Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

"God, our Father, you are the guardian and guide of our lives. Your word is joy, your will is life, your commands bring peace. Watch over and guide us as you did your Son's earthly family. Through the celebration of this feast help us to respond to your word and will, that we may grow together as people of faith and enjoy the peace of your kingdom."

Christmas Blessings to you and yours!

The Christmas season is finally upon us and hopefully some of the rush is over. This is also a time for families to hopefully have the time to spend together and strengthen their bonds. I think many families are quite lucky to have additional time off between Christmas and New Year's Day to rest, to play in the snow, to read, to watch movies, to visit friends, etc. Some of our visits might also bring some tears as we tell stories and remember family and friends who have gone to their glory.

This Feast of the Holy Family gives us much to ponder. Pope Francis said, "Today our gaze on the Holy Family lets us also be drawn into the simplicity of the life they led in Nazareth. It is an example that does our families great good, helping them increasingly to become communities of love and reconciliation, in which tenderness, mutual help, and mutual forgiveness is experienced. Let us remember the three key words for living in peace and joy in the family: "may I", "thank you" and "sorry". (Dec. 29, 2013)

As we celebrate this feast of the Holy Family, let us remember to take the time to pray to them for our guidance and inspiration. We often find ourselves in situations that bring us to make difficult decisions. Our prayers to the Holy Family can greatly assist us in our lives. Especially in our world today when there might be an increase of fear in all walks of life, we can use their help! Let's not underestimate the power of our prayer. Mary, Joseph and Jesus certainly had times of anxiety and shared some of the same frustrations as we share today. Just as Christ's presence brought joy to Mary and Joseph, may we find that some peace and joy in our own family this Christmas season and beyond.

* Be safe this New Year's Eve - watch out for the intoxicated drivers out on the road. We have to watch out for them since they probably don't watch out for us! Remember Masses for the Holyday of Obligation are 4 pm on New Year's Eve and then 9:30 am on New Year's Day. New Year's Day is the Solemnity of Mary, Holy Mother of God.

* Many, many thanks to all of you who offered Christmas greetings, blessing, prayers, cookies, or other gifts. Your kindness and thoughtfulness is always very much appreciated. Please know that all of you are a very special family! I am very happy and proud to be a part of it. You are certainly in my thoughts, prayers and the Masses I celebrate.

* Are not our church and grounds beautiful? Many thanks to those who took the many hours to put the lights on the trees, put up the nativity set, and to decorate the church. We certainly appreciate all that you did!!

* End and begin the year in peace, joy and good wishes. See you at Mass next year!

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

This prayer that Fr. Brian often uses at the end of the intercessions at Mass is a prayer of St. John Henry Newman (1801-1890):

May the Lord support us all the day long,
till the shades lengthen
and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed,
and the fever of life is over,
and our work is done.
Then in his mercy
may he give us a safe lodging,
and holy rest,
and peace at the last.
Christ our Lord. Amen.

Stewardship Thoughts

The topics of family honor and obedience connect today's Scripture passages. The Book of Sirach instructs those who respectfully honor their father and revere their mother atone for their sins and in turn, store up riches. Those who are caregivers for aging parents are also remembered — their generosity is an offering against sin. In St. Luke's Gospel, Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the Temple after a frantic three-day search. The evangelist tells of their return to Nazareth, where Jesus is obedient to them. Pope St. John Paul II emphasized the family as the "Domestic Church." Archbishop Allen Vigneron also discusses the importance of the "Domestic Church" in his pastoral letter, Unleash the Gospel (see: Guidepost 7, Families. <https://www.unleashthegospel.org>). Please pray for faith-filled families, as their discipleship is the foundation for vocations to the priesthood, religious life, permanent diaconate, and other ministries to the Church.
