity of St. Joseph on Tuesday!!! Many more nationalities have special celebrations for St. Joseph, Patron of the Church.

** A huge thank you to all the special sponsors, donors, and participants at our Star in... Wonderland Auction last Saturday. Thanks to the committee who put it all together and presented such a wonderful evening. The special honorary chair and honoree was former vice principal and principal, Julie Aemisegger. It was a very successful night in so many ways! The auction always makes Star shine bright!

** This Friday is our last Fish Fry for this Lent. If you have not yet enjoyed it, please come by or get a carry out for home. It has been a great season and I am thankful for the more than a thousand people who have come to enjoy what we have to offer! I look forward to a record breaking night this Friday!

** I hope you are thinking more about your participation in the upcoming liturgies of Holy Week, especially Holy Thursday night, Good Friday afternoon, and Saturday evening at the Great Easter Vigil!

Seek the Lord, know His abiding presence in your life this week!

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Mass Intentions - Please Note:

Mass intentions may be arranged by coming into the parish office. According to Archdiocesan Policy, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass per person. Masses can be for the deceased (+) and the living, so please don't assume that a Mass being said for a living person, means that they are ill, please respect the privacy of all individuals. Mass intentions must be received 14 days prior to publication to be published and read at Mass.

Almsgiving

The three traditional pillars of Lenten observance are prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Almsgiving: It is a sign of our care for those in need and an expression of our gratitude for all that God has given to us. Works of charity and the promotion of justice are fundamental components of the Christian way of life we began when we were baptized.

Please take an envelope and place your donation to one or more of the organizations in the envelope and return your envelope during Holy Thursday Mass.

Covenant House – Detroit, MI

Please Make Checks payable to OLSOS or to Covenant House - <https://covenanthousemi.org/>

Our goal at Covenant House Michigan is to provide a better life for the youth who come through our doors. We not only offer food and shelter, we offer a package for independence and overall success. Whether they are brought here by our Outreach Team or walk through our doors, every child is embraced with open arms. Helping young people embrace the great promise of their lives, Covenant House Michigan offers a combination of support strategies, including- educational programs, job training and placement, medical services, mental health and substance abuse counseling.

St Joseph's Helpers

Please make checks payable to OLSOS or to St Joseph's Helpers - <https://sjhelpers.org/>

a nonprofit organization, founded on Christian values and composed of men and women who volunteer their time and talents to provide basic home maintenance and repairs to those in need to feel safe and secure in their homes.

As the need continues to grow in our community, St Joseph's Helpers is searching for additional volunteers to help deliver these valuable services.

Those that are handy can use their talents to help complete the home repair projects. Many of these projects take less than two hours to complete, and volunteers can determine the dates and times of their availability.

Those that can't work on projects are invited to assist in the office, serve as a prayer advocate, or consider donating to the organization.

St Vincent de Paul -OLSOS Conference

Please make checks payable to OLSOS or to SVdP OLSOS

Our Conference needs monetary donations to assist the needy. As with most charities, contributions have dropped, but the needs of the poor remain. In the past year we have helped over 30 families with rent, utilities, food, beds, security deposits, Christmas presents and general needs. Please consider helping us so we can continue to help the needy in our neighborhood.

We wish to thank all our parishioners for their generosity in remembering the poor. Your continued kindness is at work helping to provide for those in want.

An Update on our Steinway!

Many of you have noticed that our beautiful concert grand piano was removed from the church before Christmas. Our piano, which is a Steinway 9 foot Model D, is considered the premiere concert grand piano used by world class orchestras and pianists all over the globe is out for a much needed refurbishment. Before it arrived at Star, the piano was used in the Steinway Concert and Artists (C&A) program for the first 10 years of its life - which meant that in addition to being played by some of the world's greatest pianists when they toured through Detroit, it was also constantly being moved and tuned almost daily for a decade. If you figure that an average grand piano gets tuned 3-4 times a year, a piano in the C&A program gets tuned about 300 times a year, which would be the equivalent to about 750 years worth of tunings for a typical piano. That amount of stress on the pins, strings, and pinblock ultimately wears the piano out where it will no longer hold its tune properly and it loses the "voice" of a concert grand piano. These photos show that the keys and all the action, along with the piano's frame, pinblock, pins and strings have all been removed and is ready to have the soundboard replaced before reassembly can begin. Piano refurbishment at this level can take many months as the work is very slow and tedious and I'm pleased to report that we have engaged the best in the industry to do this work for us.

Please donate your clean bottles and cans to the Knights of Columbus. Money collected will be used to help numerous organizations.

Donations may be brought to the Mary's Garden Vestibule.

DIOCESAN

Dennis Dykstra, a representative from our bulletin publisher, Diocesan Publications, is seeking new parish bulletin ads. If you are interested in advertising please contact Dennis at 616-916-9683. We feel this is an excellent opportunity for local businesses to increase their visibility in the community. Advertising in the bulletin allows this publication to be printed each week at no cost to the parish.

THANK YOU: The advertisements that appear in this bulletin completely defray all publishing costs which the church would otherwise incur. Please patronize the sponsors on the back of this bulletin and thank them for their kind generosity.

Sacristan Needed

The Sacristan Ministry at Star is looking for someone to join our Sunday 11:30 am Sacristan Team.

Sacristans are scheduled to serve once a month, but are able to switch with other sacristans on their team whenever needed.

Responsibilities for 11:30 am sacristans include setting up for Mass and locking up the church after Mass.

No experience is required. We will show you exactly what you need to do. This is a wonderful ministry for individuals, couples, or families, and a nice way to get involved in the Parish.

Stewardship Thoughts

Through the Prophet Jeremiah, God made a new covenant with the Israelites: I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ... I will ... remember their sin no more. The Second Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Christ is the source of eternal salvation for all who obey Him. Jesus is the model of obedience to God the Father. Jesus professes, in St. John's Gospel, that the Father will honor those who follow and serve Him. This is an encouraging message to faithful stewards who discern what God wants in their lives, then strive to fulfill His will by completely losing themselves in love and service to God and neighbor. St. Teresa of Calcutta displayed this during her life. Take time to read her story and let her great faith inspire you.
