BAPTISMS

Please call the Faith Formation Office (313-884-7407) during the last months of pregnancy to arrange for Baptism classes and schedule the Sacrament.

Everyone has a right to their own sacramental certificate. No one has the right to another person's certificate, except: the parent/guardian of a minor child. (Archdiocese of Detroit)

RECONCILIATION

Saturday at 3:00 pm or by appointment

ANOINTING OF THE SICK/ MINISTRY TO THE SICK

The Church strongly encourages people to receive the Sacrament (Anointing) of the Sick at the early stages of serious sickness or before serious surgeries.

In emergency situations needing the prompt attention of a priest, please call the parish office.

MARRIAGE

Must be a registered member, in good standing, of OLSOS.

Archdiocesan law requires advance notice of at least six months.

PARISH REGISTRATION

Newcomers to the parish may register in the Parish Office or online at OLSOS.org. Please notify the Parish Office of address changes.

Adults over 21 need to be registered as an individual member to be considered a Catholic in Good Standing.

Hearing devices are available for use during Mass. Please ask an usher for assistance.

On Christmas Eve night, 2024, Pope Francis inaugurated the Holy Year as he opened the Holy Door at the Vatican St. Peter's Basilica. Every 25 years the Church celebrates an ordinary Jubilee year, a time for renewal in many ways for the faithful. The Jubilee Year, with its theme of hope, will end on January 6, 2026.

Here in Detroit, Archbishop Vigneron inaugurated the Jubilee Year at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral on Dec. 29. Celebrating the opening Mass at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Archbishop Vigneron explained that the year's theme, "Pilgrims of Hope," is a reminder of the expectation of good things to come, and that, because it is a pilgrimage, it is not done alone.

"One of the professors over at Sacred Heart (Major) Seminary put it this way: 'Hope is the disposition that flowers in the heart when faith looks to the future,'" Archbishop Vigneron said in his homily. "The faith with which we look to the future is a faith that guarantees the future belongs to Christ, and so our hope is the flower of that faith in the power of the Lord Jesus."

"By nature of being a pilgrimage, it is a movement toward the unknown future, the Archbishop said. Many people would try to predict the future, he added; news stations, pundits and intellectuals have their own predictions for 2025, but they are simply guesses."

"The future is unknown to us, and what we do know is that we move into it as pilgrims with trust in the Lord Jesus because he is all-powerful," Archbishop Vigneron said.

However, as we step into the future, we can turn to the Scriptures as a light for our path and a glimpse of what is ahead, the Archbishop said."

We see that at the heart of our being, as sons and daughters of God, is a call to that particular kind of hope that bears fruit in self-abandonment," Archbishop Vigneron said. "That is a kind of hope that we can particularly ask to be strengthened in this jubilee year."

Throughout the jubilee year, the faithful can give themselves over to God in His loving providence, he added. (from Detroit Catholic)

There are many opportunities throughout this Jubilee Year for each of us to be renewed in hope. For more information, go to the AoD website (www.aod.org) and you will find more information and the number of pilgrimage sites through the archdiocese.

-  As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, late us recall the significance of our baptism, incorporating us into the life of Christ and the Church. Those of you who are parents and have had your children baptized, recall the promises you made to support the faith and bring up the child in the practice of the faith. The children are dependent on their parents, and Godparents, to teach and form the child in the faith. The Grace bestowed in the life of faith is not only for the child but certainly also for the parents!
-  Our school Open House is coming up in few weeks. A great time to invite other families in the neighborhood to check out our school of excellence when minds and hearts are formed to the heart of Jesus! We have so many great offerings and our academics set us apart from other local schools!

 May I ask for some assistance? Please keep the exterior doors closed when entering church, especially if you see no one following you into church. It is always best to keep the extreme cold weather out and the heat in! Thank you.

Have a blessed week in the Hope of the Lord,

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

THE PRAYER FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR

Father in heaven, may the faith you have gifted us in your Son Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity kindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us, the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for treasures of heaven.
May the same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer.
throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.

Mass Intentions - Please Note: Mass intentions may be arranged by coming into the parish office or online at www.olsos.org/mass-intentions. According to Archdiocesan Policy, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass per person. Masses can be for the deceased (+) and the living, so please don't assume that a Mass being said for a living person, means that they are ill, please respect the privacy of all individuals.

MASS INTENTIONS What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

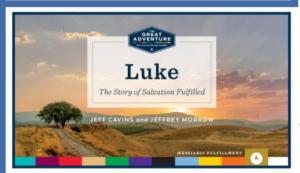

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

It is worth noting, however, that the offering of the Mass for that intention does not depend on it being publicly voiced but on it being specified in the priest's personal prayers. Similarly, if a priest announces that "I am offering this Mass for [such and such an] intention" he does not thereby require the rest of the congregation to pray for that intention.

ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled

The Gospel of Luke highlights key moments in salvation history, from John the Baptist's foretold birth to Jesus' ascension. Unique elements include the road to Emmaus story and parables like the Prodigal Son and Good Samaritan, showcasing Jesus' mercy. An 8-part study by Jeff Cavins and Dr. Jeffrey Morrow explores Luke's Biblical connections to Mary, the Rosary, and the Mass, deepening prayer and faith.

Stewardship Thoughts

In today's Scripture readings, Isaiah foretells the preaching of Jesus' cousin, John the Baptist. In the Gospel from the evangelist St. Luke, John professes: I am baptizing you with water ... He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. In a spirit of evangelization, let us draw closer to the Lord in discipleship, invoking the Holy Spirit to enkindle a fire in our hearts. May this fire move us forward as faithful stewards to carry out our baptismal promises to cast off evil and be committed to His Word, to love and serve God and our neighbor, and to spread the Gospel message of the Good News to everyone we encounter. We can begin to evangelize — or re-evangelize — family members and friends by simply inviting them to an evangelization program offered in the parish, like Alpha or ChristLife.
