Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

I realize there might be some confusion about today, Dec. 8, normally the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a holyday of obligation. However we are not celebrating it! What's the deal?

First of all, the Sundays of Advent take precedence over other feasts. [To help guide the Church in her liturgical celebrations, there is a "table of liturgical celebrations" that lists the order of priority and precedence of all celebrations. That is why we find some liturgical feasts move to another day if, for example, they fall during holy week or the Paschal Triduum.] Therefore, the second Sunday of Advent is celebrated today, not the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. However, because of the importance of the Immaculate Conception, the liturgical celebration of the solemnity gets pushed to Monday, Dec. 9 in order that the Church celebrates this great event.

Second, in past years, when the feast got moved to the next day, we celebrated the solemnity (the holyday) but the obligation was not transferred with the celebration. So for this year, this was the expected course of action. Then a few months ago other news came forth.

Upon inquiry of a bishop about the transfer of the obligation with the celebration, a affirmative ("yes") came from the Dicastery of Legislative Texts. So that meant Monday would be a holyday of obligation. However, Archbishop Vigneron, as with some other bishops, dispensed the faithful from the obligation to participate in Mass to celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception this year. (I hope you followed all that... tests will be forthcoming!)

 Thanks for your generosity to the Religious Retirement Fund and the Giving Tree and so much more. Special thanks to you for your increased thoughtfulness and generosity with the Sunday offering during the past few weeks. May you be rewarded for all that you do. Thanks to all of you who have done so much to make our parish so beautiful and so vibrant. Be sure to spread the word and invite others to be with us for these Sundays of Advent and the Christmas season. (Remember all Giving Tree gifts need to be back, unwrapped, by today, Dec. 8 at 12:30pm.)

 Advent is a time when people are on a journey. Their journey is just not to the stores and websites but, a spiritual journey to prepare our hearts again for the coming of the Lord at Christmas. I know that many people have their routines of holiday decorating, activities, schedules, and the like. Advent is a time to take a look again at some of our routines and see what might be adjusted. Have you slipped into a routine of getting to Mass late? Or perhaps the routine of leaving Mass early, whether Mass ends in 55 minutes or 32 minutes? The Mass is not over once you receive Holy Communion but when the priest says, "the Mass ended." Let's look at our routines and make adjustments to get us back where Christ wants us to be.

 A good routine is "going to confession" during Advent. I will be available for private confessions on Tuesday night from 6:30 - 7:30 pm in church. (That is addition to the normal 3 pm on Saturdays, until all have been heard.)

May your Advent journey welcome Christ into your heart and establish a true home of peace and joy.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

This Advent, join Fr. Mike Schmitz in a journey through the daily readings as he confronts our doubts and reveals God's love with app-exclusive daily video reflections and scripture passages.

Discover who God is, who we are, and how we are made worthy to stand in his presence. What if you knew that December 25th, Christmas Day was the day that you were going to die? The way we live Advent would have to change.

We'd have to live with intentionality.
We'd have to live it with purpose.
We'd have to live it with grace.

Too often, we live life by "default". We forget that we are on a journey to an eternal destination of joy that we were made for.

We are burdened by fears and questions: what if I am not worthy? What if I am not enough?

Live Advent differently this year. Prepare to meet God, face to face.

Only available on the Ascension App

Stewardship Thoughts

In today's Scripture readings, both the prophet Baruch and the evangelist St. Luke declare that every valley be filled, every mountain and hill leveled, and all paths made straight in the Lord. St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles, urges us, through the love of Jesus, to value only those things that truly matter so that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ. These inspiring texts remind us that, through our Lord and Savior, we can find true fulfillment; reconciliation and healing can happen in the most trying circumstances; and all can find spiritual wholeness. What a beautiful message for faith-filled stewards during this holy Advent season. As we again prepare to celebrate Christ's birth, partake in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
